OP. 2ND & MORRISON ST.

ONE DAY ONLY

TUESDAY

60 doz. White Shirts at 50¢
Regular Price; sizes 14 to 17 inches.

STANDARD SHIRTS

50¢

These are the Celebrated Standard Shirts that sell over at $1 each.

KOHN & CO.

CLOTHIERS HATTERS TAILORS

Cor 2nd & Morrison Sts.

SIGHT IS PRICELESS

If You Have Defective Eyes, Value Them, go to

REED & MALCOLM,

for eyeglasses and Eye-Glasses. It is the establishment in the Northwest where they are prepared on thorough scientific principles. Lenses ground if necessary, to correct each particular case. Defect where glasses are required too numerous to mention. We guarantee our fitting to be absolutely perfect. Our new optometer, an instrument to measure the strength of the eye, is the most complete, the best science has produced, and is the only one ever imported that will give the exact amount of improvement to sight.

REED & MALCOLM,
Scientific Opticians,
74 Morrison street, Portland, Or.

4eJm15

SAM'L H. TAYLOR,
GENERAL AGENT
Thomson Houston Electric Co.
Complete Systems of Arc & Incandescent Electric Lighting.
SELF-GOVERNING ELECTRIC MOTOR.
234 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.

TANSY PILLS

are perfectly safe and always reliable. Ladies, do not be deceived by worthless imitations. Ask your druggist for Wilcox's Tansy Pills, and take no other. If your druggist does not keep them, send $1 to us and we will send you a box by return mail. Sold by druggists everywhere. Take no substitute. Send for circular. Address WILCOX SPECIFIC CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale by Snell, Heitshu & Woodard, Portland, Or.

EVERDING & FARRELL,
Feed, Groceries, Provisions, Etc.
140 FRONT STREET.
FOR THE FINEST GLASS OF BEER IN THE CITY, go to Frank Keller's, Standard Block.

P. P. PFUNDER & CO.
Nos. 5 and 7 North First St., Portland, Or.,
Importers and Wholesale Liquor Dealers.
SOLE AGENTS—
Pfunder Whiskies
Val Blatz Wehner Beer,
White Rock Mineral Water.

Schuyler & Co.
THE LEADER.
Bedroom and Parlor Suites,
Folding Beds (all styles),
School Desks, Odd Chairs,
Chiffoniers, Side Boards,
Best Assortment in Portland.
[redacted]
[redacted] CO., Portland, Or.

SCHWAN & BRO.,
Grocers and Commission Merchants, and 170 Front St., Portland, Oregon.
[redacted] for sale in lots to suit.

EVERDING & FARRELL,
Feed, Groceries, Provisions, Etc.
140 FRONT STREET.
FOR THE FINEST GLASS OF BEER IN THE CITY, go to Frank Keller's, Standard Block.

HOME INDUSTRY.
HENRY WEINHARD'S
Portland Lager Beer.
Brewery, Cor. Front and Ash Sts.
Unrivaled Facilities for Shipping in Car Lots.
PROMPT DELIVERY.

VAN SCHUYVER & CO.,
Wine and Spirit Merchants,
Portland, Oregon.
Old Bourbon! Old Hickory Bourbon!
Manhattan Club Bourbon!
Sole Agents for DRUMMOND, from New York.

T. HOGAN,
SUCCESSOR TO J. B. CONGLE
Manufacturer and Importer of Saddlery Hardware, Collars, Whips, Horse Clothing,
Robes, Leather, Carriage Trimmings, Etc.
FRONT ST., - - - PORTLAND, OR.

DYSPEPSIA AND Liver Eating TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

INDIGESTION EASILY GOT RID OF BY TAKING TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

BLUE

PROWELL'S
No 7 NIMENT
MONEY REFUND D DRUGGIST

LOVE.

I FELT BAD IN THE MORNING.
I COULD EAT NO BREAKFAST.
I LACKED ENERGY.
I COULD NOT DIGEST WELL.
I FELT LOW IN SPIRITS.
I HAD NO AMBITION.
I FEEL WELL NOW.
I TAKE
Peruvian Bitters.

CHAS. KOHN & CO.,
AGENTS.
44 Front Street, Portland, Or.

Jacob Kast's Beer.

BREWERY:
Twenty-Second Street, bet. B and F.

EVERDING & FARRELL,
Feed, Groceries, Provisions, Etc.
140 FRONT STREET.
FOR THE FINEST GLASS OF BEER IN THE CITY, go to Frank Keller's, Standard Block.

FULL WEIGHT PURE
DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER
MOST PERFECT MADE.
Its superior excellence proven in millions of homes for more than a quarter of a century. It is used by the United States Government. Endorsed by the Heads of the Great Universities as the Strongest, Purest and Most Healthful. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia, Lime or Alum. Sold only in cans.
PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.
NEW YORK. CHICAGO. ST. LOUIS.

FAIRBANK'S
STREET SCENES.

Warehouse Trucks.
Send for Price List.
L. H. PARKER, Agent,
No. 9 Oak st., Portland, Or.

EVERY NIGHT I SCRATCHED

Until the skin was raw. Body covered with scales like spots of mortar. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your CUTICURA REMEDIES performed on me. About the 1st of April last I noticed some red pimples coming on all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on, when it began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which caused intense itching. I scratched every night until I was raw, and the next night the scales, being formed meanwhile, were scratched off again. I consulted the doctors in the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and determined to try them. I got my Cuticura, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scaly deformations gradually dropped off and disappeared one by one, and have been fully cured. I had the disease thirteen months before I began taking the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. I can recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to all in my vicinity, and I know of several many who have taken them and trusts me for the knowledge of them, especially those who have babies with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express in words the thanks to you for what the CUTICURA REMEDIES have been to me. My body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a lily's.

GEO. COLEY, Merrill, Wis.
Sworn to before me this 21st day of Feb. 7, 1888.

Feb. 7, 1888.—Not a trace whatsoever of the disease from which I suffered has shown itself since my cure.
GEO. COLEY.

We cannot do justice to the esteem in which CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, prepared from it, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, are held by the thousands upon thousands whose lives have been made happy by the cures it, agonizing, humiliating, scaly and pimply diseases of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair.

Sold everywhere. Price: Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 35 cents; Resolvent, $1. Prepared by the Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston, Mass.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations and 100 testimonials.

PIMPLES, black-heads, red, rough, chapped and oily skin prevented by CUTICURA SOAP.

I CAN'T BREATHE.
Chest Pains, Soreness, Weakness, Hacking Cough, Asthma, Pleurisy and inflammation relieved in one minute by the Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster. Nothing like it for Weak Lungs.

WILL YOU LISTEN TO SOUND ADVICE?

Owing to the inclination of many people to be humbugged in the purchase of articles of necessity in the manner, I do feel it my duty to found a note of warning to those who seek remedies for the relief of the ashes and palsaidest to this season of the year. The great and growing popularity of BENSON'S PLASTER has tempted unscrupulous manufacturers to offer many worthless substitutions and imitations of that valuable remedy, hence we would advise those who wish to secure prompt relief from Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Chest Pains, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Lumbago and Backache, to carefully avoid worthless plasters by always asking for BENSON'S, and let no persuasion by the dealer induce you to accept any other plaster.

"Pet" Cigarettes
ARE THE BEST.
CIGARETTE SMOKERS, WHO ARE WILLING TO pay a little more than the price charged for the ordinary trade cigarettes will find the
"Pet" Cigarettes
Superior to all others. The paper used for them is the very highest quality, being free from all drugs, and is absolutely Without Drugs, or Adulteration.
ALLEN & GINTER, Manufacturers, Richmond, Va.

Morning Oregonian.

POSTLAND, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1888. NO. 8665.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Disposal of Four More Pages of the Tariff Bill.

INCLUDING THE IRON SCHEDULE.

Scott of Pennsylvania Alludes to the Labor Troubles in His State—The House Adjourns to Thursday.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The house to-day non-concurred in the senate amendment appropriating $800,000 in the postoffice bill to provide for a more efficient mail service between the United States and South and Central America and the West Indies.

On motion of Mills of Texas it was ordered that when the house adjourned to-day it be to meet Thursday next. It was also agreed that the tariff bill would not be called up for consideration Thursday.

The house then went into committee of the whole, Springer of Illinois in the chair, on the tariff bill.

On motion of McMillan of Tennessee, the duty on cast polished plate glass, unsilvered, was left unchanged.

McKinley of Ohio moved to increase from $6 to $6 72 per ton the duty on pig iron. He explained that the present rate of duty was $6 72 per ton and the proposed reduction would be very injurious upon the pig iron industry; lost—yeas 68, nays 77.

McKinley then moved to restore the present rate of duty on iron railway bars weighing more than 200 pounds to the yard; lost.

McMillan moved to strike out the clause imposing a duty of $12 a ton on slabs and billets of steel, and restore the present rate of 45 per cent. advalorem.

Hayne, of Pennsylvania, opposed the motion. The present duty was equivalent to $8 a ton; while he thought was not sufficiently high; agreed to.

Mott moved to increase from 20 to 22 per cent. per ton the duty on charcoal bloom iron; lost.

McKinley moved to restore the existing rates on bar iron, which was advocated by Burrows of Michigan.

OPPOSED TO REDUCTION.

Bayne of Pennsylvania, in supporting the motion expressed himself as opposed to a reduction of the tariff, and in favor of the repeal of the tobacco tax and the tax on alcohol used in the arts. This, he thought, would reduce the surplus as far as it should be reduced, if the government intended to do justice to the widows and children of soldiers of the war. He favored the tariff because it provides a home market, and said the two tickets before the country to-day represented the two ideas. The republican ticket believed that the American market should be for Americans, and the other that the American markets should be open to the whole world.

Scott of Pennsylvania charged the republican party with having deserted its platforms of '84 for revision of the tariff, and going before the country in '88 asking the people for their suffrages on a principle which it never before had advocated, and on the cry of an American market for Americans and protection for American industries and labor. The republican party proposed to carry on a tariff system in this country which would protect 1,500,000 wage-workers against 16,000,000 wage-workers.

Reed of Maine expressed delight at seeing the gentleman from Pennsylvania come back from his other occupations to attend to his occasional business as a member of congress. Had the gentleman been present he would have known that these questions had been discussed and that the house was perfectly acquainted with them.

THE PENNSYLVANIA LABOR TROUBLES.

Scott said that 100,000 laborers had been thrown out of work during the past week, and in what classes? Why, in the protected industries which the republicans stood up to defend. These laborers had been driven out because their employers had attempted to make a 10 per cent. reduction in wages. Why should the manufacturers of Pennsylvania demand that their men submit to this reduction? Was there any change in the condition of the country? Had any tariff bill passed the house that could possibly affect the wages of these men? Was there not a republican senate?

After the debate had run for some time Bland of Missouri appealed for more rapid progress, but the appeal proved in vain and the hour of discussion ran on.

Finally McKinley's motion was lost, 6 to 50.

Sowden of Pennsylvania moved to fix the duty on iron rails weighing not over twenty-five pounds to the foot at $17 per ton, and on iron or steel rails and flat rails punched; lost.

On motion of Breckenridge of Arkansas a duty of $40 per ton was imposed on steel or iron longitudinal nibs for the manufacturing of fencing.

Having completed consideration of four pages of the bill, the committee rose. A conference was ordered on the river and harbor appropriation bill, and the house adjourned till Thursday.

Northwestern Notes.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—James Tyler, postmaster at Huntington, Baker county, Oregon, has been removed, and Wm. F. Bookus was to-day appointed in his place.

The order of the department appointing Mrs. L. Stanley as postmistress at Woodville, Jackson county, Oregon, in place of Henry Munsor, removed, was to-day rescinded.

A pension was granted to-day in Oregon as follows: Increase, Charles H. Pynchner, Powell's Valley.

Patents granted: Jubez Turner, Albany, stump extractor; J. C. Hutton, Corvallis, spirit level; Donald McRae, Umatilla county, grain or hay stacker; Wm. E. Mulholland, Portland, harmonica holder; Sherman S. Pearl, Halsey, carpet stretcher.

Probable Promotions.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—In the event of Col. Casey's promotion to the position of chief of engineers, a not unlikely result, notwithstanding the hard fight being made by a rival candidate, Col. Parker, the presidency of the board of army fortifications will probably fall to Col. Mendell, now on duty at San Francisco. Col. Comstock of the Missouri river commission, is also spoken of in connection with the position, but as Col. Mendell is his senior, and qualified for the position, he will doubtless be given the first choice if he desires it.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The president and Mrs. Cleveland went to Baltimore this evening to attend the Saengerfest. They will return at midnight.

The state department has been informed of the assassination of an American named Stephen Zonsky, at his sugar mill, near Almonte, Mexico, by a well-known bandit. The authorities are in active pursuit.

A Protest from Dickinson.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The postmaster-general has written a letter to the president, formally protesting against the proposition made by the civil service commission to extend the classified service so as to include the railway postal service.

Gen. Rogers Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Gen. Geo. C. Rogers of Kansas, a member of the board of pension appeals in the interior department, has been dismissed, and Jas. A. Leavy of Missouri has been appointed to the vacancy.

Fuller's Confirmation Predicted.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Senator Farwell returned from Chicago last evening. He expressed an opinion that Fuller will be confirmed without much further opposition, and says Democratic votes.

Chinese Tobacco Arrested.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Four men are locked up at the police headquarters to-night, charged with having acted in concert for months to rob the wholesale grocery firm of Thurber, Whyland & Co. John Brady was for twelve years operator for the firm, but now has a little grocery store in Brooklyn. He has received and disposed of stolen goods to the amount of $1000. Henry Wellinghoff, an express truckman, has carted away the stolen goods with others designed for shipment, and forwarded them to Brady's address in Brooklyn. Henry Bustelle and James McCormick, clerks in the store of Thurber, Whyland & Co., have been "inside" confederates. Brady has confessed his part in the combine, and has implicated the other three. The goods consisted of sugar in barrels, coffee in sacks, and other goods in bulk.

KING MILAN.

He Has a Royal Aversion to His Spouse and Wants a Divorce.

BELGRADE, July 3.—King Milan has applied to the church synod for a judicial separation from his wife, Queen Natalie, on the ground of an insuperable aversion to her.

Gen. Protic has gone to Wiesbaden to bring the young crown prince back to Servia. The boy, who is 11 years old, is at Wiesbaden with his mother.

ENGLAND.

The "Times" Libel Suit.

LONDON, July 3.—The attendance on the second day of the trial of the libel suit of Frank Hugh O'Donnell against the Times was greatly diminished. The case for plaintiff was closed, after some inconsequential testimony, taking only a few moments. Attorney-General Webster opened for the defense. He savagely attacked Parnell and the league, following the general lines of the Times articles that gave rise to the suit. Parnell entered the court room just as Webster was alluding to him, and the court at that moment adjourned for the day.

Icelanders Emigrating to Canada.

LONDON, July 3.—Three hundred Icelanders have emigrated to Canada, via Glasgow, to date this season. Eight hundred Icelanders are expected to settle in Manitoba this year. A fair share of the emigrants are women. The Icelanders receive no assistance from the government, and pay their own fares. The Icelanders in Manitoba have contributed £1000 to assist emigration of their countrymen.

International Cable Agreement.

LONDON, July 3.—The English and French governments have agreed to work jointly, commencing January 1, the submarine cables between France and England. The tariff will be twenty centimes a word. A direct cable between Liverpool and Havre will be established under the arrangement.

Jockey Woods Appeals.

LONDON, July 3.—Lord Chief Justice Coleridge has refused to allow Jockey Woods costs in his libel suit against the Licensed Victuallers Gazette, in which he was allowed one farthing damages. Woods has appealed.

Safe Arrival.

LONDON, July 3.—The Anchor line steamer Assyrin, from St. Johns, N. B., June 19, arrived at Cardiff July 3.

The July Stakes.

LONDON, July 3.—The Newmarket July meeting opened to-day. Bonovan won the July stakes.

CANADA.

The Providence Fugitive.

MONTREAL, July 3.—The prosecution against Teller Pilcher, for bringing stolen money into Canada, was begun to-day. Pilcher has offered to compromise, but the Providence bank officers refuse.

Prohibition Convention.

MONTREAL, July 3.—The Dominion anti-prohibition convention is in session here to-day. Several resolutions were offered and were referred to committees.

Smallpox on a Steamer.

QUEBEC, July 3.—An ocean steamship arriving here with a clean bill of health is found to have several smallpox cases on board.

CABLE NOTES.

Will Propose a Reduction of Armaments.

BERLIN, July 3.—It is believed that after a definite understanding with Russia has been established Emperor William will propose that the European powers reduce their armaments. The emperor will arrive at St. Petersburg August 2d, the czarina's fete day.

The Vatican Alarmed.

ROME, July 3.—The liberal successes in the municipal elections in Italy have alarmed the Vatican. The pope, who is opposed to the intervention of the clergy, will counsel them to abstain from future elections.

Military Railway to Be Built.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 3.—An important strategic railway, connecting many military and cavalry depots, is to be constructed in the southwest immediately. The cost will be 13,000,000 roubles.

A July Gale on the Mersey.

LIVERPOOL, July 3.—A heavy gale has been blowing on the Mersey. A brigantine was caught in it and wrecked, and it is feared that all on board were lost.

The Czar Goes on a Yachting Tour.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 3.—The czar, accompanied by his family, has left St. Petersburg for a yachting tour in the waters of Finland.

Large Mill Burned.

DUNDEE, July 3.—A large mill near this city was destroyed by fire to-day, together with 100,000 bags of flour.

The Saengerfest.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—The fourth day of the Saengerfest was a very successful one. At the evening concert, while a male chorus of the united singers of Brooklyn were rendering "On the Rhine," President Cleveland and Mrs. Cleveland, and Mrs. Folsom and Col. Lamont entered. When the song was finished, Cleveland was heartily applauded and he rose and bowed his acknowledgments.

The Convention of Democratic Clubs.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—The general committee of the democratic clubs met this evening. About fifty members were present. Chauncey F. Black presented a form for organization of the league and order of business. It was referred. Mayor Russell of Cambridge, Mass., was agreed upon as temporary chairman of the association.

An Italian Shoots an Irishman.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 3.—At Altoona, Pennsylvania, Annielio Sepletto, an Italian, a resident of Pittsburg, shot and fatally wounded an unknown Irishman this afternoon. The ball passed through the temple of the injured man, and he is dying. The shooting was the result of a quarrel. Sepletto was committed to jail.

A Big Swindle.

WILMINGTON, Del., July 3.—The publication was made this afternoon that Walter Cummings, judge of the municipal court, has abused the trust put in him by clients, to place mortgages aggregating $36,000 on properties owned by him, the assessed valuation of which is only $2463.

Man and Wife Killed.

BRADFORD, Pa., July 3.—While Manager Stokes and his wife were driving across the Western New York & Pennsylvania railway track, near Carrollton, to-day, they were struck by a passenger train, and both were instantly killed.

To Notify Morton.

NEW YORK, July 3.—The republican committee, having in charge the notification of the nominees, will visit Rhinebeck next Saturday to notify Morton.

Through Pullman sleepers and dining cars; also second-class sleepers through to the east via Northern Pacific Railroad. Office, No. 4 Washington street.

THE OLD CAMP GROUND.

Another Memorable Day on the Field of Gettysburg.

THE EXERCISES IN THE CEMETERY.

An Eloquent Address by George William Curtis, Including a Dramatic Sketch of the Great Battle.

GETTYSBURG, July 3.—The crowd to-day was not so large by several thousand as on the preceding days. Nothing was stirring at the camps. The veterans mostly stayed out all night and were devoting themselves to sleep, preparing for the reunion exercises to be held late this afternoon, when George William Curtis will deliver an oration, and George Parsons Lothrop reads a poem.

GETTYSBURG, July 3.—There was a strange similarity between this day and that of twenty-five years ago. Then the armies of Meade and Lee confronted each other; so to-day. Federals and Confederates were once more on the field, and again one was on Seminary Ridge and the other on Cemetery Hill.

Nothing unusual occurred to break the monotony until 4 o'clock, when the Union veterans and Confederates met once more, at almost the same hour at which they had joined in deadly conflict twenty-five years ago.

Monuments which were dedicated to-day were as follows: Fifth New York cavalry, the One Hundred and Forty-Sixth New York infantry, G. A. R., New York Tigers, Sixty-seventh New York, First Long Island volunteers, known as Beecher's regiment, at which Rev. Thomas M. Beecher of Elmira, N. Y., delivered an oration; Third New York independent battery, with Maj.-Gen. Rosecrans as orator; Battery B and Thirteenth New York Independent battery.

The Signal Corps Association of the Army of the Potomac held a meeting here to-day. They determined to erect an imposing tablet, commemorative of the work done by this branch of the army in battle. They also elected Gen. K. Merrill president, and decided to hold their annual reunions at the same time and place where the national encampments of the G. A. R. take place.

Gen. J. A. Gordon of Georgia was compelled by his official position as chief executive to leave for Atlanta. To an associated press representative, in answer to a question as to what was his opinion of the reunion, he said: "The meeting is a great success, and if these reunions of soldiers occurred yearly it would serve to cement the friendly feeling of the blue and gray more closely, and bind the North and South so firmly that there would be no North and no South, but a country linked by chains of indissoluble friendship."

IN THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.

At 3 o'clock a procession composed of the military commands, as yesterday, entered the National cemetery and marched past the rostrum.

At the conclusion of the parade, Gen. Robinson of New York, as presiding officer, requested Rev. Twitchell of Hartford, Conn., to open the exercises with prayer. The prayer was listened to with uncovered heads, and when, in concluding, he began the Lord's prayer, the crowd joined in.

The poet of the occasion, George Parsons Lathrop, was unable to be present, but part of his poem was read by Gen. H. C. King, secretary of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, and was received by the audience with much applause.

When the orator, George William Curtis, was presented, three cheers were called for by Gen. Sharpe, and he was greeted with hearty applause at the conclusion of his oration.

Eloquence was in every line of Mr. Curtis's oration. He began with these words:

Upon this field, consecrated by American valor, we meet to consecrate ourselves to the American Union. In this hallowed ground lie buried not only brave soldiers of the blue and the gray, but the passions of war, the jealousies of sections, and the bitterness of all our national differences—human slavery. Here the long and angry controversies of political dogma of material interest, and of moral pride and tradition came to a decisive struggle. As the fate of Christendom was determined at Tours, that of American independence at Saratoga, and that of modern Europe at Waterloo, the destiny of the American Union was decided at Gettysburg. A hundred other famous fields there are of the same American bravery, in the same tremendous strifes; fields whose ground and terrible tale history and song will never tire of telling; but it is here that the struggle reached its highest point; here broke the fiery crest of that tumbling wave of war. From this field the civil contest, through renowned campaigns of courageous endurance of fearful carnage, and of accumulating heart break for northern and southern homes, slowly receded toward its end. It is therefore one of the historical fields of the world, and to us Americans no other has an interest so profound. Marathan and Arbela, Worcester and Valmy, even our own Bunker Hill, and Saratoga, and Yorktown, fields of undying fame, have not for us a significance so vital and so beneficient as this field of Gettysburg."

Continuing, Mr. Curtis said: "But that the glory of this day and of America, and of human nature, may be full, the veteran and survivor of the armies whose tremendous conflict interpreted the constitution, to-day, upon the field of battle, and upon its twenty-fifth anniversary, clasp friendly hands of sympathy to salute a common victory. This is a spectacle without precedent in history. No field of the cloth of gold, or of the grounded arms: no splendid scene of the royal adjustment of conquests, the diplomatic settlement of treaties, or the Papal indictment of the Crusade, rival in moral grandeur or significance this simple pageant."

THE BATTLE DESCRIBED.

Probably the most effective passage in the address was the speaker's magnificent description of the battle. He said:

"The sun of Gettysburg rose on the 1st of July and saw the army of the gray already advancing in line of battle, the army of the blue still lustrous eagerly forward and converging to this point. The glory of midsummer filled this landscape, as if nature had arranged a fitting scene for the tremendous event. Once more the unqualifying lines, so long arrayed against each other, stood face to face; once more the inexpressible emotion, a mingling of yearning memory of fond affection, of dread foreboding, of high hope, of patriotic enthusiasm, and of stern resolve, swept for a moment over thousands of brave hearts, and the next instant the overwhelming storm of battle burst. For three long, proud, immortal days it raged and swayed, drifting from Seminary Hill far round to Wolf's Hill and Culp's Hill; then sweeping back with desperate fury, striking the peach orchard, and dashing, with a dash and a roar up Little Round Top, and Round Top, raging in the Devil's Den, the earth trembling, the air quivering, the sky obscured. With the shouting charge, and rattling valley, and thundering cannonade piling the ground with mangled and bleeding limbs and gory, the old and the young, but always and everywhere the devoted and the brave, doubtful the battle hung and paused. Then a formidable bolt of war was forged on yonder wooded hight, and launched with a withering blast and a roar of fire against the foe. It was as a living bolt and shot as if resistless, reached and touched the flaming line of the embattled host, it pierced the line for one brief moment, in the sharp agony of mortal strife it held its own. It was the supreme moment of the peril of the Union. It was the heroic crisis of the war; but the fiery force was spent in one last, wild, tumultuous struggle. Brave men dashed headlong against men as brave, and the next moment that awful bolt of daring courage was parried by the fiercest beat of an equal valor, and the battle of Gettysburg was fought."

DANGERS OF THE FUTURE.

"Patriotism," continued the orator, "feeds upon local traditions, historic events and the memories of famous men; but a miscellaneous multitude, sprung of many nations, without a common heart to vibrate instinctively to common memories and associations, would lack that subtle patriotism which is the moral defense of a nation. Let us beware, then, how we recklessly water our life blood. Webster said at Bunker Hill, just as the vast immigration was beginning: 'We are placed at the head of a representative and popular government, and we shall be recreant to the duty of that headship if we permit the fundamental conditions of national repose, of the security of personal rights, of good laws and of just administration, to be imperiled by the ignorant, lawless, idle and dangerous overflow of all other countries. We are the occupants and guardians of this country, and with a kindly heart and a hospitable hand towards all the world, we must prescribe the conditions upon which the world shall come here. If America is to remain the Head of free governments and the hope of liberty in the world, our first duty is to remember that constitutional liberty has its own laws and conditions, and that only by respecting and enforcing them can liberty for ourselves and for all men be preserved. Akin to this is the problem of the suffrage. Subject to a constitutional guarantee of a republican form of government, and of no discrimination against race or color, the regulation of the suffrage is wisely left to the states; but the action of every state on subjects of common interest necessarily affects the Union. The suffrage is the mainspring, the heart of our common life, and whatever effects it injuriously touches the national sensorium, and the country thrills. It is not enough that a national election should be fair. It must be a national conviction that it is fair. No honest man should be deluded with the theory that this is a local fight. The practical remedy of its coerc on or its repression, indeed, is local, not national. The citizens of this magnificent commonwealth cannot reach across the Potomac and impose their will respecting the suffrage upon the mother of states. Nor can the states of New England dictate legislation to the states of the Northwest."

To-night a banquet was served at Springs hotel. No exercises are scheduled for to-morrow, and the day will probably be quiet, as far as the Army of the Potomac is concerned.

At a business meeting of the department in the cemetery to-day, it was decided to hold the next summer encampment at this place, the time to be determined at the next session.

Washington Park Races.

CHICAGO, July 3.—The Washington park races were well attended.

One mile—Terbug won, Clan Fortune second, Montpelier third; time, 1:44.

One mile—Bulger won, Lela May second, Lavina Belle third; time, 1:55¾.

One and one-fourth miles—Volante won, Montrose second, Jarmo third; time, 2:08¾.

Six-eighths mile—Silleck won, Minnie Palmer second, Leed Dinkelspiel third; time, 1:16¼.

Seven-eighths mile—Lake Dart won, Kosciusko second, Rousmay third; time, 1:29¾.

Seventh race, seven furlongs—Valuable won, Jacobin second, Wary third; time, 1:28¼.

Brighton Beach Races.

BRIGHTON BEACH, July 3.—The weather was delightful, the track good, and the attendance light.

Three-fourths mile—Satisfied won, Savage second; time, 1:20.

Three-fourths mile—Mamie Hay won, Flesh second, Ida West third; time, 1:18¾.

Seven-eighths mile—Gracie won, Frolic second, Wayward third; time, 1:32¼.

One and one-eighth miles—Subaltern won, Troy second, Orlando third; time, 1:59¼.

Seven-eighths mile—Tattler won, Valiant second, Nat Goodwin third; time, 1:31¾.

Baseball.

CINCINNATI, July 3.—Cincinnati 3, Brooklyn 5.

ST. LOUIS, July 3.—St. Louis 8, Athletics 10.

KANSAS CITY, July 3.—Kansas City 2, Cleveland 9.

One Failure Leads to Another.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Seligman & Co., cloak manufacturers, made an assignment to-day. The failure followed close upon, and was caused by that of Seligman, May & Co. The former had indorsed for the latter $80,000 for accommodation. It is announced that the other liabilities of the firm are about $160,000 making a total of $240,000. The suddenness of the failure is shown by the fact that checks to the amount of $4000 to $5000 were sent out when the failure was announced. The principal creditors are banks.

A Proud Parent's Gift.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 3.—G. R. Carter, who was starboard stroke in the winning Yale boat at New London, Friday was presented by his father with a check for $2450 immediately after the race. The father had promised to give his son $100 for every boat length Yale was ahead of Harvard at the finish. Yale had twenty-four and one-half lengths on her old rival. Young Carter comes from Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, and has been chosen to captain the Yale crew of 1889.

Will Contest Her Father's Will.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Blanche Marsden has determined to try to break the will which her father, Fred Marsden, the playwright, made, disinheriting her entirely. The reason given by the father for so doing was her immoral conduct, which, he said, just before committing the deed drove him to his suicidal death, some weeks ago. Blanche alleges that her father was incapable of making a will on account of insanity, and will endeavor to get a share of the $100,000 estate which he left.

Fought with a Broken Arm.

NASHVILLE, July 3.—Dick Goodwin of Cleveland, and Jack Lee of East Liverpool, Ohio, fought six rounds with skin gloves this morning. In the second round Lee broke his left arm in two places. He refused to give up and for four rounds fought with one hand, but was unable to continue the unequal contest, and in the seventh round Goodwin was declared the victor. Both were terribly punished.

Disastrous Cave in a Mine.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 3.—An extensive cave-in occured at the Bellevue slope this morning, forcing the miners to fly for their lives. One man and a number of mules are known to have been crushed, while three more laborers are reported missing.

Convention of Music Teachers.

CHICAGO, July 3.—The National Association of Music Teachers began their annual convention here to-day. Over 1000 professional musicians are in attendance from all parts of the country. The sessions will continue over Thursday.

Another Firm Signs the Scale.

PITTSBURG, July 3.—Another of the manufacturers succumbed to-day to the Amalgamated Association, and signed the scale of wages demanded by the workmen. The name of the establishment is the Scottdale Iron Company.

Six Months' Immigration.

NEW YORK, July 3.—During the past six months 231,000 immigrants have landed at Castle Garden. This beats the record for the same period last year by 26,000. Thirty-eight thousand Italians arrived this year.

Shot to Pieces.

ALMA, Ark., July 3.—James Bagley (colored) for attempting to assault Belle Simms, aged 12, was taken from jail at midnight last night and slowly shot to pieces, while tied to a tree.

Wonderful effects are produced by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Don't be induced to buy any other, because you are told it is "just as good." It is certain to disappoint you.

Hiscox's Catarrh Cure, the best cure for Catarrh. 25 cents.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NORTHWESTERN NEWS.

The Usual Budget of Items from the State Capital.

A FATHER MURDERED BY HIS SON.

A Rich Mineral Discovery on Ruby Creek—The Washington Territory Artesian Well Project—News Notes.

SALEM, July 3.—A ball game was played this afternoon between the Chemawa and Grand Ronde Indian nines, and resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 34 to 11.

Jay Beach, the well known horseman, has arrived at the fair grounds with Altamont and eight trotting horses of his get. They will take part in the next fair in September.

Bids for six months' supplies for the insane asylum were opened by the asylum board to-day, and awarded to the lowest bidders as follows: Groceries, Gilbert & Patterson, $2226; coffee, J. G. Wright, $238 75; spices, J. G. Wright, $51 12; plumbing, Dugan Bros., $149; dry goods, J. J. Dalrymple, $696 98; tinware, Steiner & Rosner, $67 06; paints, to D. J. Fry, $14 56; stationery, W. B. Allen, $31 70; flour, J. D. Hurst & Son, $3 65 per barrel; drugs, D. J. Fry, $215; ments, A. I. Collidge, $4 75 per 100 pounds; shoes and leather, Wm. Brown & Co., $459 04.

Gov. Pennoyer, Secretary McBride and Superintendent McElroy to-day returned from Corvallis, where the formal transfer of the State Agricultural College to the state was consummated yesterday. The board of regents elected the following faculty of the new school: B. L. Arnold, president; E. Grim, a graduate of the Michigan Agricultural College, director of the United States agricultural experiment station and professor of agriculture; Prof. W. N. Hull, of the state normal school of Iowa, chair of commercial law, farm law, mechanical drawing, history and elocution. Prof. Berchtold, a graduate of the Berlin university, ancient and modern languages and free-hand drawing; Prof. W. D. Letcher, a graduate of the Virginia military institute, to the chair of mathematics. The chairs of botany, chemistry and of the ladies' industrial department are yet to be filled.

Articles of incorporation of the Portland Mining Company were to-day filed with the secretary of state; incorporators, John C. Davenport, W. L. Sherman, and O. F. Paxton. Capital, $5,000,000; principal office, Portland.

In addition to those already telegraphed, the supreme court made the following decisions yesterday: Powell et al., respondent, vs. Heisler, appellant; appeal from Wasco; decision of the lower court reversed and bill dismissed; opinion by Lord, C. J.

Bewley, respondent, vs. Chapman & Berry, appellants; appeal from Yamhill; judgment of the lower court affirmed; opinion by Lord, C. J.

Keasse, respondent, vs. Herbert, appellant; appeal from Wasco; judgment of the lower court reversed and cause remanded for a new trial; opinion by Lord, C. J.

Bunneman and Martonini, respondents, vs. Wagner, appellant; appeal from Clatsop; judgment of the lower court affirmed; opinion by Lord, C. J.

On motion of S. F. Chadwick, Percival C. Kauffman and William Parsons were admitted to practice in all the courts of the state.

KILLED HIS FATHER.

The Crime of a Southern Oregon Youth—Meager Particulars.

JACKSONVILLE, July 3.—News was received here to-day of the killing of Lewis McAllister by his son, at 1 o'clock this morning, at Woodville. An inquest is being held and no particulars will be received until officers return from the scene of the murder.

SPOKANE FALLS.

A Rich Mineral Discovery on Ruby Creek—General Notes.

SPOKANE FALLS, July 3.—A rich mineral discovery is reported by C. H. Farnsworth just in from Palouse City. The discovery is on Ruby creek, fifty miles from Palouse City. A ledge fifteen feet wide has been traced a distance of five miles. The ore assays $75 silver and $25 lead. Palouse is almost deserted by people going to the new discovery.

The streets of Spokane are thronged with visitors who will participate in the celebration. The streets and buildings are gaily and richly decorated and the falls illuminated by electricity.

Court will adjourn Thursday and Judge Anna will return to Pacomo.

THE RACES.

There was an immense crowd at the races to-day.

Wilson's Marvel won the three minute race in three straight heats.

The running race for $100 was won by Ladd's Murphy.

The pacing race was won by Hawkins's Billy Egbert in 2:24.

The decision of the judges in the first race, half-mile heats and repeat, caused general dissatisfaction. The word "go" was given and after three of five horses had run the track, it was declared no heat, and the riders compelled to lead their horses back for another trial.

The funeral of Councilman Tullis's little child took place to-day from her father's residence and was largely attended.

The injunction suit to restrain the Northern Pacific from transporting logs over private property to its track has been arranged by the parties interested and the case dismissed.

The case of Urquhart vs. Hoffman, involving $75,000, previously reported, was yesterday settled and dismissed.

The opening of the Globe theater was expected to take place last night, but the building not having been completed, postponement of the opening night has been made to July 5. What with the opera house, Snyder's Theater Comique and the Globe, the grangers, as well as the citizens, will be amused.

The request of the insurance companies that fire crackers and the use of explosives be prohibited in the city, is conspicuous by its utter disregard. The American small boy, equally with his older likeness, has been making night hideous and the day unbearable by their continuous Chinese bombardment. While the ordinance prohibits, the small boy laughs it to scorn.

The Knights of Pythias lodge, No. 14, installed their officers last night with imposing ceremonies. The order in this city is in a flourishing condition and progressive in its work.

McMINNVILLE.

A Budget of Personal and General Notes from Yamhill County.

McMINNVILLE, July 3.—J. A. C. Freund, ex-county school superintendent, leaves for Moscow, Idaho, in a few days.

Members attending the Universalist convention, which meets July 6 to 8, will return over railroads at reduced rates.

DR. W. H. Boyd starts to-day for Spokane Falls on a business trip.

About forty head of horses, runners and trotters, are here for the races for the Fourth. Prizes amounting to about $600 have been put up. The track is in excellent condition.

James Fletcher has sold his farm near here to John Narver, and has moved into town.

The McMinnville express train is to be run to Independence to-morrow.

The Independence Amateur Dramatic Club will play "Nevada" at the opera house here on the evening of the Fourth.

James O. Rogers returned from the Yukon mines on Saturday.

M. W. Gortner of Spokane Falls is visiting relatives here.

G. W. Jones went down the Columbia on Saturday to buy cedar lumber for the new court house and school house now being built here.

Charles Carter has sold his residence here to Al. Hussey.

VANCOUVER, W. T.

Citizens Will Come to Portland to Celebrate—Fireworks at the Barracks.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, July 3.—There will be no celebration in this city to-morrow, since the attractions of Portland will prove too strong for our citizens. A parade by Company H, N. G. W., in the morning will end the festivities there. At the barracks an old fashioned programme consisting of foot races, sack races, potato races, wheelbarrow races, etc., will be carried out in the afternoon under the management of J. C. Blake of theatrical fame. The officers of the barracks and department have gone to considerable expense in getting up brilliant fireworks. These will commence about 9:30 under the management of Capt. W. S. Scott of the ordnance department and the detachment of ordnance stationed here, and his principal assistant, Corporal Northman. Roman candles, paper shells, fire cascade, Persian crosses, fountains, devils' dances and wheels will be displayed, and if the illumination by the party on Mount Hood can be seen thirteen from shells will be fired at regular intervals. If the illumination of Mount Hood cannot be seen the shells will be fired at irregular intervals. They can readily be seen in Portland provided the weather is favorable. The time of firing will depend on the sign from Mount Hood.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC ACCIDENT.

At Least Thirty Persons Injured—One Woman Reported to Have Died.

SPOKANE FALLS, July 3.—News was received here to-day of a wreck yesterday, on the Northern Pacific road, at Garrison. There had been heavy rains in the mountains, and the rails had spread. The sleeper and dining car were thrown from the track and over the embankment. The cries of the injured and screams of the women and children were appalling. Every effort was made to extricate the wounded from the wreck.

The Reilly-Woods combination, who had played in this city, were on the train and a number of that organization are among the injured. One of the lady performers, Miss Adelaide Wilson, was so badly hurt that she was sent to her home in California. It is since reported that she died on the way.

A gentleman from Portland, whose name could not be ascertained, was brought throught last night on the sleeper without hopes of his being able to complete the journey. The train was delayed five hours and did not reach Spokane until 7 o'clock this morning.

It has been impossible to obtain a correct report of the loss of life, but it is rumored that over thirty persons have been injured in the accident.

FROM WALLA WALLA.

Municipal Nominations—The Artesian Well Project—Etc.

WALLA WALLA, W. T., July 3. The democratic city convention assembled this afternoon and nominated the following ticket: Mayor, James McAuliff; councilmen—First ward, J. R. Addison; Second ward, John Manion; Third ward, J. F. Cropp; Fourth ward, E. M. Aells; marshal, E. Mangan; attorney, A. Sharpstein; clerk, Henry Kelling; treasurer, Charles Henry; justice, A. J. Gregory; street commissioner, Dan McCloud; health officer, Y. C. Blalock; sexton, Henry Sanderson. No nominations were made for assessor and surveyor.

A tailor named Schultz, from the garrison, last night fell into a ditch being dug by the water company, breaking a leg. He lay there all night. The water company had taken the usual precautions by hanging out lanterns. Schultz was probably drunk.

The artesian well commission appointed in accordance with the act of the last legislature providing for the sinking of artesian wells in Adams and Franklin counties, have decided to bore one of the wells at Pasco.

A racing hose cart for the use of "Our Boys" hose team in the tournament here on the fifth, arrived from Portland to-day. The cart was kindly loaned by Portland.

TACOMA.

Everybody Going Over to Seattle to Do Their Celebrating This Year.

TACOMA, July 3.—The city is being depopulated in the general begirn to Seattle to take part in the celebration there to-morrow. The militia, hose team and a number of Tacoma wheelmen went over to-night. The chamber of commerce as a body, the Grand Army, the Woman's Relief Corps and several other organizations will go over to-morrow morning, together with a throng of citizens. No concerted attempt to celebrate the Fourth will be made here, it being deemed by general consent Seattle's turn this year, and all disposed to make a noise are going over there to do it.

The Tacoma Real Estate, Title and Insurance Company filed articles of incorporation to-day. The trustees are C. P. Culver, W. H. Snell and A. D. Kitchen.

Seattle News Notes.

SEATTLE, W. T., July 3.—The firemen's association to-day elected the following officers for the ensuing year: president, Wendall Hall, Spokane Falls; first vice-president, Josiah Collins, Seattle; second vice-president, C. B. Watson, Astoria; third vice-president, J. N. Hoffman, Albany; fourth vice-president, L. A. Sanctuary, Roseburg; fifth vice-president, J. F. Boeing, East Portland; secretary, F. L. Parker, Astoria; treasurer, W. F. Bugan, Salem; statistician, Thomas Hart, Walla Walla; directors, B. S. Worsley, Astoria; W. W. Wetherspoon, Spokane Falls; J. W. Wentworth, Vancouver.

The races to-day were attended by a large crowd. Altamont won in three straight heats.

In the international game of baseball between the Amities of Victoria, and the Browns of Seattle, the latter won by a score of fourteen to two.

A citizens' mass meeting is called for July 5, to nominate a city ticket. The people's party have already nominated a full ticket. The platform is merely an indorsement of their past political career.

The city census is completed, showing a population of 25,000. Three years ago it was only 9000.

Ellensburg Items.

ELLENSBURG, July 3.—McCulloch, manager of the Moss Bay Steel Works, accompanied by Palmer, engineer of the Northern Pacific, is inspecting the iron mines of the county on the upper Cle-Elum river, in Kittitas county, and looking over the railway survey made last fall. The company is developing the mines and finds them more extensive than ever anticipated and the ore of the best quality.

The Fourth will be celebrated in Ellensburg by horse races, in which Indians and all will participate.

Assays received yesterday from the Nonesuch mine showed $475 gold and $7 silver. The gold appears to be increasing with development. The Nonesuch may be termed one of the largest gold mines in the Northwest.

Thursday Auditor Peterson, while in Roslyn, issued first papers to forty-seven foreigners.

A Young Man Shot.

ALBANY, July 3.—About 2 o'clock this afternoon on the McConnell place, near this city, Charlie Dougherty and Fred Davis, a young man who lives near Scio, who was working for him, were fooling with an old gun. The hammer accidentally struck the edge of a box, and the gun, a musket, was discharged, the full load of shot entering one of Davis's legs, almost shooting it entirely away. Medical aid was summoned, and the leg will be amputated. It is thought the young man will recover.

CALIFORNIA.

Personal and General Notes.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—There is a noticeable difference in the appearance of the city at present and that of a year ago. Then there were many decorations, and the city wore a general holiday attire. To-day no one would suspect, by passing along the streets, that San Francisco was on the eve of Independence day, for there are very few decorations to be seen. Two reasons are given for this condition. One is that the patriotic citizens are engrossed with politics, and the other that many of the most prominent citizens have gone to the country.

An autopsy was made this afternoon on the body of young Banks, who was shot by a playmate yesterday, and it was found that he had been shot twice, although it was said that Hoppe only fired one shot. One bullet was found in his heart, and another in his brain. An inquest will be held Friday.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the American party, the secretary of the state central committee said he had received a communication from the executive committee in Washington City, stating that if the California convention would put up a presidential ticket Eastern clubs would enthusiastically ratify the nominees. The state convention of the American party will be held week from to-morrow.

Judge Lorenzo Sawyer of the U. S. circuit court has returned from his trip to Oregon.

Ida Florence Jay, one of the injured passengers at the collision which took place on the Union Pacific railroad in Wyoming territory January 6 last, has sued the Union Pacific Company for $50,000.

J. H. Goodman, manager of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company, died at the Palace hotel yesterday afternoon from hemorrhage, caused by bursting a bloodvessel in the stomach. Deceased had been ailing since Thursday last, at which time he was taken suddenly ill while sitting at his desk.

The coast seamen have appointed a committee to confer with shipowners about the proposed reduction in wages. A strike will be ordered if the employers insist on a reduction.

Bishop Fowler, of the M. E. church, has returned from New York, where he has been attending the annual Methodist conference. A reception will be tendered the bishop and his wife at the Hotel Pleasanton next Friday evening by the Methodist Social Club. Bishop Fowler will start on a tour of episcopal visitation, probably extending around the entire world, at the end of this month.

Dr. Harcourt is expected to return from his Alaskan tour by the next steamer.

News from Panama.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3. The steamer from Panama, sailing June 11, states that a train, due at Panama on the 3d of last month, was derailed at Paresnada, instantly killing five persons and seriously injuring five others.

The national government has decreed that all private banks shall withdraw their notes from circulation within six months.

A severe cyclone swept over Granada, Nicaragua, on the night of June 2. Heavy rains inundated the southern portion of the city, completely destroying some eighteen houses and a portion of the railroad works.

Up to the beginning of May smallpox was making fearful ravages in the little town of Tipitapa, which is distant only a few leagues from the capital of Nicaragua.

Yellow fever, which has been raging in the city of Cucuta, Venezuela, has at length disappeared.

Lobsters.

MONTEREY, July 3.—The fish commissioners who have been here for the past week, left to-day for San Francisco to catch the United States steamer Albatross, on which boat they will leave about fifty old lobsters and a large number of young ones. The hatching of lobster eggs has gone on very satisfactorily and at the rate of 6000 daily about 75,000 have been hatched to date. They have been distributed all along the coast for forty miles. The commissioners will take back to the Atlantic coast a carload of Pacific crabs and flounders.

Suits Against Ackerman Bros.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Seven actions have been brought in the superior court to recover from Ackerman Bros. for goods sold and delivered as follows: Charles T. Dingham, for $2715; Koch, Seis & Co., for $365; Hughson & O'Reardin, for $510; Charles Taber & Co., for $555; Holyoke Envelope Co., for $435; Boorum & Pease, for $360; and Morgan Envelope Co., for $787 35.

Arrival of the Wild Swan.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The British sloop-of-war Wild Swan arrived in port last night, four days from Esquimalt. The vessel is 1130 tons burden, and carries eight guns. One hundred and twenty men constitute the crew. The vessel will remain in port about a week. She sails next for Callao.

Buried Alive.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Daniel McDermott, a laborer, was buried under an embankment caused by a premature explosion of a blast at the Potrero this afternoon. Mitchell, the foreman of the crew, was also severely injured.

State Finances.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The thirty-ninth fiscal year of the state's finances closed Saturday, June 30. The amount of cash on hand in the state treasury at Sacramento at that time was $1,547,995.

A Murder Mystery Deepening.

GRASS VALLEY, July 3.—In the Kneesone murder case the coroner's jury exonerated Moore and Williams, the arrested men. The officers are nonplussed.

Shipping.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Arrivals—Steamer Alki, Seattle; steamer Mexico, Victoria; barkentine Marian, Astoria.

Depew Going to Europe.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Chauncey M. Depew sails for Europe to-morrow.

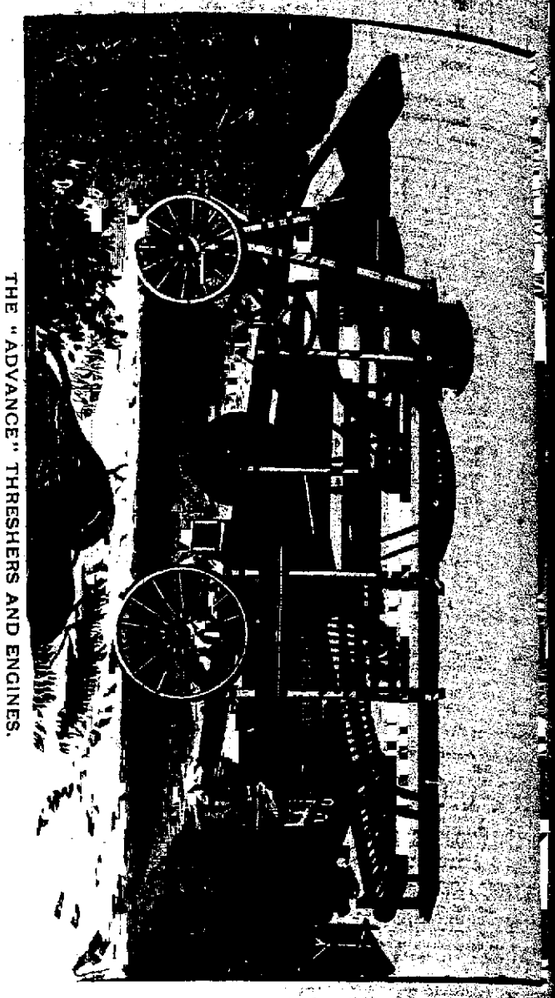
Killed His Divorced Wife and Himself.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 3.—At Trafalgar, Johnson county, this morning, Samuel M. Henderson shot and killed his divorced wife, Sarah Henderson, and then killed himself. After the divorce he married a woman with whom he was living at the time of his death. He was about 60, and Mrs. Henderson about 50 years of age. A family of grown children survive them.

O YES, YES! CERTAINLY!

A singed cat dreads the fire. I plead guilty. I am taking the advantage. Mark.

LOOK AT IT—AIN'T IT A DAISY?



THE "ADVANCE" THRESHERS AND ENGINES.

I am reaping the New-Fangled Advance Separator to be the best [illegible] and most durable Separator ever made. But, remember, it is not [illegible] Fogy machines are. You are well aware of the time lost [illegible] Old Fogy machines. The New-Fangled Thresher leads the way. [illegible] of the Old Fogy agents is only equaled by the amount of guns kicked out [illegible] machines. Of course, if you wish a cheap machine, Old Fogies will supply you as [illegible] machines are dear at any price. You cannot afford to buy a thresher without [illegible] Do not be talked into buying a machine because it is cheap and Old Fogyish. Let the [illegible] if they will set beside the new-fangled machine and let you see for themselves. [illegible] sold on its merits. I have never yet had to call on any court to help [illegible] the merits of the new-fangled machine. Please examine the court records in reference to the Old Fogies' past. [illegible] build a new-fangled machine, called a steam engine. Old Fogies [illegible] as new, [illegible] would push the country. Do you not want to be rushed in the same way? [illegible] machine is past all experimenting, while Old Fogy machines are being [illegible] time, and at your expense. Do not fool with them any longer, while your [illegible]

Remember, the new-fangled machine is sold on its merits only, and [illegible] ence is upon your crop proceeds, and if you allow Old Fogy machines to remain [illegible] just that much out of pocket. To prevent this, see that the party that does your [illegible] fangled ADVANCE Thresher, as they are constructed so as to save your grain, and [illegible] than any old fogy machine. Write for further particulars. I am prepared to prove all my statements here [illegible] The ADVANCE machine will do more and better work than any other.

I hereby challenge any old fogy agent to name ANY case where the [illegible] machine has failed to do as represented. Show up or shut up.

I also sell the well known DINGEE WOODBURY POWER, [illegible] make these on royalty, but I do not know of any imitations, but [illegible] that talk of imitations. I also deal in Lathing and Marine Machinery, [illegible] eral Machinery, Swift Oilers, Grims Safety Valves, Killey Pumps, [illegible] Injectors, Acme and Alligator Wrenches, Rue Smith Packing, [illegible] gines. See the present 10-horse on wheels, 8000 Pumping, [illegible] for cash. General Agent for Colburn's Dynamos and Lamps for [illegible]

Address E. T. WRIGHT, [illegible]

FULTON PARK!

(Property of Southwest Portland Real Estate Co.)

The Largest, Best Located and Most Desirable Tract ever placed upon the Market, consisting of [illegible] Choice Residence Lots Located in the Growing Direction of the City, and only 7 Minutes' Ride from the Postoffice---Fare 5c.

AN UNPRECEDENTED OFFER!

ONE HUNDRED ELEGANTLY FINISHED, MODERN DESIGN COTTAGES, RANGING IN VALUE FROM $1000 TO $5000 EACH, TO BE GIVEN AWAY WITH THE PROPERTY. EVERY PURCHASER SECURES A LOT, AND 100 OUT OF THE WHOLE NUMBER SECURE HOUSES WITH THE LOTS, WORTH FROM $1000 TO $5000.

Uniform Price of Lots $400 Each.

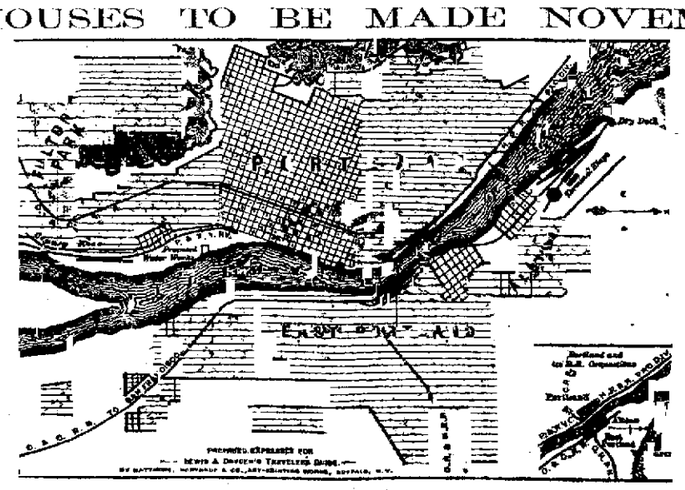
The Lots Being Equally Desirable in Every Part, Choice Will Be Given According to Number, Each Subscription Being Entered in Order of Its Receipt.

AWARD OF HOUSES TO BE MADE NOVEMBER 15, 1888.

FULTON PARK.

LOCATION.—FULTON PARK, as will be seen by reference to the accompanying map, is situated on the west bank of the Willamette river, one mile south of the present southern boundary of Portland, and in the rapidly growing direction of the city. The addition consists of 370 acres, commencing at the river bank and extending westward over a beautiful plateau, and thence along the gently rolling hills for a distance of over one half mile, forming one of the most delightful residence sites on the Pacific coast. The property has been artistically subdivided so as to conform to the contour of the country, and every lot has been made accessible by a system of grand boulevards and winding driveways, recently completed at a cost of over $15,000, thus giving it a feature of significance enjoyed by no other tract on the market. The view afforded from any point in FULTON PARK is one of the grandest in the world, embracing as it does at a single glance the eternal snow-capped peaks of Mount Hood, Jefferson, St. Helens and Baker, rising from 7000 to 12,000 feet above sea-level; the ever-green Cascade range and foothills; the picturesque cities of Portland and East Portland, with a combined population of 60,000; and last but not least, the beautiful Willamette river, as it gracefully winds its way between the two cities, to a point 12 miles northward, where it empties into the mighty Columbia.

In addition to its charming scenic features, FULTON PARK possesses many other elements to be considered in the selection of a home, such as pure mountain air, living springs, a natural drainage system, absolute freedom from malaria, convenient public schools, cheap and rapid transportation, and in fact all the essential requirements of a progressive suburb, making at once the most desirable additions ever placed upon the market.



METHOD OF AWARD.

The award of houses will take place at the Mechanics' Pavilion, at Portland, under the supervision of twelve prominent citizens, to be selected by the subscribers to the enterprise on the day of award. One of the number will act as chairman, two as clerks, and the remainder as judges. Immediately after organization a complete list of all the names of purchasers, printed on uniform sized cards, will be furnished the chairman, who will publicly announce each name before depositing it in the ballot-box. Upon the conclusion of this, a complete list of the one thousand lots, including the one hundred containing houses, which are made known in advance by the map, will be furnished the chairman, who will publicly announce each, as in the case of the name, and carefully compare each lot with the official plat before depositing them in ballot-box No. 2. A boy or girl is next selected from the audience, who, being blindfolded, shakes up the cards in each box and the proceeds to draw them out, one at a time—first a name and then a number, the former designating the ownership of the latter, both of which are announced publicly by the chairman and recorded by the clerks. Warranty Deeds will be executed without additional charge, as fast as the result is made known. Remember that there are no blanks; every purchaser secures a lot worth at present about $400, and one hundred out of the whole number secure a house and lot worth all the way from $1500 to $5,800. Lithographic maps, showing the exact design of houses as well as the lots upon which they are to be erected, can be had upon application.

TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM.

FULTON PARK, as shown by the accompanying map, is connected with the business center of Portland by two separate and distinct lines of railway—the Portland & Willamette Valley, narrow gauge, and the Oregon Central, a standard gauge. The former starts from the corner of Water and Jefferson streets, a very central location, and follows the west bank of the Willamette river, crossing the east end of FULTON PARK, two and a quarter miles from the starting point, or one mile south of the southern city boundary, in precisely seven minutes, thus reducing the distance in time, as compared with horse car transit, to less than one-half mile. Elegant equipped passenger trains of the narrow gauge system pass FULTON PARK station every thirty minutes, going north and south, between the hours of 6 A. M. and 10:50 P. M., and in less than three months, at the present rate of increase in travel, the service will be adjusted so as to run there every ten minutes. The fare each way to and from FULTON PARK is only five cents, being as low as the cheapest car fare in the city. The Oregon Central railroad starts from the union depot in the north end of the city, runs south along Fourth street, making two stops for local passengers, one in the vicinity of the postoffice and the other at the south end, thence along the foothills to FULTON PARK, a point that is reached in ten minutes, thus affording residents of this beautiful suburb a choice of two routes. In addition to its excellent railroad and steamboat facilities, FULTON PARK is reached by the White house road, conceded by everybody to be the most beautiful and romantic driveway on the Pacific coast.

TERMS, TITLE, ETC.

FULTON PARK is owned by the Southwest Portland Real Estate Company, a corporation whose directors for the ensuing year are: [illegible] C. J. McDougall, S. Julius Mayer, Joseph Simon, C. A. Malarkey and G. A. Steel; and the stockholders include many other well known citizens of Portland, who are amply able to carry out the enterprise just as advertised. It is the intention of the company to commence work upon the houses at once, and push them through to completion just as fast as possible. All those securing lots entitled to houses, as shown by the map, [illegible] has not been commenced on that particular house at the date of award) have choice of the four cottage designs shown on the map. Two of the houses will be of the Queen Anne design, costing in the neighborhood of $5000 apiece; and the balance, 98 in number, will be modern design, [illegible] finished cottages, with bath, closets, etc., and complete in every appointment, and could not be duplicated in smaller numbers for less than $400. The company intend to place at least one cottage on each block in the tract, thereby creating homes for 100 families, and enhancing the value of the remaining lots. The title to Fulton Park property is guaranteed to be absolutely perfect, and everything is to be carried out precisely as represented or money will be refunded. Remittances can be sent by mail or express, as no selection of lots is made before the award. Terms—$100 down, and the [illegible] August, $50 on the 1st day of September, $50 on the 1st day of October, $50 on the 1st day of November, and the remaining $100 on delivery of deed, on or before the 31st day of December, 1888. For lithograph maps, showing design of houses, as well as lots upon which they are to be erected, and all other information, call on or address

PACIFIC LAND INVESTMENT CO., AGENTS. J. T. FLYNN, MANAGER, No. 46 Washington Street, Portland, Oregon.

(No Agents Employed.)
Reference—Merchants National Bank.

...ERN DISPATCHES.

...Sheridan Suffers Another Slight Attack.

...PROTEST FROM TEXAS.

...Enthusiastic Over Her Exposition—...ers in Chicago—Charges Against ...Government Employe.

...D, July 3. The ... steamer ...Gen. Sheridan on board, ar... ...here breakwater at 10 o'clock ... The following bulletin re... ...general condition was fur... ...associated press: "Gen. Sheridan ...rs from Hampton Roads very ... he is somewhat fatigued by the ... there having been a considerable ...well. It is proposed to remain ... hours, and if conditions are ... for New York this evening. ...pulse has continued good, but ...and appetite are somewhat ... The bulletin is signed by ... and R. C. Corson.

...ENT CONTROLLED ATTACK.

...ELEWATER, Del., July 3.—The ...Delmin was furnished the associ... ...Gen. Sheridan's physicians ... this morning the general ... of pulmonary conges... ...previous occasion. At this ... he is resting rather easily, ...coughing. His pulse is 94, and ...regular. His temperature is 98. ... He has had several re... ...the position of the Sheridan ... ...sistered from the motion of ... absolute quiet being kept on

...R PEPPER SUMMONED.

...ON, N. J., July 3.—Dr. William ... of Gen. Sheridan's physicians, ... Hon. O. H. Navarro ... ottsee on the ... Dr. O'Reilly, another of the ...sicians, telegraphed Dr. Pepper ... to Delaware breakwater at ... ...Pepper will start at 3 o'clock to-... special train. May finding ... ...be met by a government ring.

...REVOLT IN TEXAS.

...and Tangible Protest Against ... the Bill.

...TON, Texas, July 3. The state ... farmers, laborers and stock... ...met to-day and unanimously ... and adopted a platform. The ... ...endorses the Mills bill for placing ... the free list, and demands ... of the national bank ... the election of president and ... by the people. The state tick... ...by Evan Jones of Erath county ... ...committee was appointed ... the union labor state conven... ...here July 5, and urge the union ... indorse the ticket nominated ... active campaign was decided.

...CINNATI EXPOSITION.

...ented as It Never Was Be... ...Honor of the Event.

...ATI, July 3.—Cincinnati is a glo... ...national colors to-night. ... buildings been made ... ...ly, liberal as it was. ... ...in many lines, gaily ... ...Treasurer has been notified ... ...ld give red, white and ... ...loyalty generous provisions ... for to-night. At midnight a ... and fireworks broke out, with ...bells, the booming of cannon, ...serading tin horns. Mrs. ...ville, Tennessee, widow of ... K. Polk, has been selected ... machinery of the exposition ... ...ish it by pushings an elec... ...her house in Nashville.

...REPPING SPREAD.

...Ind., July 4.—A. M.—The unpro... ...midnight of horse, cowbells, ... and human voices has ...ded in this city. At Fourth ... the flash of guns of four ... artillery firing salutes ... yards away can be seen, ...said drowned by the street noise. ...ets are crowded. Gov. Pattison, ...sylvania and Thayer of Ne... and five other governors ...today. A railroad agent said ...ght 50,000 people to the city on ...d expect to bring as many more

...FROM UNCLE SAM.

...Building Inspector Charged ... with Fraud.

...July 3.—Richard ... ...government architect of the ...court house and postoffice now ... has been arrested upon a ...ged by United States Special ...ent making fraudulent claims ...rnment. It is claimed that ...ered and presented false bills for ...e court house and postoffice. ...e is done by the U. Bond Co., but ...ere performed. Bonuman, it is ...ged the bills and his signature ... Nevins asserts the same ...ge to them and says that he was ...isfactorily explain the charges. ...dam Nevins waived hearing and ...ton. C. L. Magee went to his

...IN ELOPEMENT.

...Man Runs Away With a Chicago Actress.

...July 3.—Another elopement is ...to the credit of Chicago to-night. ...ople are Miss Mary Vokes, an ...s been taking the part of the ... in "Cinderella Slipper," at ... opera house, and Ed... ...cashier at the Duke ... couple visited the races together ... and when next heard of were ... Shaw is 30 years old and is ... the daughter of a leading in... ...of this city. Mr. Vokes ... ...ant talk of the affair, further ...that her daughter ... ...matinee to-morrow.

...CALL FROM AFAR.

...of Persia Offers a United States ...Engineer a Job.

...July 3.—Charles A. Ashburner, ...United States geologic ... survey, has received an offer from ...Persia to take charge of the gov... ...mine corps now being organized ... At present nothing but tur... ...ed in Persia, and the shah ex... ...valuable deposits of coal, ... and possibly the precious ...mmer has not yet arrived.

...BRILLIANT METEOR.

...Majestically Across the Wiscon... ...sky.

...ON, Wis., July 3.—At 8:30 yester... ...a tremendous meteor was ob... ...the southern sky from east to ... ...the sun in brightness and ... ...of sparks in its wake. The ... ...very slowly and was evidently ... bright when it ... ...and finally faded away with...

...TO THE CATSKILLS

...Escort of Fifteen Thousand Dol... ...Is Proclaimed.

...ORK, July 3.—John H. Van Cott... ...ten years employed at the Sev... ...Station Saturday last ... ...vacation. Cashier ... ...guests here been over a hundred and ...$10,000 has been ...

...Judge of a Bowling.

...ELPHIA, July 3.—It is rumored that ...Judge Kremer has returned ... ...and will testify against his ...

...Shooters Heard from.

...York, July 3.—A fire started by ...destroyed ... ...entrance ... opera ...ston building this morning. ...Loss ...

...of the Wild Sweepstake.

...York, July 3.—The celebrated libel ...Lloyd's ... ...Register-General Villas against ...Wild Swan was ... ...Hoboken to-day.

...A Fine Cartoon.

...Judge of The Judge has a car... ...which illustrates the democratic ...ruined and emaciated man lies

CERTAINLY!
I am selling the "Improved" machine
IT A DAISY?
Residence 203,
5c.
R.
AWAY WITH THE SYSTEM.

...ETCHES.

...Another
...think.

...FROM TEXAS.

...for the Expedition
...Grand Army
...Encampment.

...Sheridan's Condition.

...GENERAL.

...WHAT IS REMINDED HIM OF.

Brooklyn (N. Y.) Union.

When President Cleveland was officially informed yesterday of the nomination by the St. Louis convention, he said: "The message which you bring speaks within but the liveliest sense of personal gratitude and satisfaction"—and he thought that there might well be no room for any other sentiment. Perhaps this was the reason why he forgot to remind his auditors that, during the election of 1884, he undertook to win some votes and, to pacify some politicians by declaring the danger to the public service of permitting a president to seek re-election, and thus practically promising that he would not himself be a candidate for a second term. The occasion reminded him, also, most vividly of the scene when four years ago he received a similar message from his party; and that was all.

It did not remind him of his broken pledges, not to the party, which could not have elected him, but to the country, which could. It did not remind him of the promise to carry out civil service reform which he has dragged in the dust and trampled on by devising faithful and capable servitors from office and replacing them with his own partisans, or of the promise that the right of the people, not politicians, to select their own candidates for offices, from President down, should not be interfered with by the politicians, which he took so large a part in defeating. It did not remind him of the promise to deal honestly in the interest of the people in settling the national currency question and the relations between the States. Pennsylvania Avenue, in which he states with offensive partisans of his own selection to the note and that all opposition in his own administration, in spite of his promise not to seek it, might be crushed out, as it was.

Nor did it remind him of his promise, under oath to perform his duties "with due regard to the interests of the whole country, which he has audaciously broken by turning over its administration to the hands of "Confederate brigadiers," subjecting his every act to their bidding to subserve free trade policy which is a deadly assault on all industries of which coal and materials are the products, preliminary to a similar assault on all manufacturing industries of the North. North seems to have reminded him only of the personal triumph which the possession of the government patronage enabled him to achieve over the politicians of his own party in whose way he had interposed his lonely breast. But he will get a reminder of the other matters later on.

...FREE TRADE CHARADE.

"How doth the little busy bee?" Well, if you meddle with him much you will be apt to find out how he doth.—Boston Post.

Would it be correct to describe nearly every girl you know as being in a dreadful hurry because there's a bustle behind her?—Journal of Education.

Old scrub (at Bartender—What'll you have, sir? Q. S.—Oh, a cocktail, another rat in my cellar. Ed (cheerfully)—Any wood lefs, old boy?—Detroit Free Press.

"This is rather an expensive vaudeville, Bromley," "Yes, Darringer, it is the kind other people appreciates," "Just what I thought, Bromley," whose is it?"—Detroit Free Press.

Miss Ethel (confidentially)—Do you know Clara, that I had two offers of marriage last week. Miss Clara (with enthusiasm)—Oh, I am delighted, dear. Then the report is real is true that your uncle left you his money.—Life.

Customer (to druggist)—Gimme a big dose of whiskey and quinine. I've got malaria. Druggist—Sure, sir, but we're just out of quinine. Customer—Well, gimme the whiskey without the quinine, then. I've got to do something or I'll die.—New York Sun.

"Have you kept track of young Bullcony lately? At the rate he's going on he'll soon be seriously embarrassed." "Embarrassed? Nonsense! You don't know the man. He asked me for the loan of a hundred this morning without the quiver of an eyelid."—Life.

"Aw, Cholly, have you seen Algernon this morning?" Cholly (in a husky whisper): "The poor boy is dead!" "Dead! Why, old chappy, what killed him, aw?" "Nervous shock. Don't ye know he bought a suit of clothes and the coat didn't fit."—Lincoln Journal.

Mr. McDuffy—What a wonderful thing is space, Miss Ethel! The immensity of it quite fills my brain. Miss Ethel (sarcastically)—So I should think, Mr. McDuffy, from the nature of your conversation. And a blizzard stood between them during the remainder of the voyage.—Ocean.

"What a floral offering that was of Dr. Budd's," said old Mrs. Wilkins as she was returning from church. "Yes, Dr. Budd loves the cut flowers of speech to a good purpose," replied the deacon. "Cut flowers, deacon?" queried the old lady. "Yes. They have so little connection with the stem of the discourse."—Harper's Bazar

The Republican Convention.
Chicago Times.

Next Day. The Main temperance and prohibition leader, is reported to have indulged in the following language in the course of a recent interview:

The drunken scenes among the delegates at Chicago have never been equaled in the history of any party. There has never been a great national convention in connection with which there was less drinking, comparatively speaking, than the last Chicago convention. The delegates themselves were remarkably sober men. There were no signs of intoxication among the delegates. Bishop Fowler of the Methodist church remarked to one of the officers of the convention that he never before saw so many clear complexioned, healthy, and apparently temperate men in any public gathering as he witnessed within the Auditorium building. There was little drunkenness in the streets. There was no disorder. The police authorities say they never had an easier time with so large a crowd. Mr. Dow's utterances constitute a disgraceful libel. They are in keeping with other crank utterances of men of his party.

The Deciding States.
Boston Herald, (Mugwump).

The result of this election will probably depend upon the votes of Indiana and Connecticut. New York and New Jersey are altogether likely to vote the democratic ticket, especially in view of the unfortunate manner in which the republicans have dealt with the temperance question. It will be a contest, perhaps, in Connecticut, to decide as to whether the manufacturers on the one side, or the prohibitionists on the other, shall carry away the more votes from the democratic and the republican parties respectively. We have little faith in the talk of republican losses on the Pacific coast. Oregon settles, that point to the experienced observer.

He Will Run on His Own Merits.
New York World (Dem.).

It will be said of Mr. Harrison that he is nominated for his name—that if his grandfather had not been president of the United States and his great-grandfather a signer of the Declaration of Independence he would not have been the candidate. But this is idle talk. Mr. Harrison is standing without reference to the honorable positions occupied by his ancestors.

Cleveland's Support in England.
Philadelphia Press.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Harrison has as much chance of becoming king of England as president of the United States." The democratic committee ought to circulate the Pall Mall paragraph in this country. They are all hard and zealously at work for Cleveland free trade.

The Republican Convention.
Chicago Times.

Next Day. The Main temperance and prohibition leader, is reported to have indulged in the following language in the course of a recent interview:

The drunken scenes among the delegates at Chicago have never been equaled in the history of any party. There has never been a great national convention in connection with which there was less drinking, comparatively speaking, than the last Chicago convention. The delegates themselves were remarkably sober men. There were no signs of intoxication among the delegates. Bishop Fowler of the Methodist church remarked to one of the officers of the convention that he never before saw so many clear complexioned, healthy, and apparently temperate men in any public gathering as he witnessed within the Auditorium building. There was little drunkenness in the streets. There was no disorder. The police authorities say they never had an easier time with so large a crowd. Mr. Dow's utterances constitute a disgraceful libel. They are in keeping with other crank utterances of men of his party.

THE CONGREGATIONALISTS.

Fortieth Session of the Oregon and Washington General Association.

Various Topics Discussed by the Delegates—Resolutions Passed—Two Separate Associations Organized from the One.

SEATTLE, July 3.

This body met in Plymouth church, this city, last Thursday at 2 P. M., and was called to order by Rev. H. V. Rominger, clerk of the last association.

Rev. T. E. Clapp, of Portland, was chosen temporary moderator, who conducted devotional exercises of thirty minutes. The roll of delegates was called and the following found present:

From Willamette Local Association:
Albany—Rev. H. V. Rominger, pastor.
Astoria—Rev. G. C. Hall, pastor.
East Portland—Rev. D. Stevens, pastor.
Forest Grove—Mrs. M. A. Ellis, delegate.
Portland—First: Rev. T. E. Clapp, pastor; Deacon and Mrs. G. Shindler; Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Temple-ton and Geo. H. Himes.
Salem—Hon. T. McF. Patton.
Oregon City—Rev. G. A. Rockwood, delegate.
From Mid-Columbia Association: Arlington and Lexington—Rev. D. Wirt, pastor.
Eight-Mile and Fairview—Rev. E. P. Roberts, pastor.
Pendleton—Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Lucas, delegate.
The Dalles—Rev. E. P. Roberts, delegate.
From Puget Sound Association: Black Diamond and Franklin—Rev. Morgan P. Jones, pastor.
Coupeville—Rev. Geo. Lindsay.
Fidalgo—Rev. H. V. Taylor, pastor; Mrs. Taylor, delegate.
Hoquiam—Rev. D. H. Bicknell, pastor.
John River and Wynoochie—Rev. O. A. Thomas, pastor.
Lakeview—Rev. C. E. Newberry, pastor.
Olympia—Rev. E. J. Garver, pastor; Prof. S. D. Driftmill, delegate.
Port Gamble—Rev. W. F. Rose, pastor.
Seattle—Plymouth: Rev. A. L. Bates, pastor; W. D. Wood, Mrs. Frances Nickols, J. E. Sanderson, S. H. Foreter, Dr. Waterhouse, delegates.
Seattle—Taylor Memorial: Rev. W. E. Dawson, pastor; G. W. Furry, delegate.
Seinilamoo and West Fourdale—Rev. Geo. Baker, pastor.
Steilacoom—Rev. C. E. Newberry, pastor; Prof. O. C. Palmer, delegate.
Tacoma, East—Rev. S. B. Chandle, pastor; E. W. Taylor, delegate.
Wilkeson—Rev. J. Wolfe, pastor; Mrs. Wolfe, delegate.
White River—Rev. O. H. Fowler, pastor.
Upper Columbia Association: Colfax, Pasco and Palouse—Rev. Mr. Sprague and Starbuck—Rev. T. W. Walker, acting pastor.
Pleasant Prairie, Spokane Falls and Hailgmoon Prairie—Rev. J. Edwards, pastor.
Walla Walla—Rev. E. R. Loomis, pastor; Mrs. A. J. Anderson, delegate.

A permanent organization was effected by choosing Hon. T. McF. Patton of Salem, moderator, and Rev. E. R. Loomis clerk.

"A symposium of practical lessons from other denominations" was the first topic on programme, and brief papers were presented as follows: "The Methodists," by Rev. W. F. Rose, of Seattle; "The Baptists," Rev. E. R. Loomis, Walla Walla; "The Presbyterians," Rev. D. H. Bicknell, Hoquiam; "The Romanists," Rev. H. V. Rominger, Albany, Oregon; all of which were followed by general discussion.

In the evening Rev. T. E. Clapp preached the association sermon to a large audience.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The association convened at 9 A. M. yesterday. Devotional exercises were conducted by the moderator.

A committee on resolutions was appointed. An informal discussion having occurred as to the advisability of dividing the association, a committee of three from Washington and three from Oregon, with the moderator as chairman, was directed to report a resolution covering the ground. The committee reported favoring the division. The report was stated to be called up later in the session.

"The Christian Endeavor Movement" was the subject of an interesting paper by Miss Bertha Lee of Albany.

Rev. S. Greene, registrar, read the narrative of the churches.

The association then adjourned to give place to a sunrise meeting and Home Missionary Society of Oregon and Washington, which was called to order by G. Shindler, president. Rev. D. Staver was elected secretary pro tem. The report of James Steel, treasurer, Mr. Atkinson and Superintendents Clapp and Roberts, of Oregon and Eastern Washington, and Rev. S. Greene, acting superintendents of home missions for Western Washington, were read and adopted. The society then adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Two o'clock being the hour assigned to the woman's home and foreign missionary work, the whole time was occupied. Mrs. J. F. Ellis, vice-president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, presided during the devotional exercises for the first half hour, then Mrs. Geo. H. Atkinson, president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, took the chair. An interesting report by Mrs. N. F. Coblegh was read by Mrs. Saunderson. A carefully prepared paper by Mrs. H. P. Tinsley, of Lakeview, Oregon, on the subject, "Home Missions," was read by Miss Edith Smith. Soon after which, the president gave a review of the work for the past year. Then Mrs. Ellis again took charge of the meeting. First on the programme was a children's missionary exercise, "On the Rescue," which was admirably rendered and was an excellent feature of the hour. Twenty-five misses and youths participated, who severally carried in a basket filled with flowers and fruit, and do Mrs. M. A. Kelly, who had sole charge of their preparation.

The exercise was one prepared by Rev. C. G. Dole, late of Seattle, now stationed with the A. H. M. S. in New York. Those taking part were: Jessie Hurd, Jessie Reeves, Ethel Brown, Bertie Frye, Ella Dugan, Ruby Gray, Amy Benny, Lucy Brown, Hannah Kelly, Mollie Gillette, Pete Robertson, Blanche Treon, Alice Baker, Ethel Foster, Jessie Hallard, Florence Harper, Paul Harper, Norman Abrams, Hugh George, Maurice Case, Hiram Case, Frank Foster, Ray Foster, Fred Kelley (Maurice Olsen, Ray Foster represented Africa, Nellie Gillette, Oregon, and Blanche Treon, Washington territory. Maurice Case represented Utah, Hiram Case "Socialism," Frank Foster "Mormonism," and Paul Harper "Intemperance"—the four evils which threaten our nation to its very heart's core—each inscription borne aloft upon a symbolically-colored banner. As a remedy for these evils Alice Foster, Ethel Ballard, Florence Harper and Blanche Kelly came bearing bibles and a banner upon which was inscribed "Christ for the World." The responsive singing and recitations were illustrative of the conflict between the powers of evil and good represented; finally the little girls presented bibles to the boys bearing the evil devices, which signified their overthrow, and left Christ's banner waving victoriously over the field. The conception of the exercise was fine, and the execution good in all respects.

The secretary of the Oregon and Washington branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mrs. George H. Leavel Pendleton, made a report, covering the work in her department for the past year. The report showed increased interest in the work, and very many encouragements were presented.

Mrs. W. H. Reeves of Seattle gave a paper on "Japan." In introducing it, she said the subject was one of much interest to her—so much so that she hardly knew where to stop. Increased interest was given to this subject, because of one of the leading ladies of Seattle—Miss Nettie Horton—who had recently gone there on missionary work, and from whom letters had been received from far.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. I. Bates, to January 1, 1888, was read by Mrs. Ida Russell. A total of $411 7 had been collected in the field during the year, all but $11 92 of which had been disbursed on the foreign field. The encouraging sounds of this report were of such a character as to elicit hearty applause from the audience.

A leaflet upon the reason for "Organizing Foreign mission Societies in Home Missionary Churches" was read by Mrs. C. B. Templeton of Portland. Following this an earnest plea was made by Mrs. Ellis for the work. Among other things she urged, as a means of creating an interest, that a systematic course of missionary reading be pursued. This will quicken any zeal and will undertake it with earnestness. Discussion followed, participated in by Rev. H. J. Taylor, Rev. D. Wirt, Rev. T. E. Clapp, T. McF. Patton, Rev. C. E. Newberry, Rev. D. Staver and Deacon G. Shindler.

In response to an inquiry by the presiding officer as to whether pastors would endeavor to secure funds to pay traveling expenses of the vice-presidents to the offices to organize the young people societies, Rev. T. E. Clapp and Rev. H. J. Taylor pledged themselves to present the matter to their churches and do what they could.

The secretary read a letter from one of the most interesting character, and were directed to write close attention by a good audience. Adjourned.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Devotional services were conducted by the Rev. D. Wirt of Lexington, Oregon. The following persons were invited to seats as

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS:

Rev. A. J. Hanson, of the First M. E. church, Seattle; Rev. Thomas Beer, of the Seamen's Friend society, Seattle; Rev. J. W. Pedley, of the First Congregational church, Vancouver, B. C.; Rev. J. W. Wells, of the Christian church, Salem, Or.; Rev. Robert Brown, of the Congregational church, Tabernacle, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Rev. J. Beaton, of the Pacific Theological Seminary, Oakland, Cal.; and Rev. Henry Bates of Nebraska, father of Rev. H. D. Bates, of Plymouth church, of this city. They were introduced by the moderator in the order named, and all made brief addresses. From Mr. Pedley's remarks it was learned that the church in Vancouver, B. C., was organized but five months ago, with a membership of nine members, thirteen women and twenty-six men.

DIVIDING THE ASSOCIATION.

The subject of dividing the association was brought before the meeting. Discussion followed, participated in by Revs. D. Wirt, S. Greene, Dr. Atkinson, E. P. Roberts, J. Anderson and T. W. Walker. A vote being taken, the question was unanimously carried in the affirmative. Rev. C. E. Newberry, chairman of the committee on copies of minutes, reported that the minutes of the last session were printed, and that the committee had performed its duty. The report was followed by Mr. Miller, who gave his impressions of the value of the minutes.

It was voted that special effort be made by this association to induce the A. H. M. S. to hold its anniversary meeting in San Francisco in 1890, and all local associations were urged to take the same action.

"Shall Our Pastors be Installed?" was the subject of an important paper by President J. F. Ellis of Forest Grove. The discussion was participated in by Rev. V. C. Hall, Dr. Atkinson, D. Staver, S. Greene, T. E. Clapp, J. A. Benton and Robert Brown. The argument of Mr. Ellis was in support of the idea of "recognition" by the church, though a council called by the church. This sentiment was approved by a vote of the association.

Rev. S. H. Cheadle of Tacoma presented the subject of "Why are there more women than men in the churches?" A recess was then taken.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The association convened at 3 o'clock, and was led in prayer by Rev. C. E. Newberry. An exhaustive paper was prosented by Rev. George Lindsay of Coupeville, on "The Academy on the Frontier." "The Work of the Pioneer College" was briefly presented by President A. J. Anderson of Whitman College, Walla Walla.

Reports of visiting committees to the Pacific University and Whitman College were made. Dr. Atkinson, chairman of the committee on fidelity reported that the committee had had no correspondence with the Pacific Theological Seminary of California, rendered further action on the part of this body unnecessary, in this direction. His report was received and the committee discharged.

G.

Association of Washington.

It having been decided that the Association of Oregon and Washington should be dissolved, and as it was necessary to have a provisional organization to manage the affairs of Washington for the ensuing six months, the ministers and delegates from Washington territory met at the starting rink, and organized by electing Rev. S. Greene moderator, and Rev. C. E. Newberry clerk. Rev. F. M. Colcord, Rev. Mr. Sprague, Rev. S. Greene, Rev. H. V. Bates and President A. J. Anderson were appointed a committee of five to prepare a constitution and by-laws, appoint a temporary registrar, and such committees as would be necessary for the transaction of business, to select place of next meeting, and prepare a programme for the ensuing year.

The Oregon Association.

On account of the division of the associations, it became necessary to reorganize the Oregon association for the work of the coming year. Accordingly the Oregon ministers and delegates—Rev. G. H. Atkinson, D. D., Rev. T. E. Clapp, Rev. D. Wirt, Rev. E. P. Roberts, Rev. G. C. Hall, Rev. O. W. Lucas, Rev. H. V. Rominger, Rev. D. Staver, President J. F. Ellis, S. Shindler, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Templeton, Prof. Patton, and Geo. H. Himes—met in Plymouth church at 2 P. M., G. Shindler was chosen temporary moderator and Rev. Daniel Staver temporary clerk. The constitution and by-laws of the Oregon and Washington Association, were adopted, leaving out the word "Washington."

G. Shindler was called away and Hon. T. McF. Patton was chosen moderator.

Rev. D. Staver was elected registrar and treasurer for the ensuing three years. Rev. E. P. Roberts extended an invitation from The Dalles church for the association to meet there in June, President J. F. Ellis, Rev. H. V. Rominger and Rev. D. Curtis were appointed a business committee. Rev. T. E. Clapp, Rev. Daniel Staver and George H. Himes were appointed a committee on publishing of minutes. Rev. G. C. Hall, Rev. D. Wirt and Mrs. Wilson were appointed a visiting committee to the Pacific University. Rev. George H. Lee was appointed to deliver the associational sermon for 1889, with Rev. H. V. Rominger alternate. Rev. G. C. Hall was chosen to give the communion sermon for 1889, with Rev. D. Wirt alternate.

A Sabbath school committee was appointed, as follows: Rev. O. A. Rockwood, Rev. Mr. Curtis, Rev. D. Wirt and Dr. C. B. Templeton.

The meeting adjourned to give place to the Oregon Home Missionary Society.

This body was organized by the election of G. Shindler, president; Rev. D. Staver, secretary; and I. A. Mann, treasurer; and I. A. Mann was chosen to present the missionary work in the Pacific University at the commencement in 1889.

A Journal.

The Woman's Society of Missions.

The annual meeting of the Oregon and Washington branch of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Pacific coast met at 2:30 P. M. at the starting rink, and was opened by prayer by Mrs. S. Greene of this city.

Notwithstanding the division of the general association of Oregon and Washington territory, it was thought best to divide this body at the present time, as it would cripple and greatly retard the work.

The organization of the society was then made and officers for the ensuing year elected as follows: President, Mrs. M. E. Kinney of Forest Grove; vice-president, Mrs. C. B. Templeton of Portland; corresponding secretary for Oregon, Mrs. George H. Lee of Sandy; home secretary for Washington, Mrs. Cheadle of Tacoma; foreign secretary, Mrs. H. B. Reeves of Seattle; treasurer, Mrs. R. E. Bates of Seattle; auditor, Mrs. S. Greene of Seattle.

Local Jurisdictions.

Puget Sound, Associating: Mrs. W. E. Dawson, Seattle; Willamette Association, Mrs. Belle W. Cook, Salem; Upper Columbia Association, Mrs. F. K. Perkins, Colfax; Mid-Columbia Association, Mrs. Eddy, The Dalles; Columbia Association, Mrs. P. K. Woodcock, Yakima.

The branch reported fifty-seven during the past year, of which there was a gain to make in a decade. The previous years $250 were pledged towards Rev. Holbrook's salary as Pendleton, also $50 missionary in Alaska, and $20 towards support of Miss Denton, who goes to Japan from California, making a total of $700 pledged during the coming year.

At the request of President Ellis, Miss Carrie White was appointed to visit Pacific University at its next commencement and present the cause of missions to the students and community.

It was voted to reorganize all auxiliaries and bands of sufferings throughout view of the unexpected success of the work during the past year.

It was decided to hold over the Oregon annual association next year. Adjourned.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

James Whitcomb Riley is said to be an ardent admirer of Ben Harrison, and is already deep in the throes of a campaign song.

Mr. Blaine, in "Twenty Years of Congress," makes this first record of Gen. Harrison's full Civil career: "Benjamin Harrison of Indiana, commanding a brigade before he was 30, and make a military record which did honor to the illustrious name which he inherits."

It appears that it is the female seventeen-year locust that carries the contagion and destroys vegetation. The female mosquito also wears a worse reputation than her male, so far as a stinging apparatus is concerned. Etymologically speaking, the expression "gentler sex" applies to males.

Marshal Lefcof, was a soldier to the end. His last words were: "Let my regiment march past. I want to see my artillerymen, every soldier of them."

Mr. Gladstone says that he really should like to live a while longer for two great subjects: "To settle the Irish question; and to convince my countrymen of the substantial identity between the theology of Homer and that of the Old Testament."

Chauncey Depew will sail for Europe July 4. Doubtless he will enjoy himself much better among "the effete monarchies of the old world" than he would in soliciting the votes of the horny-handed grangers of the Bounding and bumptious West.

We are still a very young country. Marion Garlington recently died at Chattanooga, Tenn., leaving 200 descendants. She distinctly remembered the presidency of George Washington. She passed away at the age of 110 years. To most of us George Washington is an unreal and legendary a person as Leonidas.

Mrs. Benjamin Harrison is said to be a remarkably handsome woman, with highly polished manners. She is a daughter of Prof. John W. Scott, formerly president of Miami University. He is now an $1800 clerk in the pension office, and is said to be the oldest man in active service on the government pay-roll.

SIZE IN VALUE OF FRUIT.

It is not easy to make people understand that in all fruits the size and appearance have much to do with the value and price. A man who thinned his fruit and took off one-half had five times as large, so that he produced as many bushels. He was out the cost of labor required to thin the fruit, but that was compensated for many times over by the increased value. One of his neighbors had a similar orchard, but did not thin it. He gathered the same quantity, but his peaches were small and sold for 50 cents, while his neighbor, who thinned and had large, handsome fruit, got $1 50 a basket. As he lost nothing in quantity, it will be seen that he was well paid for thinning. He was not satisfied, however, for he said he only took off half of the fruit, and he was satisfied he should have taken off two-thirds or three-quarters and the fruit would have been still larger and have made more money. Experienced fruit-growers thin off all their fruit when necessary to do so, and sell it so much the better.

To illustrate the commercial value of fruits when dried, it is only necessary to cite the fact that French prunes come graded according to size, the green fruit having been run through sieves to prevent it from being evaporated. It is not claimed that there is less value as food or less excellence of flavor in the smaller classes, but there is a great difference in money value. Prunes are sorted at say 60, 70, 80, 90 and 100 to the pound, and cost 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 cents laid down in Chicago; so the largest class is worth nearly double the value of the smallest. The Petite d'Agen, or French prune, is greatly esteemed and is salable, but will not bring over 7 cents in Chicago, while the Italian prune, twice as large, is worth 11 cents there, and the Silver prune, larger still, brings 13 cents. These facts show the need of thinning orchards to have salable fruit and realize a profit on it. It pays to do it right in this, as in all other facts of life.

HOUSE AND FARM.

A wise man expressed his opinion as formed by long experience as follows: In a new country if you see a man build a large house to live in and put up a rough shelter for his stock and their feed, as a commencement of his work on the acres the government bestows on all citizens, you may look for a conducting of all his affairs on the same basis. He will not prosper unless his stock do, and they need care and attention even more than the family does. The family are favored with intelligence and able to take advantage of circumstances to protect themselves. A small house made tight and comfortable can be used until time brings returns. It is always best to build small until well able to winterize the animals on a farm; require good treatment and comfortable quarters. They have only animal instinct and need that human reason shall look after them. They must have good shelter and food or else the profit of their owner even if they live.

Success follows good management, and the man who will starve his stock to feed himself will not succeed. The young man who expects to prosper before he gets rich, off with the apron-strings before his father began. There is too fast a feeling in modern life. The world seems to have lost the idea of a young period in life and seems all maturity and high pressure. It is time the world returned to the good old programme of going slow and beginning at the bottom and working carefully towards the top.

Dire Threats by Mr. Mills.

Washington Special, June 28.

Mr. Mills has satisfied himself that the tariff debate under existing conditions will be interminable. Failing to come to any amicable agreement with the opposition, the democratic leaders in the House say that they will resort to severe measures, and report a new rule to limit debate and take the tariff bill out of the committee of the whole, and that they will then pass it. They will not be able to execute this threat, however.

Take the Northern Pacific Railroad for all points east. The only dining car route from Portland. Office, No. 2 Washington street.

ASTONISHING CURES BY ELECTRICITY.

The Prevalence of Catarrh and its Effects on the System.

In Portland and the whole Northwest the catarrhal and bronchial affections are alarmingly prevalent, and too frequently they are neglected until the most serious consequences ensue. Nothing sounds more common than a cold or sore throat, and yet they each frequently lead to years of suffering, resulting in consumption and death, if not properly attended to in time. Deafness is another distressing affliction often induced by catarrh. That Drs. Darrin have effected extraordinary cures after all efforts elsewhere have failed is a fact supported by the strongest evidence. Their cures are rapid and permanent, as the following very remarkable case will show. The Rev. M. M. Bashor is a man well known in Oregon, and his word can be relied on.

Card From Rev. M. M. Bashor.

DR. DARRIN—Dear Sirs: Prior to consulting you two months ago I had been sorely afflicted with nasal and throat catarrh, which interfered with my public speaking. Your home treatment for catarrh has cured me, and I am thankful to you. I had tried many advertised remedies before, but none of them cured me. Refer to me at Brooks, Or.

ELDER M. M. BASHOR.

C. McLaughlin, the Milkman, Cured of Deafness in Ten Minutes.

PORTLAND OREGONIAN: I must confess to the citizens of Portland, through your columns, the fact that I have been cured of catarrhal deafness in one ear by Dr. Darrin. I had always regarded him as a humbug, as most advertising doctors are, but concluded there must be some merit in his system of cure by electricity, as many of my acquaintances have been greatly me to try. I could scarcely hear a sound when I came to the doctor, or even the ear bell. In less than ten minutes I could hear the tick of a watch, and now ordinary conversation. I reside at the corner of Nineteenth and Jefferson streets, Portland, and can be referred to. I am well-known as McLaughlin, the milkman.

C. McLAUGHLIN.

A German Cured of a Discharging Ear.

CAMP.—This is to certify that I am 39 years old and for five years past have had a most disgusting discharge of the ear, caused by catarrh. It was so offensive that I could not go in the presence of anyone at times. Dr. Darrin has cured me by electricity and medicine. Refer to me at the New York hotel, Band Front streets, Portland.

ANTON KENINGER.

Office Hours and Place of Business.

The doctors can be consulted at 235 Fifth street, corner Main, Portland, and International hotel, Seattle, W. T., from 10 to 4, daily, evenings, 7 to 8, Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, loss of manhood, blood taints, syphilis, gleet, gonorrhœa, stricture, spermatorrhœa, seminal weakness or loss of desire of sexual power in man or woman, catarrh and deafness are scientifically and successfully treated. Cures of private diseases guaranteed. Circulars sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit at the doctor's office.

SJA 2083 J-L
TRADE MARK
THE LEADING REMEDY.
IN TRADE SAYS SO.
The Suffering Class Says So To The Trade.
ITS VIRTUES ARE PHENOMENAL.
ITS CURES ARE MARVELOUS.
Chronic Cases 30 Years' Standing Cured Permanently.
Sold by Druggists and Dealers, Everywhere.
The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Balto., Md.

Established 1857.
J. C. CARSON,
Manufacturer of and Dealer in Sash, Doors, Blinds, Window and Plate Glass and General Building Supplies.
Estimates and Price Lists on Application. Country orders a specialty.
Factory and Salesroom, Weidler's Mill.
Telephone No. 430.

WANTED—HELP.

GIRL WANTED IMMEDIATELY; SMALL family; good wages. 201 Eighth street, corner Taylor. 9J7

FIRST-CLASS BARBER WANTED IN KLINGsburg, W. T. Wages $20 a week. Joe Adler. 9J9

WANTED—AT ONCE, A COMPETENT WAITER girl at Over-land Hotel. 9J6

WANTED—A GIRL FOR SECOND WORK. Inquire at 214 Mill street. Je27tf

WANTED—A NURSE GIRL TO TAKE CARE of child. Inquire at 466, E st. 16tf

A GOOD GIRL WANTED FOR GENERAL housework. Apply at 221 West Park. 1t

WANTED—A STENOGRAPHER AND TYPEwriter. Address Power & Robertson. 3J2

WANTED—A GERMAN OR SWEDISH GIRL to cook. Apply at 107 Washington st. 9J2

WANTED—A CAPABLE WOMAN TO ASSIST in care of two children. Apply at once. 241 Second street, cor. Main.

WANTED—A GIRL TO TAKE CARE OF CHILdren and assist in housekeeping. Apply at 65 N. 16th st., between Everett. 9J8

WANTED—IMMEDIATELY, ACTIVE, ENERgetic, with some business ability; able and willing to lift; $60 to $75 per month. No capital required; references and salary expected. Call care Oregonian. 9J15

WANTED—A YOUNG MAN TO TRAVEL IN the country; good wages to a good man. 50 Oak street, Portland. 1J8 tf

WANTED—A COMPETENT GIRL TO DO cooking and general housework in a small family; no washing. Apply No. 475 West Park. 9J10

WANTED—TWO GOOD PANTRYMEN AND two first-class waiters, good wages, at Freimann's Restaurant, corner of First and Oak streets. 2J14

WANTED—EMPLOYMENT.

WANTED—PLACES FOR CLERKS, NURSES, housekeepers and widowers and boarders. W. C. P. A. 9J3

SITUATION WANTED—BY AN EXPERIENCED cook; goods selected; wholesale or retail. Address A. B. C., care Oregonian. 9J6

STENOGRAPHER AND TYPEWRITER OPERator wants position; has had experience; references given. T. Care Oregonian. 3J5

WANTED—SITUATION AS CLERK AND BOOKkeeper by one who wants employment of any kind. Address E. Z., care Oregonian. 3J3

WANTED—SITUATION BY A GERMAN WHO thoroughly understands firing locomotive and stationary boiler. Address N, Oregonian. 3J7

WANTED—SITUATION TO DO ANY KIND OF work; understands English and German, French and English. Address F, Oregonian. 3J7

WANTED—A SITUATION AS BOOKMAN OR assistant set in a mill of furniture manufactory, where a good accountant as a practical machinist and can do a little undertaking if help is needed. Address, stating duties demanded, F. M., care Oregonian. 3J6

EXPERIENCED CLOTHING SALESMAN—(American) apply from the Rich dressing department. A1 Eastern references. Ashforth Bros., Tacoma, W. T. 3J9 3tJe14

WANTED—AGENTS.

WANTED—MAN—To take the agency (traveling or local) of our safes; over 50 kinds; prices, weight 500 lbs.; retail price $35; other sizes in proportion. A rare chance and permanent business. These safes need no description. Address Hall's Safe and Lock Co., Cincinnati, O., or their agents, Portland, Or. ALFINE SAFE CO., Chicago. 9J4

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

CHILD WANTED TO TAKE CARE OF AN address for terms M. McMASTON, Logan P. O., Clackamas Co., Oregon. 6J1m

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—A YOUNG NEWFOUNDLAND DOG, on June 25, near the O. R. & N. Co's boat yard. If returned to 173 Stark street a liberal reward will be given. 3J3

BUSINESS CHANCES.

BUSINESS FOR SALE—A GOOD OPPORTUnity to purchase an office business with rapidly increasing profits; $1000 is all that is required to invest where a great bargain is offered. Reasons for selling, having other business. None but principals need apply. Address Investment, care Oregonian. 6J6

A MAN WITH SMALL CAPITAL WISHING to invest in good paying business, will do well to call on or address P. O. Guardian, 1223½ 1st st. 3J4

$500—AN EXCELLENT OPENING IN PROFitable business for energetic man of limited means; no previous knowledge requisite. Apply at the EMPIRE, Room 68, Union block. Je28tf

BUTCHER BUSINESS FOR SALE—EVERY thing complete for cash or profitable trade for good section; rent low. Owner leaving the city. Inquire 237 Third street. Portland. 9J7tf

FOR SALE—A HALF INTEREST IN A GOOD paying egg ranch for sale cheap. Only a partner need apply. Call or address CHAS. SCHRUNK, 189 Front street, Portland, Or. 2J3m

HALLOA, SAWMILL MEN—CHANCE TO make $80,000. Will sell 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 fine standing timber cheap; country settling up heavily all around; and no other timber to be had. Apply at room 2, Dekum building. 3J7

FOR SALE—A BAKERY, WITH HOUSE AND lot, in one of the best towns in Eastern Oregon; present owner is no baker himself and has too much outside business; must be sold; a married man and there is a restaurant in connection with it. Address J. Shearman, Arlington, Or. 29J7

FOR RENT—I TO 5 YEARS—12 ACRES ON Portland Heights, particularly fine; thoroughly underdrained with tile drains, 4 feet deep and 40 feet apart; land in good cultivation, well set in grass; house of 7 rooms; barn with good cellar; good spring water in house, barn and garden. Also, for sale, good family horse, buggy and harness, fine cow, etc. Apply at Office Clerk P. & S. Courts, Ballotine Building, or address P. O. box 418, Portland. 27J6tf

FOR SALE—VANCOUVER FLOURING MILLS; a good investment. Apply to L. M. RUDDELL, Vancouver, W. T. tf

FOR SALE—BLACKSMITH BUSINESS, WITH tools, small engine, lathe and drill press; good stand. No opposition. Also one acre of land, with house, etc. For particulars address A. T. Harris, Simpson, Clatsop Co., Oregon. 15Jaln

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

$4500 FOR CORNER LOT AND 7-ROOM HOUSE, G and 16th streets. CLAYTON & OLIVER, 193 Second street. 2J3

FOR SALE—THAT DESIRABLE PROPERTY known as the Ilwaco Hotel, located at Ilwaco, W. T., comprising a house of 30 bedrooms, besides dining-room, parlors, bar-room, etc., also large rooms that can be rented as stores; large barn and feed stable and other buildings. The N. P. & N. Co. Railway passes the door. Is now doing a good business. Good reasons given for selling. For particulars apply to MRS. N. KERLEE, Ilwaco, W. T. 26Jaln

FOR SALE—THAT BEAUTIFUL QUARTER block of residence property situated on the N. W. corner of 21st and E streets, fronting each street 200 feet, and accessible laid on both streets; cottage house on property now renting for $20 per month. For further particulars inquire at No. 25 Barrett. 29Jaln

FARM FOR SALE—86 ACRES OF LAND, about 15 acres timber, balance never burned; 70 acres cleared; with two story log house 27x18, a kitchen 20x18, barn, barn 30x27 with shed; 1½ miles from Oswego; 3 miles from Milwaukie; 8 miles from Portland; on Clackamas river, known as Sullon's Creek. From 5 to 8 tons of hay in stock, and a 4-year-old horse, 10 head of cattle and 4 cows to calve. A cheap bargain. Reason for selling, sickness. Cash $1,500. H. PLANT, Sightley, Cowlitz Co., W. T. 3J8

FOR SALE—M

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, WEDNESDAY, JULY 4.

THE OUTLOOK OF THE CANVASS.

Men here and there in several parts of the country are reported to be shifting from one party to the other, according to their views on the tariff question; but the number of those who announce their change of position is not great, and it is not probable that these will exert any appreciable influence on the general result. As a rule those whose course is determined by their views upon the tariff question, if they want free trade will vote democratic, but if they believe in protection will vote republican. By this it is not meant that all who would uphold protection, will desert the democratic party, or that all who would prefer low tariff or free trade will leave the republican party; for there are multitudes whose votes will not be decided by their views upon the tariff question, but rather by their views upon the historical issues between the parties. Thus, there are great numbers of republicans who dissent more or less from the positions taken in the republican platform on tariff and fiscal questions, who nevertheless will vote with the republican party, simply because the democratic party, within the days of their own memory, has represented and supported the deepest infamies under heaven—slavery, secession, rebellion, negation of civil rights, repudiation of the national debt and all that is summed up in the term "non-performance." And on the other hand, multitudes who hate the republican party as the representative of the principles that triumphed in the long struggle of thirty years, will still vote democratic, though they by no means agree with the present position of the democratic party in relation to tariff and to fiscal questions.

A telegraphic dispatch from Washington, published yesterday, states that the postmaster of the house of representatives is boasting that there is "big money" in hand to be wagered upon the election of Cleveland; also that several democratic members of congress went to bet heavily on Cleveland at odds of 100 to 90. But the argument of the braggart and bully doesn't signify much. There was a time when democratic members of congress knew that the South would vote white the North at even bigger odds. The men now at Washington are intoxicated with power, as they were many years ago. The strength of the democratic party is still in the South, as it was then; and the South, under the tyranny and despotism that rule it, knows nothing of the forces that move Northern public opinion. The coming election is not going to be decided by betting, nor by the class who offer to bet. Men like Congressman "Tim" Campbell of New York may swagger about the bar-room of the Hoffman house, and brag that "all hell can't beat Cleveland," but the men who are going to decide the election are not frequenters of places of that description. They are in the factories and workshops and fields of the country, and they think and act for themselves.

If the voting in Oregon by the men in the fields, the factories, the counting-rooms and workshops is any indication whatever of the voting that will be done by the like sort of men elsewhere, then the democratic party will be overwhelmingly beaten. In Oregon the politicians of neither party knew how these men were going to vote. They kept their own counsel, went to the polls with their ballots, and when the polls were closed the political managers on both sides were full of uncertainty and apprehension as to the result. The count, however, was amazing—amazing to both sides. We infer, therefore, that the democratic politicians, fattening on spoils at Washington, or swaggering through the gilded pool-rooms of New York and effecting to bet between drinks, may not know everything. Nor is the accession to the democratic party of a free trader mugwump, like ex-Mayor Low of Brooklyn, of matter of remarkable significance. The election will be decided not by the comparatively few who move in his aristocratic circle, but by the many who work in the shops and fields, and who decide for themselves upon reasons the very opposite of those that move men like Mr. Low.

Four years ago THE OREGONIAN had no confidence whatever in the success of the republican canvass. From first to last, it did not see how the republican party could win. That party, from the start, was at a disadvantage, both on account of the personality of the candidate and the indistinctness of the issues. But THE OREGONIAN believes that the republican party this time will win. Upon the personality of the candidate there can be no assault with the shafts of malice and calumny, and the issues of the time are so clearly defined that the democratic party, with all its versatility, cannot dodge them. That party cannot succeed this time by professing to favor free trade in one state and protection in another; its platform this time is not a "double-ender," to read, like a Delphic oracle, either way. This time it will be pinned to the issue as presented in the Cleveland message and the Mills bill.

INTOLERANCE AND ARISTOCRACY.

Senator Turpie of Indiana, who holds a seat in the United States senate through frauds for which a number of his supporters are serving terms in the penitentiary, made a speech in the senate on Monday against Gen. Harrison. He said that "Harrison, although a man of no small capacity and of great mental force, had that which was not often found with such qualities, a harsh intolerance which treated dissent as idiocy." Moreover, he was "deeply touched and tinged with the prejudices of the exclusive class of aristocracy."

Of the evil acts of the democratic party Gen. Harrison has not been tolerant. The democratic party during many years pursued a course which brought about a moral contest between absolute right and absolute wrong; and Harrison, as one of those who stood on the side of absolute right, probably did "treat dissent as idiocy." He might have treated it as total depravity.

The charge that he "has the prejudices of the exclusive class of aristocracy" rests on the same ground. One who stands up resolutely for public justice, for the righteousness that exalts a nation, for the inalienable rights of man and for the principles of national unity and freedom,—stands up for all these in peace and fights for them in war against those who assail them as Turpie and his sort did, is quite likely to be called "an aristocrat." But if Harrison had been a supporter of slavery, a sympathizer with rebellion, a fire-in-the-rear copperhead, a leader of disreputable politics and a beneficiary of ballot-box stuffing as Turpie is, he wouldn't be an "aristocrat" at all. He would be a popular democratic statesman.

THE FLAG.

The stars and stripes will bloom everywhere to-day, but perhaps comparatively few know the history of the American flag. The words of the resolve of congress inaugurating the stars and stripes June 14, 1777, as to the Union are: "That the Union be thirteen stars white in a blue field, representing a new constellation." Up to this date the union of the flag of the colonies was the union of the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew on a blue field, the British Union Jack—while the field of the flag was the thirteen stripes, alternate red and white.

Gen. Schuyler Hamilton says that John Adams was chairman of the board of war in 1777, and that in possession of the Adams family is an heirloom, a seal representing an eagle holding in his beak the lyre of Orpheus, the old constellation of thirteen stars, these stars relating into a circle of thirteen stars, with the motto, "Non nisi te quæsit," "Not if it leads the stars," quoted from the description of the lyre of Orpheus in the Astronomicon of Manilius.

Gen. Hamilton says that the drawing of the first flag of the United States in the state department, at Washington, represents the thirteen stars in a circle, and that probably John Adams had proposed that the old constellation of the lyre of Orpheus, of thirteen stars, away back in antiquity the astronomical emblem of union and harmony, should supplant the union of the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew in the canton of the flag of the colonies now become states. The thirteen stars of the lyre of Orpheus happily radiated into the union of thirteen stars without the lyre representing a new constellation was wisely resolved upon, as it would readily admit of acquisitions as time rolled on."

THE TIMES OF '76.

The study of the struggle of the American colonies for independence, which our celebration to-day commemorates, makes clear that the men of 1776 were relatively no better, no more patriotic, no purer in the mass, than the men of 1861 who fought for the flag and founded a nation at Appomattox. Washington was not a purer, wiser or more unselfish patriot than Lincoln; Greene and Wayne were not stouter or more single-hearted soldiers than Grant and Sheridan, Sam Adams and John Adams were inflamed with no more fiery enthusiasm, and into zeal for the cause than Gov. Andrew and Secretary Stanton; John Hancock and Robert Morris did not spend their money more freely for the cause than did Gen. Wadsworth his fortune for the Union. There was relatively as much dishonesty, corruption, cowardice and disloyalty behind the Continental as behind the Union army. Families were divided into tories and patriots then as families in our struggle were divided into Union men, Confederates and copperheads. Thirty thousand tories from New York alone cast their faith and their fate with the British flag and settled in the maritime provinces of Canada when, with the triumph of the colonies in 1783, Sir Henry Clinton sailed away for Halifax. A son of Benjamin Franklin was a New Jersey tory. Hundreds of tories, when the Revolution was accomplished, left Connecticut and the New Hampshire grants and settled in Canada. The most savage fighting at Oriskany and Bennington was between the tories and patriots who had once been neighbors, if not friends. The tory Butler, who wasted Cherry Valley and Wyoming with fire and sword, was repeated in ferocity and cruelty by Quantrell in his sack of Lawrence. The barbarities of the British prisons in New York city were for that day no worse than those inflicted at Andersonville. Washington's army was constantly depleted by desertion; it was cursed by thieving contractors and swindlers, as selfish amid general woe as those of our own day, who cried when the rebellion was crushed, because there was no longer any excuse for the turkey buzzard contractor to feed upon and no longer any market for the military broker in the human flesh of substitutes. Washington was obliged at first to rely largely upon the wretched material of "two months men," who included many fellows who thought soldiering an easy life, since it afforded many opportunities of advantage to persons of a natural bent to thieving. Marauding was so common to both armies that about New York the guerrillas of the hostile armies were known as respectively the "cowboys" and "skinners." New Jersey was overrun with them just as Missouri was in our civil war, and they robbed and murdered each other with hearty good will, and when they could not rob a foe were not squeamish about robbing their comrades. Those New Jersey tory guerrillas hung Capt. Huddy, a prisoner, in cold blood, just as the Confederate Kentucky guerrillas murdered Isham. Robert L. McCook as he lay sick in his captured ambulance. Washington had such a lot of villainous men in his army at Cambridge that he wrote in 1776 in bitter disdain concerning the issue of the contest. The British flooded the country with counterfeit Confederate money and found no difficulty in getting plenty of base Americans to "shove it." The correspondence, records and private documents of those days show that there was a large and pestilous under world during the Revolutionary period—"a world of sharpers and whipping posts, of drunken tavern-keepers and loose women." The country was so demoralized during the war that every bit of wood was a lurking place for thieves and tramps of both sexes. Drunkenness was common and loose women abounded in every town, sometimes; according to the private correspondence of those days, coming in the form of farmers' daughters and women on their way to prayer meeting. Col. Higginson, who has made the social history of New England during the Revolutionary period a subject of careful study says that "there must have been throughout a large part of rural New England a stratum of society like that still found in some isolated and degraded settlements among the mountains—hamlets whose wandering inhabitants are habitually called gypsies, although without gypsy blood." The situation was one that recalls the saying that "war is the mother of cruelty and cruelty is the mother of crime."

Anybody who has become a pessimist over the political literature and methods of our day needs but to turn back to the Revolution and the ten years following it to see that we have made a vast improvement. There were bickerings and jealousies among our generals, but there was nothing as infamous as the organized military cabal against Washington that included Generals Conway, Gates and Mifflin. No secretary of state in our day ever smuggled on an editor with government funds to attack the administration of which he was a member, as did Jefferson. From 1789 to 1793 Jefferson openly charged Hamilton with using the treasury to build up a party that should in time introduce a monarchy, and at last he did not spare Washington. Jefferson himself records interviews in which "the president was much inflamed; got into one of those passions when he cannot command himself; saying that, by God, he had rather be in his grave than in his present situation; that he had rather be on his farm than emperor of the world; and yet they were charging him with wishing to be a king. He was evidently sore and warm, and I (Jefferson) took his intention to be that I should interpose in some way with Freneau, perhaps withdraw his appointment of translating clerk in my office. But I will not do it. His paper has saved our constitution, which was galloping fast into monarchy." Hamilton in his anger attacked Jefferson with equal violence, and both these great statesmen used such abusive and libelous language that Washington had to beg them to desist.

In the matter of religion the upper classes were as much permeated with indifference as at present. Religion had so little hold upon them that in Boston, New York and Philadelphia it had become almost entirely a matter of form among both Episcopalians and Presbyterians. In Richmond, a place of 3500 inhabitants, there was no church 100 years ago. Among public men John Jay seems to have been about the only man who had any deep, abiding interest in the subject of religion. James Madison, who was not a disbeliever but an agnostic, seems to have been a type of the rising religious indifference among leading men. Bishop Meade in his writings deplores the number of ruined churches in Virginia. The only religious life was among the Baptists, Methodists and Catholics. There were 300,000 slaves in Virginia and Maryland; North Carolina and South Carolina had 100,000 each, while in New York there were 20,000, and Yankee skippers were still bringing slaves from Africa to Savannah. Laborers well in the rudest sheds, were paid from $5 to $10 a month working from sunrise to sunset; in the city of Albany wages were 40 cents a day, yet clothing was much higher than it is to-day, and a day's wages bought but two yards of calico. McMaster says that "a good farm hand brought $8 a month and a strong boy was glad to get $1 a month to work at the hardest manual employment on the farm or in the shop. Butter was from eight to ten cents a pound; potatoes and turnips sold for a shilling a bushel. Women went out to work for 25 cents a month and their board. A girl who could earn 12 cents at the spinning wheel by a day's hard work thought she was doing well. The poor suffered and there was more want and wretchedness proportionate to the population than there is in the United States to-day." Agriculture even when conducted by fancy farmers, like Jefferson, was rude and unthrifty. Jefferson made his land return him but eight bushels of wheat or eighteen of Indian corn to the acre. These facts are sufficient to call to mind that in all elements of national growth, whether moral, spiritual or material, we have had an enormous growth since the old bell in Philadelphia ushered in the morning of our first "Independence Day."

THE CODLING MOTH.

Reports from several localities round about Portland coincide in the statement that this insect, so destructive to apples during the past two or three years, has this year scarcely made its appearance. The climatic conditions of this season appear to be very fond for it. A fine apple crop, therefore, is promised.

Nevertheless, precautions ought not to be relaxed. The season is at hand to catch the insect in the caterpillar state. The egg that was laid in the calyx of the apple is hatched, and the worm, that had eaten its way into the fruit, is ready to come out, falling to the ground by a line which it spins for the purpose, or crawling down the trunk. It desires some good place to hide in and "roll itself up." By many the plan of putting some kind of bandage around the tree is practiced, and they look once a week for concealed insects. All you find are injurious. It is not difficult to look at the band once a week, and many millers and some worms are found hidden there. This bandage is made of paper, folded several times; of sacking or coarse cloth. And many insects are hidden away there, waiting inspection.

Another plan is to suspend a lighted lantern to a limb in the orchard, over a pan of water with a little coal oil on the surface. The moth flies by night only, and there are said to be two seasons for its coming, one being spring, the other early fall. It is now time to prepare for the second crop of them. The last plan is not thought to be effective enough, but the only way is to try both ways, as they do not involve great expense. The moth is several weeks laying its eggs, and millers and worms are in progress nearly all the summer and fall. The regular time for the second haying may be said to be the last of July, and it is well enough to begin in season.

In Sanders's book on insects that hurt fruit he says the hands should be put on June 1, as THE OREGONIAN has heretofore said they should be, and looked at until September comes. All worms and chrysalids found under the bands should be destroyed.

To pick up and destroy fallen fruit has the effect to destroy any worm that remains inside. A better plan is to have the orchard in clover and keep swine there. They will thrive and fatten on the clover, and will hunt all fallen fruit and eat it. Hogs are useful in this connection. They do much to protect an orchard, as they root around the base of trees and kill all infesting worms they find.

"FREE AND EQUAL."

The Declaration of Independence is not seldom quoted as affirming that "all men are free and equal." The words of the Declaration, however, read as follows:

We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The words "all men are born free and equal" are a paraphrase found in the constitution of Massachusetts, but they are not the text of the Declaration of Independence. Ignorant demagogues and social incendiaries are fond of misquoting the Declaration of Independence as their authority for proclaiming all men free and equal in every respect. Indeed, some advocates of woman suffrage do not hesitate to abuse its text for their own advantage in argument. The Declaration of Independence, however, contains nothing that justifies the socialist, the anarchist and the communist. It only declares that all men shall equal in the sight of the law, and equally entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. It does not say, as seditious and foolish agitators maintain, that all men are born socially and intellectually equal and, therefore, the legitimate heirs not only to all human rights, but all political privileges.

When the Page bill for restriction of Chinese immigration was before the senate an amendment was proposed forbidding the naturalization of Chinese. There is a dishonest effort to make a point against Harrison on account of his vote against this amendment. He showed that the amendment was wholly unnecessary, since the proposed measure was already a law and incorporated in the revised statutes. Hence there was no need whatever of re-enacting it, and for this reason, and for this only, he voted against it. As the St. Paul Pioneer Press says, "Gen. Harrison showed a statesman's familiarity with past legislation when he pursued the common-sense course that he did."

While the republicans were in control up to the election of 1874, the revenue was reduced $284,421,260. When the democrats were in control for six years following, they reduced the internal revenue but $6,368,935, and did not touch the tariff. During the two years following 1881, when the republicans were in control, they reduced the tariff and internal revenue a total of $61,432,481. The republicans were in control when by the act of May 1, 1872, tea and coffee were placed on the free list, making a reduction of nearly $16,000,000 in the revenue. But the republicans, in making reductions, did not forget the principle of protection, while the reductions proposed by the democrats are in the line of free trade.

It may give a cold chill to democrats who are hoping that California may give its vote to Cleveland, to remind them that the immigration into California during the last two years has been very heavy. How the newcomers will vote the election in Oregon shows. Four-fifths of all those who have been coming to the Pacific slope during the last three or four years are from the Northern and Eastern states. California will throw 40,000 more votes than she threw in 1884, and a large majority of the new vote will be republican. The immigration is making the Pacific states and territories as solidly republican as Maine and Massachusetts.

Independence Day is our only holiday that is observed by every state in the Union. It is the only one that delights Arkansas observes save Christmas. Of these two Alabama and Massachusetts add New Year's, while Delaware adds Thanksgiving instead. Of states which keep seven holidays in the year California and New Jersey add Election Day to the six principal occasions; Connecticut adds Fast Day instead; Massachusetts puts Fast Day and Labor Day in place of New Year's and Election Day; and Missouri drops Declaration Day for Good Friday. Louisiana's list is more peculiar, consisting of New Year's, the Battle of New Orleans, Washington's Birthday, Shrove Tuesday, Good Friday, the Fourth of July and Christmas Day. Pennsylvania observes Good Friday and not Election Day.

A cartoon from a paper called The Battering Ram, published in 1840, is reproduced. The picture represents a man crying out, "Wool should be admitted duty free!" and a ram butting him over. The campaign of 1840 was made on almost the identical issues now presented. As the Chicago Inter-Ocean says: "The democratic party forty-eight years ago was the party of free trade. The party that nominated Gen. Wm. Henry Harrison was the party of protection, and it won. The head of the party of protection. Will history repeat itself?"

Of Harrison the New York Evening Post, though it supports Cleveland, says: "He made a good reputation in the senate, and was considered one of its ablest members and strongest debaters. His Dakota report and speeches, and his speeches on the Edmunds resolution regarding civil service reform, are considered among the best efforts of his life. As a member of the foreign affairs committee he assisted in the consideration and amendment, and united in the unanimous and favorable committee report of, and voted in the senate for, the Chinese restriction bill."

The prohibitionists cannot this year find fault with the "republican whisky plank," for the prohibitionists have declared for free whisky, preliminary to the prohibition of its sale and manufacture. Their prohibition plank, after pronouncing against liquor licenses and regulation of the liquor traffic as immoral, declares "for the immediate abolition of the internal revenue system [the tax on whisky and tobacco], whereby our national government is deriving support from our greatest national vice."

Eastern democratic and mugwump papers are calling on working people to take note that the Mills bill retains the tax on manufactured articles and thus will enable manufacturers to continue paying good wages. It is somewhat singular they do not see that this is an admission that protection enables manufacturers to pay good wages, and therefore is a complete "giveaway" of the citadel of the free trade case.

British journals are hopeful, and even jubilant, over the prospect, as they view it, that British manufacturers will soon get the American markets. The London Spectator predicts the success of the democratic party in our election, and gratefully says: "Grover Cleveland has done more to advance the cause of free trade than any prime minister of England has ever done."

Now we have it the national democratic committee is going to elect speakers this week, who will be sent to "the battle-ground in New York, California, Oregon and other states." The "Battle ground in Oregon" is good. How would it do to send Mr. Irish again?

Four years ago the Freie Presse, a noted German paper of Milwaukee, supported Cleveland. It has now declared itself earnestly for Harrison, on protection and civil service grounds.

Scrofulous humors, hives, pimples and boils are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by druggists.

MEETING NOTICES.

Headquarters George Wright Post, No. 1, G. A. R.—Portland, Or., July 2, 1888. General Order No. 3. All comrades of the Post will report at Grand Army Hall at 9:30 A. M., July 4, for parade. All old soldiers and visiting comrades are cordially invited to join our ranks on that occasion.
(Official.) E. W. ALLEN, Commander.
D. H. TURNER, Adjutant.

L. U. 42 I. B. D. of A.—Members will assemble at Norpearl Hall, corner First and Madison streets, Wednesday morning at 6:30 sharp, with white suits, to participate in parade. By order
W. A. CHARLES, Pres.

Samaritan Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F.—Regular meeting this Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Members are requested to attend. Visitors made welcome.
H. S. ALLEN, Sec'y.

Minerva Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F.—Regular meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Important business. All members are requested to attend. Visitors made welcome.
C. BARTRAM, N. G.
H. Claussenius, Sec.

Garfield Post, No. 3, G. A. R.—Members of Garfield Post No. 3 will assemble at Grand Army Hall at 9 o'clock A. M. to-day for parade.
T. E. CLAPP, Commander.
R. M. McMaster, Adjutant.

Portland Volunteer Firemen's Association will meet at their hall this day at 9 A. M., in full uniform, for parade. By order J. J. MEAGHER, President.

U. R. K. P.—Sir Knights of Willamette Division, No. 2, U. R. K. P., are requested by Calanthe Lodge, No. 21, to assemble at their Castle Hall, Albina, (in full uniform,) on Thursday evening, July 5, at 8 o'clock, to participate in the ceremonies of public installation of lodge officers.
WARD S. STEVENS, S. R. C.

Board by meal, day, week, month, and check. Rider's MAGNOLIA, Holton House.

R. H. SCHWAB & BRO., Leading Printers. LOWEST PRICES. 5 WASHINGTON ST.

DIED.

In this city, Monday, at 10 P. M., at Good Samaritan hospital, Charles L. Henry, aged 58 years.
Mr. Henry was born in Kerri Muir, Dundee, Scotland.
Dundee papers please copy.

In this city, July 2, Mary E. Martin, aged 45 years, wife of Hugh Martin.
Funeral from Cathedral at 9 A. M. July 4. Friends invited to attend.
New York papers please copy.

NEW TO-DAY.

H. H. HILDEBRAND.
Prescription Druggist, 3d and Morrison. Telephone 406. Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

S. HARRIS & CO'S ARE BEST. 49 First street.

SIMMONS' RESTAURANT
32 Stark street. First-class Dinners, Clam Chowder Fridays, and anything you wish cooked to order.

DR. HELENA J. PRICE,
Physician and Surgeon. Rooms 22 and 24, First Floor, Abington Block. Office hours: Until 10 A. M., 2 to 5 P. M., 7 to 8:30 P. M.

NOTICE—All persons indebted to the late firm of Collinson & Abpel are requested to settle their accounts at store, southwest corner Third and Morrison streets.

FRANKLIN BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.
NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.—THE FIRST Wednesday in July coming on the 4th of said month, the regular monthly meeting for loaning money will be held on Thursday evening, July 5th, at the usual hour, at which meeting the proposed amendments to by-laws will be acted upon. Bids, etc., will be received until 9 o'clock P. M. of said day.
J. T. STEWART, Sec'y.

GRIMES HOUSE,
CLATSOP BEACH.
This Hotel is the Largest on the Coast.
Accommodations good. The coach meets all boats at the landing.
G. E. GRIMES.

W. J. HONEYMAN,
28 OAK STREET, PORTLAND, OR.
Importer of
GILL NETS, SEINES, TRAPS, FLAX & COTTON TWINES, ETC.

FOR SALE.
150 Fine Brood Mares.
Will be in Arlington, July 5 & 6. This is a rare opportunity to secure 1200 to 1400-pound Blood Mares, with Colts, at a very low price.
COFFIN & McFARLAND, Arlington, Or.

NEW TO-DAY.

RAILROAD MEN WANTED—FOR STATION WORK ON THE BRANCH LINES of the O. R. & N. Co. The work is both rock and dirt work, and building through good country to railroad is also wanted men to work by the day. Board is also wanted men to work by the day. Board is also wanted men to work by the day. Board

IN AND ABOUT PORTLAND.

TO-DAY'S EXERCISES.

10 A. M.—Grand parade; Route of march—First from Salmon to B; to First; to Montgomery; to West Park; to Main; to Fifth; to Taylor; to Fourth; to courthouse.

12 noon.—Orations and music at courthouse plaza. In case of rain, at the Armory, corner North Ninth and C.

1:30 P. M.—Baseball match, Clinton & McCoy's grounds, East Portland.

3 P. M.—Dress parade and battalion drill at Riverside (White House). Take steamers or train.

7 P. M.—Pyrotype performance at postoffice.

9:30 P. M.—Fireworks, Eleventh and Montgomery.

BISHOP SCOTT ACADEMY.—This institution has taken a wonderful stride forward during the past year. The addition of its military department, under an excellent instructor, places it on an equal footing with the best educational institutions of the Pacific coast. Upon leaving its halls a student is well equipped for all business affairs of life; or if he wishes a higher education, he is fitted for entering the best colleges of our land. The best and most comprehensive catalogue ever issued by any institution on this coast is now being sent out to the public. No expense has been spared in its preparation. It is a most worthy herald of a most worthy school. It is illustrated with three beautiful engravings—first, the academic structure, with adjoining buildings and campus; second, the pupils in different military positions on the parade ground, really three engravings in one; and third, the interior of the armory. Every parent ought, before placing his boy at school, to advise himself of the merits of Bishop Scott Academy, under the able management of Dr. J. W. Hill and his able corps of instructors. Especial attention is given to the moral and physical as well as the mental development of youth, and hence under the influence of this academy a boy will certainly become a capable, healthful, useful man.

NEW TRIAL TO A MURDERER.—The supreme court has granted a new trial to Chung Ling, one of the three Chinamen convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of Lee Yick, November 6, 1887. The case came up on a bill of exceptions. After Chung Ling's trial in Judge Stearns's court a bill of exceptions was not filed during the term in which the case was tried, nor in the time for which an extension was granted. When C. E. S. Wood, who took charge of Chung Ling's case, asked for a bill Judge Stearns thought he had no jurisdiction in the matter because the bill had not been asked in the proper time. Mr. Wood took the view that it was a rule of practice, not a principle of jurisdiction, and was still within the discretion of the court to sign the bill, provided the facts in the case were in the memory of the court. The supreme court seems to have taken the same view.

RETURNED TO THE 'FO' CASTLE.—The five Japanese sailors, belonging to the bark Kitty who were enticed ashore, and who, when arrested, did not want to go back to the vessel, and so went to jail, have experienced a change of mind. Jail life proved rather tiresome, and when they learned what a jolly time their shipmates were having, with rations of bees served out while they were unloading lots of fresh fruit and fresh eggs and all that sort of thing, they sent a letter to Capt. Laird asking him to take them back. So yesterday they were arraigned in the United States court on a charge of desertion and sentenced to imprisonment till the 24th inst., and a fine of $5, with the provision that they should be released at any time at request of Capt. Laird. He took them back to the vessel with him, and they were as happy as sand boys.

TO BASEBALL GROUND AND BATTALION DRILL.—To-day the commodious steamer City of Salem will run from foot of Yamhill street to Clinton & McCoy's baseball grounds every fifteen minutes between 12 noon and 1:30 P. M. At 3 P. M. she leaves Yamhill street for the battalion drill at the White house. At 4 P. M., the close of the game, she leaves the baseball ground, returns to Portland and then makes another trip to the White house, thus giving the baseballers a chance to see the battalion drill, after which she returns to Portland. As she will be unencumbered with a barge, she will be the fastest boat running. Round trip only 10 cents.

NEARLY READY.—A locomotive was run out on the finished span of the railroad bridge yesterday to see if the track was all right, but no attempt was made to cross as the draw was kept moving around in order that Engineer Ledcrle and his assistants might ascertain the difference in level between the ends of the draw and the ends of the bridge, so that the slight alterations necessary can be made to allow of the draw fitting whichever way it is turned. The differences in level were found to be very slight. Mr. Warrenton, who has superintended putting in the machinery for turning the draw, left for the East yesterday.

DRUNKEN BOYS.—Last evening Officer Morgan found three boys, named Edward Lowery, Frank Johnson and — Buckley, in the vicinity of Third and Salmon streets very much intoxicated. He brought two down to the city jail and returning took the third and put to the lockup. These lads range in years from fifteen to eighteen. They did not see proper to divulge the place where they obtained the intoxicants, but the officer making the arrest says he has a very strong suspicion where the boys got the liquor, and he will make strong effort to trace the matter down, and bring the offenders to punishment.

LOTS OF SMALL FIREWORKS.—The amount of firecrackers and bombs exploded in the streets last night was larger than ever before on the eve of the Fourth. A most terrific bombardment was kept up on First street and cross-streets near till after midnight. The ground in places was deep with red paper and bamboo. There was a great deal of money lavished displayed in throwing firecrackers into crowds of people, and it is wonderful that no one was hurt. Two large bombs were exploded on the sidewalk in front of the Pantheon saloon, shattering twelve squares of the decorated glass. This is the only accident so far as heard from up to midnight.

SPECIAL DISPATCHERS.—Alive to the demand for news Mr. Joe D. Meyer had Jacobs the carpenter construct a bulletin board of unique design, the "monogram" being especially a good piece of work. Messrs. Berger & Waddell, the well-known painters, placed the names of THE OREGONIAN and Telegram, designed from the headings, on the board which surmounts the bulletin, in gold letters, while the card of Meyer appears on a blue ground. The entire arrangement is unique and will certainly attract attention aside from the object for which it is intended.

FOR DIVORCE.—Elsing G. Trowbridge began suit in the state circuit court yesterday against her husband, Charles R. Trowbridge, for a decree of divorce. They were married in Pekin, Illinois, February 29, 1872. The plaintiff alleges that on the 16th day of November, 1886, her husband abandoned her, and so continues to do. The issue of the marriage is one child, Anna May, 12 years of age, the control of which the plaintiff asks for; and she also prays for permission to resume her maiden name, Andrews.

ADDITION TO THE CITY.—A plat of Lent's addition to the city of Portland was filed with Recorder Dudley yesterday. The addition contains about fifty lots, 50x100 each, and is situated on Portland Heights. The initial point of the addition is an iron stake in the center of the Terrace county road, 5.46 chains east and 20.16 chains north of the corner of sections 4, 5, 8 and 9, in Twp. 1 S, R 1 E, of the Willamette meridian. The boulevard road runs across the center of the tract.

THROUGH CARS TO THE FIREWORKS.—After 6 o'clock this evening and continuing until after the fireworks display is over, the Multnomah Street Car Company will make Eleventh street through line. That is to say, cars leaving First and Washington streets and cars leaving the end of B street, will run through to Eleventh and Montgomery, and passengers will not have to change at Eleventh street, coming or going.

ANNIE WRIGHT SEMINARY.—In to-day's issue the Annie Wright Seminary advertises the time of opening in September. It closed a most successful year in June. A number of teachers will be added to the faculty and an opportunity given to learn the violin as well as the piano and guitar. German will be taught by a lady from North Germany. Early application should be made, as the school is likely to be full.

RAILROAD REPORTS.—The state railroad commissioners are engaged at present in preparing a comparative statement of freight and passenger charges on Oregon railroads and leading railroads in other Western states. This statement will be included in the annual reports to be submitted by the commissioners in September, and all this railroad information will be presented to the legislature at its next session.

CONVENT TO BE BLESSED.—Next Sunday, July 8, at 10 o'clock A. M., his grace, Archbishop Gross, will bless the new, beautiful convent of the Benedictine Sisters, at Mt. Angel. It will be a grand celebration, and no doubt the able speaker and celebrated orator, Archbishop Gross, will deliver a most interesting sermon. Everyone is invited. Service commences at the Sisters' convent at 10 A. M.

THE GETTYSBURG PAINTING.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the great battle of Gettysburg. No more appropriate time can be selected for visiting the celebrated painting of the battle. For the benefit of visitors it may be stated that the cyclorama building is on Third street, near Pine, and is open all day and up to 10 in the evening. One hour is as good as another to view it.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY.—One hundred elegantly finished modern designed dwellings varying in value from $1000 to $5000 each, are to be given away with the Fulton Park property, November 15, 1888. The owners of this beautiful tract are all well-known business men of Portland, and can be relied upon to carry out the enterprise just as advertised.

LEAVE YOUR STOOLS AT HOME.—Parties attending the fireworks will find comfortable seats on the grand stand.

THE STAGE.

"A DARK SECRET."—This famous melodrama with which Lewis Morrison opens his season at the New Park theatre on Monday night next possesses at least the merit of genuine originality, and nothing that has been seen on the American stage can approach it for realism. The two great scenes of the play, land indeed they are the almost scenes of the play, land indeed they are the almost (illegible) are the Stanley regatta scenes and the old

[illegible] Agency

[illegible]

We still have full lines of Light Summer Suits in the most desirable patterns, and at the LOWEST PRICES ever offered in the Northwest for reliable all-wool goods.

An unequaled selection of [illegible]

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

Pongee, Alpaca, Mohair and Seersucker Coats, with and without Vests; Linen and Mohair Dusters, White and Fancy Vests; large lines of Elegant Neckwear at 50c. Summer Underwear & Straw Hats marked 'way down. We will not carry them over, if prices have anything to do with it.

If you are going to the coast it will pay you to examine our [illegible] Suits Before purchasing elsewhere.

[illegible]

The Leading Clothier, Merchant Tailor and Hatter of the Northwest,

185 FIRST STREET, COR. ALDER.

church at Henley, England. Both localities belong on the river Thames, this historic stream is shown to the audience through the medium of an immense body of real water, covering the stage to the extent of 3000 feet and containing 22,500 gallons. On the surface of this river are floated genuine steamboats, pleasure boats, racing shells, water fowl, etc., and the living exemplification of the rescue of a drowning woman is an unusually exciting reproduction.

The company presenting "A Dark Secret" is the same that had so successful a run at the California theatre, San Francisco, and includes besides Mr. Morrison, Misses Annie Mayor, Rosabel Morrison, Florence Roberts, Messrs. Arthur Branscombe, Albert Horner, Scott Cooper, Robert C. Vernon, James R. Fox, Frederick Belasco and John C. Miller.

NEW PARK THEATRE.—A fine house greeted T. J. Farron in his musical absurdity "Soap Bubble" last evening, and the many hearty laughs that greeted the performance testified to the appreciation with which the audience received the entertainment. Mr. Farron delighted the audience with his admirable singing, and particularly his most artistic rendering of "Lena, the Strawberry Girl." Seeing him in this line bit of characterization one can easily understand how, in conjunction with Baker in "Chris and Lena," he achieved such a brilliant success.

"Soap Bubble," beyond doubt, is the most amusing olla-podrida of nonsensical absurdities that was ever put before a Portland audience; and if it does not fill the house nightly, something must ail the comical susceptibilities of our people.

"Soap Bubble" for the remainder of the week, and at the special matinee to-day.

LOCAL NOTES.

License to wed was yesterday issued to C. A. Somers and Catherine Oliver.

The city council will meet at 9:30 this morning, to take part in the parade.

No freight will be received by the O. R. & N. Co. at Ainsworth or Ash-street wharves to-day.

W. D. Campbell, a native of Great Britain, was admitted to citizenship in the state court yesterday.

Coffin & McFarland, of Arlington, Oregon, advertise in to-day's issue 150 fine brood mares for sale.

The general delivery and carriers' window at the postoffice will be open from 11 A. M. till noon to-day.

Two boys found a satchel containing money, which the owner can have by calling at the police station.

The Davison Bros. will repeat their performance at the Mechanics' pavilion this afternoon and evening.

The steamer Alliance will sail for Gray's harbor and Shoalwater bay next Saturday. She will take a full load of freight and several passengers.

Fleckenstein & Mayer commenced suit yesterday in the state circuit against Louis Strasser and Wm. R. Jackson, to collect a note for $400, with interest and costs, amounting in all to $795.

The New Park matinee will commence at 1:45 P. M. to-day and will close in time for the drill at 4, and to-night's performance will begin at 7:45, which will give all an opportunity to see the fireworks.

Dr. John D. Hall of Port Townsend, writes, relative to the poem published elsewhere in this issue: "I have thought it might strike the fancy of some musician who would be able to put it to music." Will not some Portlander invoke the muse and thus complete Dr. Hall's work.

Mr. J. H. Anderson, postoffice inspector, who recently went East in charge of the remains of Chief Inspector Mason, yesterday received a letter announcing the death of Mr. Mason's mother. She was a venerable old lady, a cousin of Gen. Robert E. Lee, and died from grief at the loss of her only son.

A 3-year-old boy named McCullough, who lives about one mile west of the city, wandered away from home early yesterday afternoon and was found by the police among the crowd on the bridge watching the aquatic sports. He was taken to the police station, but managed to get away, and was recaptured. About 6 o'clock the father of the itinerant younster called at the jail and escorted him home.

For beauty, for comfort, for improvement of the complexion, use only Pozzoni's Powder; there is nothing equal to it.

Mr. B. H. Smedaker, of San Jose, Cal., is in the city, and has with him the "Oregon Wonder," or, large-haired horse, which he will exhibit to-day on Third street, near Yamhill. No one should fail to visit the place and witness the most beautiful specimen of horse ever seen in this country.

PERSONAL.

Mr. C. E. S. Wood returned from San Francisco Monday.

Hon. Robert A. Miller, member of the legislature, from Jackson county, is in the city.

Mr. Paul Richter, of Gundlach & Co., New York and San Francisco, is again in the city, where he has many old friends.

Mr. Wm. Deacon, wife and son, returned to San Francisco on the Columbia after a brief stay with Mrs. R. Weeks. Mrs. Deacon is a former school mate of Mrs. Weeks.

George N. Wolfe, who has been for several years bookkeeper for the firm of O. C. Gove & Co., of this city, is now lying very low of malarial fever at the residence of his father, Rev. J. T. Wolfe, in the city of Corvallis.

Mr. W. S. Baldwin, Pacific Coast agent for the Vanderbilt system of railways, will arrive in Portland about July 9, and will inspect this portion of his territory in company with the resident representative, Mr. Carlton Crane.

Miss Rena M. Poe of Lewiston, Idaho, who has been finishing her studies in music in the New England conservatory of Boston, for the past year, arrived yesterday morning and is now visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Morrison.

Mr. J. H. Palme, director of the Garanti bank of Stockholm, Sweden, and wife are at the Gilman house. Mr. Palme is traveling for pleasure and is greatly pleased with Portland. He will go from here to the Sound, thence to Yellowstone park.

Mayor DeLashmutt says he greatly enjoyed his late visit to Salt Lake City, it being the first time he has seen the place since he left there twenty-four years ago. He says the city has improved greatly by the substitution of brick buildings for wooden ones, but has not grown so much as he expected. The great amusement of the citizens is going out eighteen miles to Garfield beach to bathe. A railroad runs out there. Fare four bits for the round trip, and everybody and his sisters and his cousins and his aunts and all the rest of his relatives go out and swim in the lake, for they cannot sink, there being 26 per cent of salt in the water.

A sound mind goes very seldom without a sound digestion, and nothing contributes toward it more than the use of Angostura Bitters, the world renowned appetizer and invigorator, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

$2.25. [illegible]

SPECIAL SALE

—OF—

BOYS' UNION CASSIMERE SUITS

Ages 5 to 12 years, nicely pleated and corded, in five different patterns; all new, sold to regular sale at $4 per suit.

WE OFFER THEM NOW

At $2.25 per suit.

Also, 1000 Boys' Suits, Elegant New Styles, ranging in price from $3.50 to $7.50 per suit.

GREAT [illegible]

—OF—

SPRING & SUMMER

CLOTHING

OUR MAMMOTH STOCK OF MEN'S, YOUTHS' & BOYS' CLOTHING AT MANUFACTURERS' COST, TO CLOSE.

FOR TEN DOLLARS!

$10.00—24 styles of Men's Leading American Cheviot & Tweed Suits, well made and trimmed. We put them against any $15 Suit in this market.

THIRTEEN FIFTY!

$13.50—Your choice of six hundred Men's Suits in Fine Cheviots and Cassimeres, all at the above popular price.

—ALSO—

A Special Cut in Prices for our Fine Dress Suits.

[illegible]

First, Second and Taylor Sts.

[illegible] BROS.

LIVERY & HACK STABLE,

Third and Madison.

Hacks for riding, per hour.....$1 00
Calling, first hour.....1 50
Each additional hour.....1 00

Theaters and Parties:

One or two persons, to and from.....$2 00
Three or four persons, to and from.....3 00

No charge for baggage that can be taken on backs.

Two-Horse Coupes:

Riding and Calling, per hour.....$1 00
To and from Theater and Parties, per couple.....1 50

TELEPHONE 933.

A RUSH FOR FANS.

The Weather Was Cool, But the Fans Did Not Cost Anything.

A reporter coming down First street last evening noticed that nearly every man, woman and child he met carried a fan and some two or three. There seemed to be no indications of a heated term in the near future, and it was puzzling to imagine why so many people had invested in so many fans so simultaneously. At last a small boy came along with four fans, and in an agitated manner informed a chum who hailed him that they were giving away fans by the thousand at the office of the Burlington Route.

On reaching that place a strange sight was witnessed. The sidewalk was crowded with people who were stretching out their arms toward a man who stood on a chair in the door of the office handing fans as fast as he could. The eagerness displayed by the crowd one would have supposed the fans were worth a million dollars. Some boys had three or four fans in one hand and were reaching for more, and would have taken a hundred if they could have carried them. The chief of police and one of his officers were on hand to preserve order, but everybody was jolly and good-natured, and thought of nothing but getting another fan. Two thousand were given away in no time and there were a number of cases of these useful articles in the office still unopened when the distributor ceased. The crowd and the excitement are another illustration of how anxious people are to get something for nothing.

PERSONAL.

Mr. C. E. S. Wood returned from San Francisco Monday.

Hon. Robert A. Miller, member of the legislature, from Jackson county, is in the city.

Mr. Paul Richter, of Gundlach & Co., New York and San Francisco, is again in the city, where he has many old friends.

Mr. Wm. Deacon, wife and son, returned to San Francisco on the Columbia after a brief stay with Mrs. R. Weeks. Mrs. Deacon is a former school mate of Mrs. Weeks.

George N. Wolfe, who has been for several years bookkeeper for the firm of O. C. Gove & Co., of this city, is now lying very low of malarial fever at the residence of his father, Rev. J. T. Wolfe, in the city of Corvallis.

Mr. W. S. Baldwin, Pacific Coast agent for the Vanderbilt system of railways, will arrive in Portland about July 9, and will inspect this portion of his territory in company with the resident representative, Mr. Carlton Crane.

Miss Rena M. Poe of Lewiston, Idaho, who has been finishing her studies in music in the New England conservatory of Boston, for the past year, arrived yesterday morning and is now visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Morrison.

Mr. J. H. Palme, director of the Garanti bank of Stockholm, Sweden, and wife are at the Gilman house. Mr. Palme is traveling for pleasure and is greatly pleased with Portland. He will go from here to the Sound, thence to Yellowstone park.

Mayor DeLashmutt says he greatly enjoyed his late visit to Salt Lake City, it being the first time he has seen the place since he left there twenty-four years ago. He says the city has improved greatly by the substitution of brick buildings for wooden ones, but has not grown so much as he expected. The great amusement of the citizens is going out eighteen miles to Garfield beach to bathe. A railroad runs out there. Fare four bits for the round trip, and everybody and his sisters and his cousins and his aunts and all the rest of his relatives go out and swim in the lake, for they cannot sink, there being 26 per cent of salt in the water.

A sound mind goes very seldom without a sound digestion, and nothing contributes toward it more than the use of Angostura Bitters, the world renowned appetizer and invigorator, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

[illegible] Fourth of July Week.

In order that our out-of-town friends, visiting Portland during Fourth of July week, may have a clear idea of the lines of goods we carry in stock, we give a short synopsis of each of our departments. You are cordially invited to visit our establishment, examine our stock, note our prices, and make yourself acquainted with our manner of doing business.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.
Trimmed Hats and Bonnets.
Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets.
Flowers and Wreaths.
Plumes and Tips.
Ribbons and Ornaments.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.
Silks and Satins.
Plushes and Velvets.
Foreign Dress Goods.
American Dress Goods.
Parasols and Sun-Shades.

FANCY GOODS DEPARTMENT.
Ribbons and Gloves.
Collars and Cuffs.
Ruching and Neckwear.
Laces and Embroideries.
Braids and Trimmings.
Buttons and Dress Furnishings.
Hosiery and Underwear.
Jerseys and Corsets.
Shawls and Scarfs.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.
Upholstering Goods.
House-Furnishing Goods.
Sheeting and Muslin.
Prints and Shirtings.
Chambrays and Ginghams.
Seersuckers and Satins.
Cloths and Suitings.
Flannels and Blankets.
Table Linens and Towels.

BOOT & SHOE DEPARTMENT.
Ladies' Shoes and Slippers.
Misses' Shoes and Slippers.
Children's Shoes and Slippers.
Men's Boots and Shoes.
Boys' Boots and Shoes.
Men's and Boys' Slippers.

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.
Men's Dress Suits.
Men's Frock and Sack Suits.
Youths' Frock and Sack Suits.
Boys' Suits.
Children's School Suits.
Underwear and Furnishing Goods.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT.
A full line of Staple and Fancy Groceries.

[illegible] Clothiers' Store,
200, 202, 204, 206 First Street.

A. FELDENHEIMER

—THE—

LEADING JEWELER

Cor. First and Morrison Sts., Portland.

Diamonds Clocks
Watches Bronzes
Silverware Optical Goods

Reasonable rates. Country orders solicited.

BECK, THE JEWELER,

Front and Morrison.

Opposite Esmond and St. Charles Hotels.

Headquarters for All American Watches.

UNREDEEMED PLEDGES!

FOR SALE, consisting of Gold and Silver Americus Watches, Diamonds, Guns, Pistols and Musical Instruments. UNCLE M. LYONS, the Great Oregon Money Lender, 163 First st. Private entrance north hallway.

Portland Mechanics' Fair

OPENS OCT. 4th, CLOSES OCT. 27, 1888.

EXHIBITORS ARE INVITED for the Tenth Annual Fair of the Portland Mechanics' Fair Association. Improvements now being made will insure ample space for exhibits and accommodations for visitors. No expense will be spared to make the coming Fair superior to any given by the Association.

Applications for space can be made to

A. S. WHITING, Sup't. Office 142 First St.

A HOUSEHOLD WORD.

That what cannot be found at the pharmacy of W. M. WISDOM & CO.,

At the Corner of First and Stark Streets,

In the way of

FINE PERFUMES, ELEGANT TOILET SOAPS, FANCY GOODS, DRUGGISTS' SUNDRIES, and 1001 things that enter into the necessities and luxuries of every household.

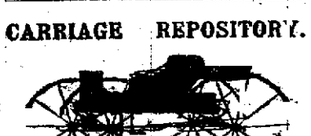
"Why it's no use inquiring elsewhere in Portland." Furthermore, they enjoy the reputation of always promptly carrying on short notice any special article their customers want. 27 e

CARRIAGE REPOSITORY.



FRANK BROS. IMPLEMENT CO.

68 and 70 Front St., Portland, Or.

A complete line of Carriages, Cabriolets, Phaetons, Top and Open Buggies, Carts, Spring Wagons, Surreys, Harness and Horse Goods. Also a Full Line of Farm, Dairy and Mill Machinery.

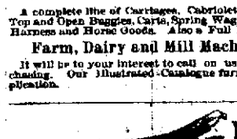
It will be to your interest to call on us before purchasing. Our Illustrated Catalogue furnished on application.



H. B. LITT

Manufacturer of Ladies' All-Wool and Silk Dresses and Wraps, corner 2d and Adler. P. O. Box 367, Paris office 20 22 Rue Richer

Teeth $10 & $15 per Set.

No Pain—No Bad Effects.

Breathe vitalized air for painless extraction of teeth. Filling from $1 00 upward. DR. CHAS. T. PREHN, Dentist, Esmond Block, First street entrance.

DR. F. W. PREHN,

Graduate of Philadelphia Dental College. Vitalized Air Administered.

Rooms 34, Esmond Block. Entrance from Stark street.

E. C. Geiger, M. D., [illegible] Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE—For the Next 30 Days,

[illegible]

5 Lots on M street } Between 22d and 23d streets.
7 Lots on N street }
3 Lots on O street }

3 Lots on M street }
3 Lots on N street } Between 23d and 24th streets.
4 Lots on O street }
4 Lots on P street }
4 Lots on Q street }
4 Lots on R street }

5 Lots on S street } Between 24th and 25th streets.
5 Lots on T street }

Size of each Lot 50x100.
Warranty Deeds given.
Street cars will run to the Addition in a short time.
Terms—One-fifth cash, balance on one, two, three and four years, with 7 per cent. interest.
Special inducements offered to parties who will build this year.
Now is the time to secure a beautiful home in the choicest residence locality of Portland, at a low price and on easy terms.

B. GOLDSMITH, Agent,
324 1/2 First Street, Portland.

[illegible]

Oregon Iron & Steel Co's First Addition.

Lots and Blocks for Sale on the Installment Plan.

For further particulars apply to

CARDWELL & LIPPINCOTT,
Custom-House and Real Estate Brokers.
Suite 26½ Morrison street.

CHOICE PROPERTY.

8-room hard-finished Cottage, S street, between 22d and 23d streets, $2500.
8-room two-story House, Sixth street, between Columbia and Clay, $3500.
8-room 2-story House, H st., near 21st, $3100.
10 acres (in timothy) on Sandy road, one mile from East Portland.
5 acres, house and barn, Base Line road, 1¼ miles from East Portland.
Several acre tracts on Hawthorn avenue.
Choice business and residence property in city.
Lots, half blocks and blocks in East Portland, Albina, Southern Portland, and outlying additions.
Also a number of fine farms in the Willamette Valley. For sale by

HOWARD & FLOWER,
(Elm) 130 Second St., Labbe Building.

ABEND'S ADDITION TO ALBINA.

I AM AUTHORIZED TO SELL A LIMITED number of lots in this, the most beautiful and sightly tract in or about Albina. There is nothing that will compare with them in the Albina market. Prices from $250 to $600. Terms, one-third cash, balance at 8 per cent. Unobstructed view of Portland, Albina and the river. They are four blocks east of Terminal Company shops and two blocks north of Russell street. Call on or address

2816 JOHN M. FITTINGER, Albina, Or.

M. A. GUEST & CO., Sole Agents,
125 First St., Portland, Or.

[illegible] 1888.

EVERYTHING FOR

[illegible] of Private Use

—AT THE—

GOLDEN RULE BAZAR

Fire Crackers, Fireworks, Flags, Banners, Lanterns, Pistols, Cannon, Paper Caps, Etc., Etc.,

WHOLESALE and RETAIL.

4th of July!

GOLDEN RULE BAZAR

133-135 FIRST STREET, Between Yamhill and Taylor Sts.

COHEN, DAVIS & CO.

[illegible]

Receive Strict & Prompt Attention

—AT—

[illegible]

The Clothiers & Hatters.

We keep constantly on hand the Largest and Best Selected Stock of

Men's, Boys' and Children's [illegible]

HATS AND FURNISHING GOODS,

ETC., ETC.

We have just received, per express, direct from New York, a shipment of

72 Men's Suits

Suitable for the present season. They are nobby, handsome and stylish.

We keep constantly on hand a full line of Domestic Dress Suits.

1, 3 and 4-button Cutaways, Prince Alberts and full Dress Suits for evening wear.

Our BOYS' CLOTHING SALE will be continued during this month.

A. B. STEINBACH & CO.

Cor. First and Morrison.

[illegible] BAM,

BAG TWINES,

TENTS, FLAGS, AWNINGS, Etc.

HOP CLOTH,

OILED AND RUBBER CLOTHING.

AMES & DETRICK,

125 FRONT STREET, PORTLAND, OR.

40 SCOTCH COLLIE PUPPIES, bred from my kennel of 8 brought from Scotland, are winners of many prizes, gold medals and silver cups; pedigrees registered in "Kennel Club Stud Book;" nothing sells like them in this country; for stockmen or sportsmen they are indispensable; for beauty, as house or watch dog, they have no equals; ship any distance; circulars free. C. NAIRN, Ballston, Polk Co., Or. (2d)(3m)

JOHN BARRETT,

DEALER IN

Plumbers' Gas and Steam Fitters' Supplies.

MANTLES, GRATES, ETC.,

HAS REMOVED

To No. 89 FIRST STREET.

MILLINERY!

LATEST SPRING STYLES.

MRS. J. HANOVER, 125 Third St.

Call and see our Stock. Complete and at Lowest Prices. 29it

THIEL'S DETECTIVE SERVICE.

Established 1873.

G. H. THIEL, Proprietor.

General Detective Business Transacted for Corporations and Individuals.

ST. LOUIS—709 and 711 Olive street.
NEW YORK—49 and 51 Nassau street.
ST. PAUL—German American Bank Building.
DENVER—Tabor Block.
PORTLAND—Office Rooms 11, 12, 13, 14, Labbe Block.

2m3m M. C. SULLIVAN, Manager.

Dr. E. C. Brown, Disease of the Eye, Ear, No. 189 First St.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

YESTERDAY'S AMUSEMENTS.

The Public Well Entertained During the Day and Evening.

Scenes on the River—Tight Rope Performance—Beautiful Bicycle Parade—Night Contest—Immense Crowds.

Portland's fourth of July festivities began yesterday. A sharp shower in the early morning made the prospect for good weather exceedingly dubious, but the day proved very pleasant indeed, though cloudy most of the time. Along First and other streets people were busy decking their stores and houses with flags, bunting and evergreens.

AQUATIC SPORTS.

The first event was the sailing race, which took place in the morning. A good 10 to 12-mile breeze was blowing, and the boats lost no time in getting into position. The entries were:

Tip Top, 19 ft. 6 in.; R. Birrs.
Jessamie, 17 ft. 10 in.; Lewis Johnson.
Paragon, 17 ft. 10 in.; L. J. Cady.
Idol Wave, 19 ft.; W. E. Wood.
Unknown, 20 ft. 5 in.; H. E. Pattee.
Ripple, 25 ft.; J. Ellis.
Fairy Austin (handicapped), 20 ft. 8 in.; F. A. Kerry.

The course was from the Columbia boat house to the Morrison street bridge, thence south one mile and a half to buoy, back and around first buoy, walk south to second buoy, and return to an imaginary line between boat house and steam mill smoke stack on east side of river. The distance was six miles.

At 10:40 the Tip Top was started, and eighteen seconds later the Jessamie followed. Pastime bowed out the Tip Top in the first fifty seconds, and the Paragon in eighty seconds. At the first buoy the Jessamie was one minute and a half, and 1 per cent for minutes and fifty seconds, or the Pastime five minutes afterward. The Tip Top, Paragon and Pastime kept well together for awhile, and then passing Clinton Kelly's lookout stopped the latter, whose sail was tied fast. Being close to shore at the time, those on board escaped with only a ducking. Then the Unknown, which had come in the meantime decreasing the distance between herself and the leaders, crossed to the front, her great white wings seeming to catch every breath of air. Morrison street bridge, the second buoy, was reached by the Tip Top at 11:05:30, with the Paragon 1:30 behind. The Pastime was 2:30 behind the Paragon, and the Unknown 3:30 behind the Pastime. The Austin and Ripple had passed the second buoy the first time, and were bringing up the rear. The Austin, which had been leaking badly, was run ashore and abandoned, and walked away from the Paragon and Tip Top, which had passed her and continued on the race. The accident gave the Unknown new relief. The Paragon crossed the line first, Tip Top second, Pastime third, Unknown fourth, Ripple fifth, Idol Wave sixth, Fairy Austin seventh. The Unknown, which had been sailing under a protest, was awarded second money, $5, Rankin getting first prize, $10. Oliver came in third. He sat down on his log, and paddled it to the end. The judges were Messrs. Wm. Gee, E. Watkins and W. M. Killingsworth.

No one appearing to take part in the tub race the judges declared it off, and made an effort to get up a swimming race instead. One or two young men agreed to enter, but another young man having a very young mustache put a damper on the scheme by declaring that the water was too cold.

CANOE RACE.

More interest was centered in the canoe race than any other contest of the day. At 2 o'clock the canoes began to assemble near the bridge, and after a few practice spurts their occupants ranged themselves in line. John Gill, Gerald Robertson and Capt. Jenky acted as judges. The entries were:

Contestant.	Canoe.	Color.
S. J. Bretherton	Dot	Black and orange
C. P. Bryant	Tot	Blue
A. Barr	Gertie	Blue and white
F. Byrnes	Sprite	White with butterfly
Edward Casey	Bird	Red and white
W. E. Potter	Allie B	White and blue
H. Potter	Kid	White
C. D. Jarvis	Bottle	Pink
L. Masson	Dude	Maroon

The distance was one mile with a turn, from Morrison street bridge to individual buoys one half mile south and return. First prize, gold medal; second and third prizes, gold badges.

The Dude was the first off and received the word at 4:25, followed by the Gertie, five seconds later. Five seconds after the Dude started the Sprite, Kid and Tot were sent out in a bunch, and three seconds after them the Robt. Boy, Allie and Dot hit the bridge; the Bird was the last to go, being twenty seconds behind the first. Masson maintained his lead and won easily, Bretherton, second; Potter, third, Bryant and Potter tying for fourth place. The official time was as follows: Dude 12:48, Dot 13:10, Kid 13:37, Tot 13:47, Bird 14:08, Allie B 14:25, Boy 14:26, Bat 15:06, Sprite 15:10, Gertie 14:10.

IN THE AFTERNOON.

A few stray clouds somewhere period the meteorological monotony in the afternoon, and long before 2 o'clock people were wending their points along the water front where it opened up into the river. Thousands of ladies were among the sight-seers. A great crowd was on Morrison street bridge, the south stand of which was filled from the Portland end half way across the river. Whenever it was necessary to swing the pontoon draw the great crowd on it was forced back to the other piers. When the draw was again closed the people on the piers would make a rush for good points of view.

The 4th of June race announced for 2 o'clock did not take place, as there were no entries. But few people knew this, and the crowd waited in ignorance for the next thing on the programme, the log race.

LOG RACE.

There were three entries in the log race, Guy Rankin, C. M. Oliver and E. Oliver. Shortly after 2 o'clock the start was made from Madison street. Rankin took the lead immediately and paddled a steady stroke to the finish. He acted like a veteran in the business and was in perfect command of his clunky "craft," which did not seem even to roll. C. M. Oliver paddled a somewhat unsteady stroke and came in three lengths behind Rankin, and was awarded second money, $5, Rankin getting first prize, $10. E. Oliver came in third. He sat down on his log, and paddled it to the end. The judges were Messrs. Gee, E. Watkins and W. M. Killingsworth.

No one appearing to take part in the tub race the judges declared it off, and made an effort to get up a swimming race instead. One or two young men agreed to enter, but another young man having a very young mustache put a damper on the scheme by declaring that the water was too cold.

CANOE RACE.

More interest was centered in the canoe race than any other contest of the day. At 2 o'clock the canoes began to assemble near the bridge, and after a few practice spurts their occupants ranged themselves in line. John Gill, Gerald Robertson and Capt. Jenky acted as judges. The entries were:

Contestant.	Canoe.	Color.
S. J. Bretherton	Dot	Black and orange
C. P. Bryant	Tot	Blue
A. Barr	Gertie	Blue and white
F. Byrnes	Sprite	White with butterfly
Edward Casey	Bird	Red and white
W. E. Potter	Allie B	White and blue
H. Potter	Kid	White
C. D. Jarvis	Bottle	Pink
L. Masson	Dude	Maroon

The distance was one mile with a turn, from Morrison street bridge to individual buoys one half mile south and return. First prize, gold medal; second and third prizes, gold badges.

The Dude was the first off and received the word at 4:25, followed by the Gertie, five seconds later. Five seconds after the Dude started the Sprite, Kid and Tot were sent out in a bunch, and three seconds after them the Robt. Boy, Allie and Dot hit the bridge; the Bird was the last to go, being twenty seconds behind the first. Masson maintained his lead and won easily, Bretherton, second; Potter, third, Bryant and Potter tying for fourth place. The official time was as follows: Dude 12:48, Dot 13:10, Kid 13:37, Tot 13:47, Bird 14:08, Allie B 14:25, Boy 14:26, Bat 15:06, Sprite 15:10, Gertie 14:10.

IN THE EVENING.

PYROTECHNICS.

Fireworks began to be sold the crowd began to congregate about the corner of Fifth and Morrison to witness the tight-rope performance by the Dazian brothers. A platform had been erected at the corner of the two streets, and promptly at 7:30 the performance was commenced. A large crowd was present, and the windows in the neighborhood were filled with spectators. The ropes were stretched across Fifth street, from an upper story window of the postoffice building to the Multnomah block.

At 7 o'clock the crowd was in a fever of expectancy and was continually growing larger. The juvenile population in particular was conspicuous. It was just 7:15 when the tight rope artists made their appearance, and by the time all preliminary arrangements were made it was a quarter of an hour later.

The streets were by this time literally packed, making it next to impossible for vehicles to pass by. A few drops of rain descended, but did not seem in the least to dampen the enthusiasm which had been steadily increasing.

After everything was ready, the space underneath the rope cleared, and able-bodied men stationed to hold the guy-ropes, the elder of the two brothers ascended. The balancing pole was then raised to him and he began his perilous feats.

He commenced at the center of the street, walked half way to the postoffice and then returned to the starting point walking backwards. It was astonishing to see all that leg could do on such a slender strand suspended in mid-air, and the spectators showed their appreciation by repeated cheering and applause. All such feats as standing on one foot, lying down on the rope, taking on one foot, and others too numerous to mention, were performed with the greatest ease.

The younger brother then ascended, and was carried on the back of the elder, who seemed to bear his burden with ease, walking both forwards and backwards. Having done this in a very satisfactory manner, the younger returned to terra firma, and the elder proceeded with some still more daring acrobatics. He stood on his head, walked the rope with a handkerchief loosely tied about his feet, turned around while standing erect, and concluded the performance by giving an exhibition of his great efforts in tight-rope walking.

The last was greatly enjoyed by all. The performance of the Dazian brothers was very satisfactory to all, and fully established the reputation they claim as tight rope performers.

BICYCLE PARADE.

Soon after the conclusion of the tight rope performances, the bicycle procession began to form in front of the drill hall on Fifth street, between Alder and Morrison. All the leading wheelmen of the city were there. Wheels of all the leading makes were represented. There was one tandem, engineered by Wm. H. Boutelle and D. B. Ford; two tricycles of the Victor make and bicycles of all our leading manufactures—Columbia, Victor and American Champion. The procession was in readiness by 8:30, and started up Fifth with twenty-three wheels in line. After going as far as Main the procession returned, stopping in front of the postoffice, and at the latter place, while halt was being in large numbers an exhibition of waltzing on the machines was indulged. Most of the wheels were gaily decorated with flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns, the riders were attired in wheeling costume, and some carried Japanese parasols, presumably in the expectation that it would rain.

After lighting up, the procession again started, presenting a brilliant and novel appearance. The line was then taken to the place where they passed in review before the large crowd congregated there. The riders, although some rather timid, showed a skill little short of perfection in the management of the wheel. The procession and drill was under the excellent leadership of Mr. Fred C. Merrill. Following are the names of the wheelmen participating in the drill:

Fred C. Merrill,	Victor Tricycle.
Geo. Pike,	Victor Bicycle.
J. B. Bridges,	Victor Bicycle.
D. B. Ford,	Columbia Tandem.
F. M. Graham,	Columbia Bicycle.
E. F. Pike,	Victor Bicycle.
Charlie Noon,	Victor Bicycle.
D. W. Stevens,	Victor Bicycle.
Horace Chapin,	Victor Bicycle.
D. Loggan,	Victor Bicycle.
A. H. Devoe,	Victor Bicycle.
Henry Howe,	Victor Bicycle.
E. F. Kramler,	Victor Bicycle.
Eugene Samuels,	Victor Bicycle.
Charlie Coey,	Victor Bicycle.
Samuel Pragin,	Victor Bicycle.

CONCLUDING FEATURE.

The plaza was brilliantly lighted up by Chinese lanterns, suspended from ropes strung in all directions between the trees. The entire square was one solid mass of humanity. Some were reclining against the trees, others sitting in the grass, and a part of the vast assemblage was packed so standing room was at a premium. All were, however, bent on the same purpose, to listen to the sweet music discoursed from the stand by the Thirteenth Infantry band; of Vancouver, under the leadership of Mr. Wash Darrow. The following programme was rendered:

PART I.

March—"Ye Ancients"	D. W. Reeves
Grand selections from operas	Alon Hasson
Serenade—"I Arise from Dreams of Thee"	Tr.
Selection	Wiegand
Bohemianina waltzes	Waldteufel
"La Paloma," Spanish fantasia	Yradier

PART II.

"Parol Comique"	F. Hindley
Selection—"Aztec"	Verdi
"The Last Chord"	Sullivan
Selections from "Iolanthe"	Sullivan
Descriptive fantasia—"A Hunting Scene"	F. Buchholzer

Fortunately it did not rain. This was a great boon, as the large turnout testified. All the numbers were very fine indeed. On the whole the evening was a decided success. The concert was highly appreciated, and all dispersed happy and well satisfied. The various committees are to be congratulated on the first day's celebration.

THE COURTS.

U. S. DISTRICT.

U. S. vs. Kichi Nakana; information filed for desertion; plea, guilty; sentence, imprisonment till July 24, to be delivered to captain of vessel; forfeit $1 of wages.

U. S. vs. Yamasaki Winkichi; same.

U. S. vs. Nakamina Zentaro; same.

U. S. vs. Ban Kichi; same.

U. S. vs. Ashgerd Minoinakama; same.

U. S. CIRCUIT.

Isom vs. Nelson Mining Co.; order modifying injunction; plaintiffs allowed fifty inches of water each.

Oregon Mortgage Co. vs. Martin, sheriff; order dismissing suit for want of replication.

STATE CIRCUIT NO 1.

Portland National Bank vs. Helen G. Hughes; cause continued for the term.

STATE CIRCUIT NO. 2.

J. H. Wiley vs. J. D. Martini; C. J. Schram, receiver, discharged; H. Weimer appointed and property ordered sold.

In matter of estate of Mancliet and Bigne, trial continued indefinitely.

Julia Gentrie vs. Wm. Gentrie; demurrer withdrawn; set for trial July 11.

Frank Manuco vs. Appolonia Philippia; motion to strike out parts of complaint allowed; defendant allowed five days after bill of items shall be produced by plaintiff in which to plead.

Lulu Dunick vs. Milo M. Dunick; argued and submitted.

BIDS FOR TWO DWELLINGS.

A new parsonage is to be built on sixteenth street between L and M for the St. John's Presbyterian church. Bids were opened yesterday at the office of R. J. Hefty, architect, as follows: Lewis & Vanstone, $2586; J. Robertson, $2480; A. Muir, $2400; L. V. Drange, $2325; McGinnis, $2277; J. Marchant, $2170; E. Buxton, $2165; Ball & Chase, $2130; McDonall & Pierkle, $2100; F. Vandercoain, $2075; E. Mounce, $1985.

Bids were also received for two 2-story tenement houses, to be built on South Fourth and Caruther streets, for C. E. Rohr. The lowest bidders were: Concrete basement walls, Hepp & Co., $800; plastering, Robinson & Son, $265; painting, Burke & Grady, $200; carpenter-work, F. Irving, $954. Total cost $2419.

EAST PORTLAND NOTES.

The East Portland postoffice will be open to-day from 2 P. M. to 5:30 P. M.

Councilmen will meet this morning at 9 A. M. at the council chamber (and not at 9:30, the time having been changed). They will be conveyed in carriages across the river to take part in the celebration. All are requested to be present promptly.

There were quite a number of accidents among children. Yesterday afternoon Henry Hack, McMillan's addition, fired a cannon cracker near some companions, and was seriously awaiting to go to the seaside.

Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted to cure all malarial diseases, when taken according to direction. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

THE CITY WINS TWO CASES.

Supreme Court Decides in Favor of the Tanner Creek Sewer.

Those Who Resisted Assessments Must Pay Up—Tarwilliger's Verdict for Five Acres of Ground Reversed.

City Attorney Adams was the recipient of many congratulations yesterday on account of the favorable decisions of the supreme court in the two cases in which appeals were taken to that tribunal by the city, in both of which the decisions may be considered as final in favor of the city. The status of the case of Johanna Paulson et al vs. the city is about as follows: After having been petitioned a number of times, and after having given the matter a great deal of consideration, the council ordered the Tanner creek sewer constructed. The work was completed at a cost of about $30,000, which was "assessed to the property benefited," as usual in such cases. The work being completed, a number of the property owners began to kick, and to claim that all the formalities necessary in such cases had not been gone through with. Some $16,000 of the assessment for the sewer was paid, and the persons owing the remaining $20,000 prated their tardy and began a suit against the city, as Johanna Paulson and others to get rid of paying their assessments, and to oblige the city to pay for their sewer out of the general fund.

They had considerable trouble in finding lawyers willing to undertake their case and were earnestly advised by those whom they consulted in the matter not to bring the suit.

The first complaint was demurred to and the demurrer was overruled, and by consent an amended complaint was filed. This complaint contained every allegation possible to be made in favor of plaintiffs' claim. The city again demurred, claiming that even if all the allegations of the complaint were true, still plaintiffs should be required to pay their assessments. Judge Stearns overruled this demurrer, holding that if the allegations of the complaint were true, the plaintiffs were not entitled to pay their assessments.

On this the city appealed and the supreme court reversed the decree appealed from, and remanded the cause to the lower court with directions to sustain the demurrer. This is looked upon as settling the case, and the prospects are that Johanna Paulson and the others will have to pay their assessments. They will also have to pay the costs in the case, and it may be that they will have to pay the various sums which the council has paid the contractor for the sewer as interest on the money due him.

The decision in the case of James Terwilliger vs. the city, to recover possession of five acres of land deeded to the city for cemetery purposes, because the city had ceased to use the tract for a cemetery, is also considered final and not only settles the title of the city to these five acres, but also to five acres adjoining which was conveyed to the city for the same purpose, in the same deed by Mrs. Thomas and Finice Caruthers. The whole ten acres is now inside the city limits and worth probably $8000 an acre. The five acres included in the Caruthers claim was taken possession of by the Portland Real Estate Association under a quit claim deed from Mr. Daniel Lefavour, the real estate solicitor, imagining that as the land was not used for a cemetery, the city had no further use for it. A part of this tract about two blocks, has been disposed of to private parties, with whom the city will probably compromise.

GEN. SHERIDAN'S PUSH.

McMINNVILLE, July 2.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The recent near approach to death's doors of the general of the army makes almost any incident in his life a matter of interest to the American people. Even the—I hurt nearly said defunct—Confederacy some days ago in convention at St. Louis, attested its honor, hint and sympathize with him.

The people of Oregon recall the days of Sheridan's life on the Pacific coast, more readily, of course, while those who knew him during the war remember him before as he appeared and moved before and among the soldiers during those bloody days—in the camp, on the march and in the battle.

I recall a bit of the history of the campaign from Murfreesboro to Chickamauga that shows where Sheridan is strong—stronger, perhaps, than any general of the war.

After Rosecrans's long delay at Murfreesboro the order at last came to an impatient army (and a magnificent one, too) to move, and you may well guess that knapsacks were slung and muskets shouldered with a will. To sooner had the Army of the Cumberland moved out from behind its heavy works at Murfreesboro than Bragg, without any show of resistance, abandoned his position and fell back, during this morning, before the army was underway, and began to fall and continued as if imported from Oregon for the occasion, for twenty-four days and nights. The consequence was that before the first night's camp-fires were lighted, the wagon-trains "drove heavily" through the red mud of Tennessee, and by the evening of the second day's march, the teamsters were obliged to double up. I must not forget to state that the army had received orders to break camp in the lightest possible marching trim, for upon this fact hangs the gist of my story.

In order to provide the transportation of the commissariat, forage and ammunition, the right wing of the army, in three divisions, commanded by Phil Sheridan, Jeff. C. Davis and R. W. Johnson, and without withstanding the incessant rain and the mess of mud, our troops pushed the enemy sharply before them till our advance reached Cowan station, at the foot of the Cumberland mountains, and sixty miles by wagon road from Murfreesboro. Here a halt was made and laggards brought up.

At this stage of the game Sheridan's artillery hastened the rebel rear-guard up the north face of the mountain. His troops were in compact marching order, his guns in their proper position, and Sheridan found in condition to continue the pursuit of the enemy; while Davis was floundering in the mud several miles to the rear, and Johnson was literally stuck fast at Tullahoma, twenty miles to the rear of Cowan.

I cast no reflections on Davis or Johnson. The boys of the Fourteenth corps, afterward commanded by Davis, know of what kind of stuff he was composed; and they would raise a perfect storm of indignation were a word said against their old commander. Indeed, they would fight in defense of his reputation as quickly as they would for "Pap" Thomas himself.

I only mean to say that the was developed no man with the push possessed by Phil Sheridan. C. D.

TIDES OF THE AIR.

PORTLAND, Or., July 3.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Some one has remarked that we live at the bottom of a sea of air. The remark implies an analogy to the sea, if there are tides in the air, if apogee and perigee and near or far south influence these tides.

The last full moon was in perigee, but quite far south, so that its nearness had no effect in this title principle is allowed. The principle is the influence of the moon upon the moisture of the air similar to the dissipation of a foggy morning by the sun. Indeed I think we will come to the mind at many that a large full moon a little south is synonymous with pleasant weather, harvest moon, moonlight excursions, walks and rides.

These are certain initial conditions on the earth's surface to begin with to determine how pleasant or how rainy the weather will be within this influence. The present outlook is for cloudy, hazy weather. R.

PRUNING GRAPES.

Eminent authority says the best time to prune vines is when the grapes are ripening. The young shoots should then be taken off, as they require for their growth and ripening the sap of the mature parts, but to encourage the fruit it will not do to prune vines in the spring, for, at the time best suited to pruning fruit trees, vines bleed profusely, and it would be destructive to them. It may be necessary also to prune grapes in the winter before the sap comes through, but this is the time only needs pruning, as above stated, during the ripening season.

Dyspeptics relief in the mild yet certain action of TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT.

THE WATER COMMITTEE.

The First Six Months of 1888 Not So Profitable as 1887.

Expenses Increased Faster than the Receipts—June Shows the Well Established in Money of John Gates, Esq.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a regular meeting was held of the Portland water committee, Henry Failing, chairman, and P. C. Shuyler, clerk, in attendance. The following other members of the committee were present: Messrs. Corbett, Dekum, Johnson, Knapp, Lewis, Lombenberg, Richardson and Thorkelson.

The special committee—Messrs. Lombenberg, Richardson and Ladd—submitted the following report:

To the Water Committee—Gentlemen: The undersigned, a committee appointed to consider and present some suitable action to be taken by this body, covering the death of John Gates, recently a member thereof, respectfully recommend that the following minute be entered upon the record:

PORTLAND, Or., July 3, 1888.

The water committee mournfully and with deep regret record the loss of one of its most active, respected and valued members, John Gates, who departed this life on the 29th day of April, 1888. His removal from our midst will be long felt, and in common with the community at large, we desire to testify to the loss of an upright, faithful and valuable citizen.

SUMMONS WITHDRAWN.

Following is the recapitulation of the semi-annual report of receipts and expenditures of the committee for the half year ending June 30, 1888:

RECEIPTS.

Disbursements.
Pittock pumping station	$ 4,000 00
High service station	2,166 33
Reservoirs and mains	2,788 08
Loose property account	924 42
Office expense	2,584 42
General expense	2,977 73
Paid to general account.
May 31	340,000
June 30	17,000	$47,257 58
		$4,854 93
Cash in office	$ 4,548 42
Due from city	306 51	$4,854 93

The entire report was read and ordered laid on the table.

Henry Failing, President City Water Committee—I have the honor to report on behalf of the officers and members of this regiment that water be furnished at the regimental camp for the use of the regiment, as per inclosed list.

The current expenses of maintaining the Bull Run are a figure considerably in excess of the amount allowed for the same, thereby creating a heavy burden on the bills ordinarily upon the support of the men who are obliged to make up the deficit.

Hoping that this request for aid from the city will receive the favorable consideration of your board, I have the honor to remain, etc.,

CHARLES F. BEEBE,
Colonel commanding.

The communication was placed on file, and, after some discussion, the clerk was instructed to notify Col. Beebe that the committee declined to take any action in the matter, and that he should make application for relief to the authorities of the county.

LAST MONTH'S BUSINESS.

The following report of the sub-committee was read and adopted:

To the water committee of the city of Portland:

We submit the following report of the operating department of the works for the month ending June 30, 1888:

RECEIPTS.

From ordinary consumers	$ 5,416 67
For irrigation	1,797 25
For municipal: water rent	1,755 10
For building purposes	1,483 60
For hydrants	45 00
For sprinkling mains	213 30
For shutting off water	133 30	$ 9,249 17

EXPENDITURES.

Advertising	24 30
Book and stationery	10 60
Office expenses	2,584 42
General expense account	445 93
Repairs to mains	223 75
High service station	133 81
Pittock pumping station	1,999 80 — $ 5,460 61
Net Receipts for June	$ 3,788 56
Cash on hand May 31	3,065 92
Total	$ 6,854 48
Paid treasurer	2,000 00
Cash on hand June 30, 1888	$ 4,854 48

ESTIMATED INDEBTEDNESS.

Audited indebtedness on June 30	$ 704 63
Telephone and other bills	200 00
Due for wood consumed to June 30, 400 cords	1,345 00
Estimated indebtedness June 30, 1888	$2,249 63
There is on hand at Pittock station reserve of coal say 125 tons; cost delivered about $900.

The net income of the works for the six months ending June 30, 1888, after providing for interest charges, appropriations $2500, which is much less than the rate of income realized in 1887. The gross income has increased somewhat but not in proportion to the amount of water supplied, nor in proportion to the cost of pumping. The freezing weather of January necessitated large expenditures in fuel, extra labor and repairs. Alterations in furnaces, providing storage and conveniences for delivering wood have added to the expenses.

Wood has been used for fuel for the past three and a-quarter months, greatly reducing the cost of fuel, and it is hoped that the remaining six months of the year will show a much better result in the net income.

In order to provide the treasurer of the committee with funds to meet construction bills, we recommend that $5000 be paid over to the treasurer by the operating department out of funds on hand and July receipts.

During the month two of the employes in the office notified us that they would leave the employ at the end of the month. Mr. T. T. Struble, clerk, receiving a salary of $150 per month, and Mr. White, inspector and clerk, formerly employed at $150 per month and since April 1 at $125 per month.

If has not been thought necessary to employ another inspector at once, but we have appointed Mr. Frank T. Dodge accountant, at a salary of $120 per month for the present, subject to your approval.

Mr. Dodge has filed his bond in the sum of $10,000, with S. G. Reed and J. C. Ainsworth as sureties. Respectfully submitted,

HENRY FAILING,
T. M. RICHARDSON,
Sub-Committee.

Committee then adjourned.

THE TICKETS.

Here are all the presidential tickets. Take your choice:

REPUBLICAN TICKET.
For President,
BENJAMIN HARRISON.
For Vice-President,
LEVI P. MORTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.
For Vice-President,
ALLEN G. THURMAN.

PROHIBITION TICKET.
For President,
CLINTON B. FISK.
For Vice-President,
JOHN A. BROOKS.

UNITED LABOR TICKET.
For President,
ROBERT H. COWDREY.
For Vice-President,
W. N. WAREFIELD.

EQUAL RIGHTS TICKET.
For President,
BELVA ANN LOCKWOOD.
For Vice-President,
ALFRED H. LOVE.

As to Temperament.

Milwaukee Sentinel:

One rash democratic paper undertakes to give the impression that Gen. Ben Harrison is "cold and unsympathetic." That is just what he isn't, though perhaps his nomination lowers the temperature in the democratic camp. But the democratic party shouldn't raise objections to an unsympathetic creature. It was the gallant Henry Watterson who wrote of Mr. Cleveland that he is "a wooden image of dull stolidity, as incapable of receiving impressions as he is of returning warmth."

Poetry for Cleveland's Campaigners.

Buffalo Express (Rep.):

And if asked what state he hails from,
The sad reply shall be
"He renounced the only home he had,
And hurr a vote has he."

AS A MINE IN FEVERS.

Dr. Silas H. S. Davis, Meriden, Conn., says: "I have used it as an alterative in cases of malaria and nervous debility, and as a pleasant and cooling drink in fevers, and have been very much pleased with it."

THE IMMIGRATION BOARD.

The Secretary's Report for June—A Good Comparative Showing.

Monthly Bills Ordered Paid—Contract for Leaflets Let—One Meeting Per Week Hereafter—Miscellaneous.

The regular monthly meeting of the immigration board was held at 4 P. M. yesterday, President Dodd in the chair. Present, Commissioners Corbett, Arnold, Chipman, Baird and Wood.

The committee on illustrated souvenir to be sent to the members of the National Teachers' Association reported, that L. Samuel had offered to do the work of engraving and printing of 10,000 copies for the sum of $200. On motion of Mr. Arnold, that amount was ordered appropriated for the work.

Bids for printing 1,600,000 leaflets were received from several job printers. That of George W. McCoy being the lowest he was, on motion of Mr. Wood, awarded the contract for the sum of $900.

The following bills were read, and, on motion of Mr. Arnold, warrants ordered drawn in payment:

Bush & Tilton, rent	$ 20 00
W. R. Stubble, salary	100 00
J. Mosser & Son, boxes	50 00
Jas. A. Gowan, clerk, salary	125 00
J. Mosser & Son, boxes	27 50
F. W. Baltes & Co., printing	8 50
Lewis & Dryden Printing Co., printing	205 00
Northern Pacific Express Co., charges	3 05
Blake, McFall & Co., wrapping paper	5 00
Chas. H. Hoff & Co., box and rope	1 27
T. E. Gill & Co., stationery	12 40
L. Samuel, billposting in St. Paul	5 00
Chas. F. Ring, bill posting and repairs	8 00
McCain & Jackman, bill posting in Los Angeles	6 65
Plato, Lefevre & Hyde, bill posting in San Bernardino	9 00
St. Paul Journal of Commerce, 500 copies	25 00
J. C. Hollister, stamps	7 75
Wm. Ryan, hauling	2 50
Wm. Chipman, cartage	6 25
Incidentals for month	79 65
Railway distribution	25 00
Total	$ 687 87

The report of the secretary was read as follows and on motion of Mr. Arnold, adopted and placed on file:

REPORT OF SECRETARY.

PORTLAND, OREGON, July 2, 1888.

To the Executive Committee of the Oregon Immigration Board—Gentlemen: I herewith respectfully submit my report of the work of the board for the month of June, 1888:

Number of visiting immigrants, 826, representing (including families) 1,652

Number of reduced rate railroad certificates issued—single trips, 123; round trip, 41; total 164

Number of letters of inquiry received, 283; miscellaneous letters, 31; total 631

PRINTING MATTER DISTRIBUTED.

Number of folders—
Per J. G. Wonder	5,100
" W. Moorehead	19,650
" N. A. Jerome	600
" Wisconsin Central Line	300
" W. B. Goldstein	4,950
" House office	900
Total	27,500
Numbered tickets—
Per W. Moorehead	4,500
" M. B. Goldstein	2,100
Total	6,600
Number of "Portland and Great Northwest"—
Per W. Moorehead	18,850
" M. B. Goldstein	18,400
" J. I. Warner	1,000
" Wisconsin Central Line	4,200
" Canadian agency	3,200
" Lafayette Tugman	3,200
" T. B. Merry	2,200
" House office	1,975
Total	52,175
Miscellaneous—
New Year's OREGONIAN	575
May Week Notes	625
Pioneer Press	270
Weather Reports	5,000
County pamphlets, lists, etc	3,600
Total	10,050
Total pieces of literature for month	88,025

COMPARATIVE FIGURES.

June is invariably a quiet month as concerns immigration. The number of visitors and letters of inquiry as reported above proves that the past month has been no exception to the general rule. With the usual volume of immigration and inquiry it by no means small, still, by comparison with previous months, it is noticeably diminished, and, measured with that which may reasonably be expected in months to come, probably insignificant. In connection with the correspondence of previous years may not be unfamiliar. The following figures are taken from the records of the old state board of immigration.

JUNE, 1885.

Number of visiting immigrants	902
" " reduced rate certificates issued	283
" " letters of inquiry	196
" " pieces of literature distributed	5,280
JUNE, 1886.
Number of visiting immigrants	885
" " reduced rate certificates issued	130
" " letters of inquiry	196
" " pieces of literature distributed	18,398
JUNE, 1887.
Number of visiting immigrants	610
" " reduced rate certificates issued	93
" " letters of inquiry	122
" " pieces of literature distributed	3,728

It will be seen from these figures that the present month shows a decided increase over previous years, approximating 1,000, which is much less than the rate of income realized in 1887, but in the volume of inquiry, the number of letters received during June, 1888, being in fact greater than for the corresponding months of the previous three years combined, while the arrivals have been equal to the total of the two greatest corresponding months of 1885 and 1886. This is certainly a gratifying comparison, and tends to prove the correctness of the general expectation of a large immigration this year. If the amount of descriptive literature distributed the present month far exceeds that of any three months for previous years, and hence there may be reasonable anticipation of largely increased immigration during the fall of 1888.

DEPT OF INQUIRY.

The general drift of inquiry is still largely confined to the states of the great middle West and Northwest. Of the Eastern states Pennsylvania and New York furnish the greatest number of inquiries. There is a noticeable falling off in the inquiries from the South, principally from Texas, which last year furnished not only numerous inquiries but many actual settlers. The reason for this is obvious. No active immigration work has been done in that direction, while in 1887 a very large distribution of literature, etc., was made, principally through the medium of the New Orleans exposition. The effect of the board's work in Iowa and Minnesota is seen in the fact that the number of letters from those states is nearly as great as from all other sections combined. Of the inquiries received during the month twenty-one were from individuals and firms seeking details of the opportunities here for various manufacturing and business enterprises.

ONE AMONG MANY.

The month has been specially remarkable from the number of "lookers" who have arrived—scouts, as it were, claiming to be a sort of inspecting vanguard of immigration. June has, unfortunately, been a sorry month this year, the rainfall being in fact rather too copious, and resulting in a great measure, it is feared, to create unfavorable impressions in the minds of visitors. Your secretary and his assistants have been listeners to many energetic complaints during the month, and have been many constantly busy in explaining the fact that the rainfall of June has been unusual. The careful newcomer, who comes to view the country dispassionately and comprehensively, is always a patient listener; but there is every reason to believe that many who visited our state in June in the capacity of "prospectors" have returned whence they came, in disgust, resolved to make derogatory reports of the fairest and best country under heaven. Whether the fault be of these people and their eventual success to locate among us will prove an actual loss to the state may be doubted. The patient and the persevering immigrant cannot fail to be of value to the community. But it is an open question whether we are not better off without the presence of the fault-finding and the bigoty. Aside from a "clodgers" above mentioned we have received many who have actually brought their families, goods and chattels, and have made, or are about to make, actual settlement among us.

DISCRETION OF IMMIGRANTS.

Your secretary is frequently asked the question by our fellow-citizens, "Where do the newcomers seem principally to be settling?" In the absence of any public registration with the correspondence of immigrants, it is difficult to give, but, question mist package largely of the character of conjecture. A hint, of course, is obtainable from the colonized rate ticket sales. The 164 reduced rate certificates issued by the board during June were distributed as follows: Salem, 51; Oakland, 2; Roseburg, 20; McMinnville, 3; Cornelius, 2; Medford, 20; Ashland, 18; Eugene City, 6; Forest Grove, 7; Hillsboro, 3; Albany, 14; Corvallis, 17; Gold Hill, 2; McCoy, 1; Grant's Pass, 4; Lebanon, 9; Silverton, 13; Mt. Angel, 1. It is known that a liberal sprinkling of newcomers have gone into Tillamook and Columbia counties in search of timber and other government lands. Many have also gone into the Dalles region, into the Alsea and some portion of Lower Willamette counties. The inquiry for government lands has been steady during the month; in fact, during the entire year. That there has been unusual activity in government land entries previous to the statement of the land agents at Roseburg and Oregon City the past year has been duly noted in the public press of the state.

PROSPECTIVE SETTLERS.

Several letters have been received by the secretary during the month from parties in the eastern states, who desire to locate in Oregon, but who are deterred from coming on account of the prevalence of malarial fevers in the fall. Rev. W. [illegible] Pennsylvania, and [illegible] tively a large number of people will leave that state for Oregon in the near future. C. M. Shinkhead, the board's Eastern agent, makes a similar statement concerning the feeling of Iowa and Illinois which he was recently visited. Letters asking for quantities of literature for distribution among neighbors anxious to know of the Pacific coast, are frequently received from parties in Dakota, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska and Iowa. The indications point unmistakably to a very large influx of settlers next fall.

THE BOARD'S AGENTS.

The California agent, Mr. Goldstein, reports a considerable falling off in the number of newcomers to California, but says that among the strangers a ready share be favorably finds an eagerness to know of Oregon. He reports having billed Oakland, Stockton, Lathrop and Sacramento with the board's literature in addition to the distribution of large quantities in San Francisco. Mr. Moorehead, having completed the circuit of the Rock Island and lowa lines, situated on the lines of the York Island and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railways, has returned to Chicago. There he made wholesale distribution of advertising matter during the republican national convention. He is now billing the cities adjacent to Chicago previous to a general tour embracing the Cincinnati exposition and the various district fairs of the Western states. The St. Paul

THE HOTELS.

ST. CHARLES.

R Andrews, Halsey
Jas Bolter, Hartford
Mrs Bolter, do
Dr F G Oehme, Roseburg
W H Philbrick, Seattle
E P Chapman, Spokane
S Somerville, Nagwina
L C Pearson, Seattle
J R N Bell, Roseburg
Mrs P P Fastin, Pendleton
G E Hays wf, Or City
W H Abrams, Eugene
W E Burke, Grant's Pass
G F Russell, Oak Point
Mrs L E Strickland, S F
F Yoquarita, Halsey
J Pennington, Tacoma
C W Shime, Halsey
N Pierce, Milton
H F Pierce, do
G C Pierce, do
J B Carroll, Baker City
G G Ethel, Centralia
R Holman, W T
V F Hopkins, S F
C F Wagner, The Dalles
A Forgher, do
A Lamont, do
F B Hood, do
J Wentz, do
T A McBride fm, Or City
G W Lorenz fm, do
Mrs L S Baunton, do
A E Mills, La Camas
G W Yates, do
H P Cloves, do
C M Reed, Creswell
A Melles, Watt's Log
W H Cornelius, do
E Beharrill, Bucoda

MERCHANTS'.

V P Muscutter, Seattle
R G Russell, Missouri
A H Seymore, Chicago
W J Wisner, Oregon
J F Trutart, Lake
Leslie & wf, Toronto
J H Matts & wf, Wis
R E Boyns, London
G Bothmen, Tacoma
Mrs A Smith, Montana
Mrs A L Griffiths, do
Scalling & w, Harrisburg
J A Banks, Missouri
A A Meaghan & fm, do
T D Mitt, Oregon
Miss McCall, Boston
Miss E McArthur, do
Miss B McClair, do
W A Dennee, Agt Wages & Mfg Company
L S Fritz, The Dalles
D Lathpman, O C R R
H Karsten, Nebraska
R A Davidson, Ohio
Prof W H Davidson, (Rope Walker)
F M Donnelly, Tacoma
B H Lonnison, do
A Forrer, Yanton
J Roberts & w, do
J Holland, Chicago
J Dempsey, do
W S McDermott, Astoria
A C Latter & wf, Neb
C A Jemmison & wf, Ill
Miss N Jemmison, do
A L Crookster & w, W T
Miss N Crookster, do
S McClure & son, N Y
Miss A McClure, do

QUINCY.

C Mayer, Dalles
W F Sturgis, Seattle
H M Sliord, Omaha
D W McMurphy, Little Fll
T Kennedy, Tenino
W Burnett, do
R Gilliam, do
Ed Keenan, do
D McMillan, Ottawa
Mrs Bolton, Olympia
H T Briggs, do
J S Neally, Winlock
E W Allbee, do
A Gullckson, do
G B Trim, Arlington
E B Newland, Ellensburg
V P Wisenthal, Seattle
D M Godfrey, Forest Gry
W Carpenter, Easton
J Parsons, Gale's Creek
W Lee, do
Wm Belchling, Ashland
W F Smith, Halsey
W F Gaines, Lacrosse
J N Bowner, Scaico
D Wirlaw, Pendleton
J Entsfine, Chehalis
E G Foster, Enterprise
R Foster, do
F Stokes, Winona
Mr Smithson, Lebanon
E Sanders, city
Miss Huntington, city
J S Freeman, Bridal Veil

SIMOND.

C H Raymond, Scappoose
O McLaccon, Albany
J K Gaither, LaCenter
E H Gross & wf, Tacoma
T J Milnor, Seattle
E Y Judd, Chicago
Mrs. Hodgkins, Quinnimt
C P Terry & fam, San F
F L Gray, Mandeld, Pa
J C Freeman, San Fran
Mrs J Copeland, Harrisb'g
Mrs Waitt, Victoria
A S Shaw, Amesville
Miss Shaw, do
Mrs G B Smith, Corvallis
L R Stinson, Salem
A E Tower, Boston
C H Wetherbel, Eagle Cliff
Newt Criswell, Oswego
J E Henderson, do
T G Gallagher, Adams
R F Ungerman, Lafayette
J Battanuic, Hartford
B Johnson, Shedd
C P Drake, New York
M C Adler, San Fran
J M Kelty & son, Lafayette
J E Dell, Boston
Mrs Bradford, Pendleton
Mrs Bishop, do

E C Lamberson, Scappoose
F C Godley, Halsey
J M Ramsey, Dundee
C M Harvey, Cathlamet
W R Miller, Oswego
E C Bayley & fam, do
Miss Hodgkins, Quinnimt
C Whitnah, Canton, Ills
Mrs E Marshall, Pendlet'n
Mrs N E Keating, Kane City
H Keat & wf, Victoria
J A Smith, Portland
Miss E Craig, Amesville
E P Geary, Milford
L Bennett, San Fran
W J Yawber, Halsey
W T Smith, Tacoma
Russ Miller, Oswego do do
A L McLeno, Gaston
J Kangley & wf, Streator
J Meyers, Gaston
Miss Hazelton, Hartford
H S Davis, Los Angeles
D Cherry & fam, Eugene,
O. M. Axstead, Omaha
A E Cleveland, New York
Miss M Hensley, Canyon
Miss Bishopp, Pendleton

GILMAN.

E L Huntly Chicago
H E Barlow, Olympia
W E Blake, New York
R A Foster, Ft Stevens
M Wolff, New York
R A Hamell, S Fran
B Sanderson do
W W Prochstel, Vanco'r
Mr Fink, Seattle
J S Nagg, Australia
H B Orfarts, New York
W B Baxter, Pendleton
J D Kelty, McCoy
J Lugedio, S Fran
J Murphy, Tacoma
J R Forrest, do
Mrs A Longini, Chicago
Miss Davidson, St Paul
J Wolgenshell, Scappoose
C N Stangrome, S Fran
H W Pelling, St Paul
S Warren, Omaha
H D Grayson, Dayton
S Spencer, Missoula

W Rurd, Olympia
F S Calhoun & wf, U S A
M J Davis, St Louis
J W Dron, Concord, N H
S Rosenblatt, S F ran
R E Beaman, do
I P Mackey, Union Ridge
Mrs A R Fink, Seattle
A McRae, Junction City
J Hulett, Spokane, New York
H Stephenson, Olympia
H M Mix, Pendleton
G C Bell, McCoy
F T Reed, Tacoma
F A Bowers, do
A Longini, Chicago
Miss A Emmeln, do
Miss Colmes, St Paul
M M Haden, New York
E R Faxon, Ounalaska
W B Heathcote, Omaha
E E Bently, Minneapolis
John Lomas, Olympia
J A Doyle, Oakland

BOLTON.

E M Stevens, do
W Wagner & wf, Centrev'le
G Nelson, Eugene
G Glenn, The Dalles
E A Miller, Jacksonv'le
J C Huracke & wf, City
B C Irwin, St Louis
M E Carel, Oregon City
Mrs Sarah Young, Independence
Mrs A Butterfield, Eug'e
Carrie Isaacson, N York

G W Kenny, Omaha
Gilman, Arlington
E K Wheeler, Eugene
P G Stout & wf, Sea View
F J Goodnough, Buffalo
R G Paddock, Tacoma
H P Well,
Miss M Claggett, Independence
Mrs G Chrisman, Eugene
H C Dimmick, do
Birdie Isaacson, N York

E M Patterson & w, Minn
Ed Collins & w, Tacoma
J F Brown & w, do
A Gilchrist, do
A W Ely, do
G Martin, do
A J McDaniels & f, do
R Hatton & w, do

THE MILLS BILL.

The Debate on It Will Continue All Summer.

Washington Special (June 27,) to the Chicago Inter-Ocean.

One thing is evident—the republicans intend to prolong the debate indefinitely, and to discuss the Mills bill line by line. They do not intend to permit the democrats to shift or shirk the issue. What this means will be better understood when it is known that the bill comprises 140 large pages, and that to this time, although nearly a month has been devoted to the discussion, the debate was resumed to-day at line eighty-seven, page 4. And the opportunity for discussion on the 106 pages that are to come has been assigned, as it has been on the four pages that have been discussed. The republicans, acting through Mr. Reed, of the ways and means committee, the leader of the republican side, announced to-day that the platform of the republican convention is to be interpreted as an instruction to the republican members of the house, and that instruction is understood to mean that every line and syllable of the Mills Bill is to be discussed until it is understood.

If there are any members of either house who have not sent for their summer clothes they will do well to do so now. The debate on the Mills bill is not to end now nor is it to end in ten days as Chairman Mills proposes, nor next winter as Judge Kelley suggests. The tariff campaign is to be opened at once in the house with the Mills bill for a text, and the Mills bill can be considered therefore as only just begun. The first notes of the campaign are to be sounded in the house of representatives.

INDORSED BY ARTHUR.

Gen. Harrison Undoubtedly the Friend of All Organized Labor.

CLEVELAND, O., June 27.—In an interview to-day Chief Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, declared that Gen. Harrison should not now be criticised for his votes on the Chinese issue, as many other public men now regarded as friendly to labor had stood with the republican nominee at that time.

"Gen. Harrison has nothing in his record that should prevent any republican workingman from voting for him," said Mr. Arthur. "I regard his nomination as a strong one, and know his friendly attitude toward organized labor. Some time ago I went to Indianapolis to straighten out a difficulty between our men and one of the local roads, and it was principally through the good offices of Gen. Harrison that a strike was prevented and matters were adjusted."

INDIANA.

Great enthusiasm for Harrison is reported in all parts of Indiana. The sententious comment of Senator Voorhees on the nomination of Gen. Harrison, that it meant "a — of a fight in Indiana," will no doubt be justified by the result. The hold of the democrats upon the state has not been so slender in ten years as it is to-day. All over the state enthusiastic meetings in support of Harrison are reported. A dispatch from Evansville, June 28, gives this:

The republicans held a Harrison and Morton ratification meeting in this city to-night. If there were any lingering doubts as to the genuine enthusiasm of the partisans of the distinguished leader, they were thoroughly dissipated by the demonstration to-night. There was an overwhelming turnout. Long before the appointed hour every ward in the city had mustered its forces, and headed by drum corps marched to the general rendezvous in front of the court house. In the meantime the younger republicans throughout the city caught the enthusiasm, and armed with fifes, drums and tin horns, soon created a din which might have been heard miles away. In the meantime the streets in front of the court house were filled by one dense mass of humanity, through which it was impossible for one to pass. The enthusiasm grew with the gathering crowd until the wild shouts and huzzas drowned all other sounds. The speeches which followed were full of the fire and inspiration of the moment, and were received with tumultuous applause. Many leaders who had been charged with sulking were upon the scene, and by their presence and enthusiasm proved the groundlessness of the rumors. It was positively announced that instead of defections being manifest in the republican ranks, numerous proselytes from the enemy were already assured.

WELLS'
INVISIBLE
LEVER
CREAM.

A Magic Complexion Beautifier for Face, Neck and Arms

Elegant for dressing and whitening. Instantaneous. Unrivaled for Theatre, Receptions, Balls, Parties, &c. Unequaled for delicate transparent whiteness, soft youthful effect and fine finish. Harmless, does not roughen, draw, wither or injure in any way injure the most delicate or sensitive skin. Gargle to any Powder, Paste or Liquid for toning down red or flushed face. Effaces Tan, Sunburn, Freckles, Pimples, Coarseness, Sallow skin, all blemishes and imperfections. $1.00 bottles at Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers, or by Express, prepaid, on receipt of price.

E. S. WELLS, Chemist, Jersey City, N. J., U. S. A.

"ROUGH ON NEURALGIA," $1.00. Druggists.
"ROUGH ON RHEUMATISM," $1.50. Druggists.
"ROUGH ON ASTHMA," $1.50. Druggists.
"ROUGH ON MALARIA," $1.50. Druggists, or prepaid by Express. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City.

ROUGH ON CORNS HARD OR SOFT CORNS 15c.
ROUGH ON TOOTHACHE INSTANT RELIEF. 15c.

S.S.S.

Is Mercury,
No Potash,
Or any other Mineral Poison.

It is Nature's Remedy, made exclusively from Roots and Herbs.

It is perfectly Harmless.

It is the only remedy known to the world that has ever yet Cured contagious Blood Poison in all its stages.

It cures Mercurial Rheumatism, Cancer, Scrofula, and other blood diseases heretofore considered incurable. It cures any disease caused from impure blood. It is now prescribed by thousands of the best physicians in the United States, as a tonic. We append three statements of a few:

"I have used S. S. S. on patients convalescing from fever and from measles with the best results. J. N. CHANEY, M. D.
Ellisville, Ga."

BARNES, GA.—Willie White was afflicted with scrofula seven years. I prescribed S. S. S., and to-day he is a full blooded boy. C. PARRIS, M. D.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 15, 1886.—I have taken three bottles of Swift's Specific for secondary blood poison. It is much better than potash or any other remedy I have ever used.
B. F. WORTHAM, M. D.
Formerly of Reams's Station, Va.

Dr. E. J. Hall, the well-known druggist and physician, of Nashville, Howard County, Ark., writes: "I am now prepared to say that what S. S. S. is composed of, I can safely recommend it as the remedy for all skin diseases. It imparts a rich, healthy glow to the system, it builds up the entire man."

We have a book giving a history of this wonderful remedy and its cures, from all over the world, which will convince you that all we say is true, and which we will mail free on application. No family should be without it. We have another Contagious Blood Poison, sent on same terms.

Write us a history of your case, and our physician will advise with you by letter, in strictest confidence. We will not deceive you knowingly.

For sale by all druggists.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.,
Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga.
New York, 159 Broadway.
London, Eng., 35 Snow Hi

DR. WARREN'S CELEBRATED BITTERS.

The oldest, best and most palatable preparation of Cascara (Rhamnus Purshiana), cures Habitual Constipation and its attendant train of ills—Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Loss of Appetite, Prostration, etc.; prepares the system to withstand the attacks of all Germ Diseases, as Smallpox, Typhoid Fever, Consumption, etc.; and when taken for some time in small, frequently repeated doses, the Ancient's dream of renewed youth seems realized. Sold by all dealers in medicine. 24s6m

GRAVEL, DISORDER.

My health began to fail me fifteen years ago and from which I never expected to recover. Later my physician said I had

BRIGHT'S DISEASE,

which was alarming information. To add to my affliction after I had been ill about two years, I had a fine attack of Gravel. I saw Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy of Rondout, N. Y., advertised. After using three bottles I was well. I have never had a return of either complaint, and though I am over sixty years of age I am now as I was in my prime. What physicians and all of the many remedies I had taken could not do Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy did; it stayed the disease and made me a strong, vigorous woman.

VIGOROUS AND STRONG

MRS. EMELINE P. MIZNER, Bang Hill, Ohio.

Dr. D. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Prepared at Rondout, N. Y. Price $1: 6 for $5.

SNELL, HEITSHU & WOODARD, Portland, Oregon, Agents.

ESTD 1862.

PLUMMER & BYERLEY
Druggists and Chemists,
And Dealers in
PAINTS, OILS AND GLASS
Agent for R. W. Tansill & Co's Cigars.
Corner of First and Main Sts., Portland.

GRATEFUL--COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simple with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins by grocers, labeled thus:

JAMES EPPS & CO.,
Homeopathic Chemists, London, England.

COFFEE'S GIANT GLOBULES

STRONGEST
Invigorant Known.

For Mental Overwork, Sexual Debility, Impotency, Nocturnal Emissions, Mental Atrophy or Indifference, and in all Enfeebled Conditions of the general system, and dull, heavy weakness in the back or eyes. In diseases of the Reproductive Organs of both Male and Female, they are the Best Tonic Secret in science. Restore Exact Vigor to Old Age. Descriptive Med. Pl. Mailed in Plain Wrapper. Price $1. Coffee's Specific Med. Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

L. BLUMAUER & CO., Agents, Portland

COCKLE'S
ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

FOR LIVER, BILE, INDIGESTION, ETC. FREE from mercury; contains only Pure Vegetable Ingredients. Agents—LANGLEY & MICHAELS, San Francisco, Cal.

WEAK MEN suffering from the effects of youthful errors, early decay, lost manhood, etc., I will send (sealed) a valuable treatise (sealed) containing full particulars for home cure, free of charge. A splendid medical work; should be read by every man who is nervous and debilitated. Address PROF. F. C. FOWLER, Moodus, Conn.

SURGEON CHIROPODIST.—Corns and bunions skilfully removed. Baby Fingers Trimmed. DR. A. G. BERNSTEIN, Room 19, 180 First, cor. Morrison

WHAT GEN. SHERMAN SAID.

When the nomination of Harrison was announced, Gen. Sherman who lives at the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, was asked by a reporter of the New York Press what he thought of it. The old general's answer ought to be reprinted entire in every newspaper of the United States. He said:

"I think every man who fought for the preservation of this government should vote for Harrison. It is the duty of every true man to stand by Harrison and Morton, who were true to the country when she was in danger. There has never been a true Union man sent to represent this country in foreign lands under the present administration, and it is time for a change. I believe Cleveland has done the best he could. I have no fault to find with the administration. My feelings, though, carry me back to the war. I would not keep up sectional differences. Every Southern man has the same rights we have. But Cleveland has sent out men to represent us who would have starved us during the war. They are what I call coppering the war. Cleveland is 17 years younger than I. He should have shouldered a musket and gone to the front. Everybody capable of carrying a gun should have offered his services. Then the war would not have lasted as long as it did. At Vicksburg and Gettysburg we were shorthanded, and if those men who hung in the rear had gone to the front the war would have been over a year sooner.

"The candidates named now are wonderfully good. Harrison is a man of great charfully good. Harrison is a man of great character, good habits and lineage. He is good every way, and a fit and proper person to go to the White house. Now, it is a fair and square race between the two parties."

The Five Sisters.

There were five fair sisters, and each had an aim—
Flora would fain be a fashionable dame;
Scholarly Susan's selection was books;
Coquettish Cora cared more for good looks;
Anna, ambitious, aspired after wealth;
Sensible Sarah sought first for good health.

So she took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and grew healthy and blooming. Cora's beauty quickly faded; Susan's eyesight failed from over-study; Flora became nervous and fretful striving after fashion, and a sickly family fell in striping after Anna's bankrupt poor. But sensible Sarah kept Anna's husband poor, and married rich.

TRANSPORTATION LINES.

FOR ASTORIA! FAST TIME!
Steamer Telephone!
(Leaves foot of Alder St., Portland.)
Fare to Astoria, $1; Round Trip, $1 50.

Leave Portland:	Leave Astoria:
Sunday ..... 8 A.M.	Monday ..... 6:00 A.M.
Tuesday ..... 7 A.M.	Tuesday ..... 2:30 P.M.
Wednesday ..... 7:00 A.M.	Wednesday ..... 7:00 P.M.
Thursday ..... 11:30 P.M.	Friday ..... 7:00 P.M.
Saturday ..... 7 A.M.	Saturday ..... 2:30 P.M.

TUESDAYS, WEDNESDAYS AND SATURDAYS, ROUND TRIP RATES.

Close connections at Kalama to the Sound; at Astoria with the "General Miles" for Ilwaco, Cranberry Island and Gray's Harbor; at Portland with the O. & C. R. R. and Westside trains, P. & W. V. R. R. Vancouver and Oregon City boats and Eastern-bound trains.

STEAMER FLEETWOOD.
FAST TIME BETWEEN
TACOMA and SEATTLE.
DAILY, EXCEPT SATURDAY.

Close connections for Seattle with N. P. trains, leaving Portland at 2 o'clock A.M.
Buy your tickets to Tacoma only. Check baggage to Tacoma Wharf. Z. J. HATCH, Agent.

Portland & Willamette Valley Railway.

EIGHTEEN

BANKS.

Portland Trust Company
OF OREGON.
No. 69 Third Street, Ainsworth Block.

Acts as general agent, trustee or attorney for individuals or corporations, and as assignee or receiver.
Money to loan and advances made on mortgage or other security.
Holds property in trust and cares for the same pending litigation or settlement of conflicting interests.
Assumes the general care of real estate, with strict economy as to expenditures for repairs. Collects rents, interest, dividends, bills, accounts or income.
Pays taxes, assessments and insurance premiums.
Deeds, insurance policies and other valuable papers safely kept at moderate charges.
Receipts for and safely keeps wills in burglar-proof vaults, without charge.
Acts as registrar and transfer agent for the stocks and bonds of other corporations.
All trust funds are kept separate and apart from the company's assets, and all trusts carefully and economically administered.

ALLEN NOYES ..... President
R. L. PITTOCK ..... Vice-President
BENJ. I. COHEN ..... Secretary

SAVINGS BANK.
The Northwest Loan and Trust Co.
No. 15 Stark St., Portland, Oregon.
(Capital ..... $150,000.)

Interest Paid on Savings Deposits.

This company is authorized by its charter to:
Execute trusts of every description;
Act as Assignee, Receiver, Guardian, Executor and Administrator, or in any other fiduciary capacity;
Assume the care of real estate, collect rents, interest, dividends, etc.;
Receipt for wills, and keep them safely without charge;
All trust funds kept separate and apart from the other assets of the company.
Money loaned on improved real estate.

PARTIAL LIST OF STOCKHOLDERS:

Geo. H. Williams — W. W. Thayer
Geo. B. Markle, Jr — E. D. Shattuck
Jas. K. Kelley — W. H. Holcomb
Thos. Wygant — C. A. Alsky
J. H. Smith — A. C. A. Pirkey
Richard Williams — S. B. Wiley
H. L. Pittock — Van B. DeLashmutt
R. Thielsen — D. S. Tuthill
D. F. Sherman — Chas. E. Sutton
Herbert Hardley — John Comwick
W. Mackenzie — J. Thorburn Ross
Buell Lamberson — F. D. Chamberlain
R. C. Wheeler, N. Y. — Portland Bank, Philadelphia
Bog. De Iglese, New York — Darvin Bennett King, N. Y.

Ainsworth National Bank,
OF PORTLAND—Cor. Third and Oak.
L. L. HAWKINS, W. H. SMITH, J. P. MARSHALL
Pres. dent. | Vice-President. | Cashier.
U. S Depositary and Financial Agent.
Transacts a General Banking Business.
Exchange bought and sold on all the principal cities in Europe. Also, facilities for Telegraphic Transfer. Collections made on favorable terms at all accessible points. Highest market rates on Foreign Exchange.
SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENT connected with the Bank. Safes Rented on easy terms.

GERMAN
Savings & Loan Society,
OF SAN FRANCISCO.
LOANS MONEY ON CITY, SUBURBAN AND farming property.
B. GOLDSMITH, Agent.
10jly1m 114 First Street.

The Oregon National Bank,
OF PORTLAND.
(Successors to Metropolitan Savings Bank.)
CAPITAL PAID IN $100,000
Transacts a General Banking Business.
ACCOUNTS kept subject to check.
SELLS EXCHANGE on San Francisco and N. York
MAKES COLLECTIONS on favorable terms.
VAN B. DELASHMUTT ..... President
GEO. B. MARKLE, JR. ..... Vice-President
D. P. SHERMAN ..... Cashier

Directors:
Judge W. W. Thayer — H. W. Scott,
Judge E. D. Shattuck — H. Thielsen,
Hon. Richard Williams — Ralph Kauffman,
Van B. DeLashmutt — C. H. Dodd.
Geo. B. Markle, Jr.

Commercial National Bank,
OF PORTLAND.
General Banking Business Transacted.
President ..... B. P. THOMPSON
Vice-President ..... R. R. M. CARE
Cashier ..... R. L. DURHAM
Assistant Cashier ..... H. C. WORTMAN
Sight Exchange and Telegraphic Transfer sold on New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Paul, San Francisco and all principal places throughout the Northwest.
Exchange sold on principal cities in Europe and on Hong Kong.
Collections receive prompt attention.

Bank of British Columbia.
Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1862.
Paid Up Capital $2,425,000
Reserve 250,000
Head Office, 22 Cornhill, London.
Branches—Portland, San Francisco, Victoria, New Westminster, Nanaimo, Kamloops, Vancouver, B. C.
A General Banking and Exchange Business Transacted.
Loans made; Bills Discounted; Commercial Credits granted; Deposits received on current account subject to check; also on special deposit.
J. H. D. GRAY, Acting Manager.

Ladd & Tilton, Bankers,
Transact a General Banking Business.
INTEREST allowed on deposits.
COLLECTIONS made at all points on favorable terms.
LETTERS OF CREDIT issued, available in Europe and the Eastern States.
SIGHT EXCHANGE AND TELEGRAPHIC TRANSFERS sold on New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Denver, Omaha, San Francisco and various points in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia.
EXCHANGE sold on London, Paris, Berlin, Frankfort and Hong Kong.

Merchants National Bank,
PORTLAND, OREGON.
Transacts a General Banking Business.
President ..... JAMES STEEL
Vice-President ..... J. LOEWENBERG
Cashier ..... J. A. MACRUM
SELLS SIGHT EXCHANGE and TELEGRAPHIC TRANSFERS, and ISSUES LETTERS OF CREDIT available in Europe and the East.
DRAWS BILLS OF EXCHANGE on London, Liverpool, Dublin, Paris, Berlin, Frankfort-on-the-Main, and all the principal cities of Europe; also on Hong Kong.
COLLECTIONS MADE on all accessible points.

The Oregon & Washington Mortgage Savings Bank.
51 FIRST STREET, PORTLAND, OR.
Rates of Interest on Deposits:
THREE MONTHS....4 per cent.
SIX MONTHS.....5 per cent.
NINE MONTHS.....5½ per cent.
ONE YEAR.....6 per cent.
LOANED ON MORTGAGES: $7,597,731 IN 11 YEARS.
Correspondence is solicited, and every information and facility for examination will be furnished by applying to WILLIAM REID, President.
City, County and School Bonds Wanted.

First National Bank,
OF PORTLAND,
Designated Depositary and Financial Agent of the United States.
President ..... HENRY FAILING
Vice-President ..... H. W. CORBETT
Cashier ..... G. K. WILLIAMSON
Assistant Cashier ..... H. J. CORBETT
Letters of Credit issued, available in Europe and the Eastern States.
Sight Exchange and Telegraphic Transfer sold on New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, Omaha, San Francisco and the principal points in the Northwest.
Sight and Time Bills drawn in sums to suit on London, Paris, Berlin, Frankfort-on-the-Main, Hong Kong.
Collections made on favorable terms at all accessible points.

London and San Francisco Bank,
Limited.
Capital and Reserve $2,375,000
Head Office, 22 Old Broad street, London.
This Bank transacts a General Banking and Exchange Business; makes loans, discounts bills, and issues commercial and travelers' credits, available in any city in the world.
Portland Branch, 58 First street.
W. MACKINTOSH, Manager.

The Portland National Bank
Transacts a General Banking Business.
Accounts Kept, subject to check.
Sells Exchange on San Francisco and New York.
Makes Collections on favorable terms.
Letters of Credit Issued, available in Europe and the Eastern States.
WILLIAM REID ..... President
WM. LOWE ..... Acting Cashier

FRANK DEKUM, President | W. E. SMITH, Vice-President | H. C. STRATTON, Cashier
The Portland Savings Bank, OF PORTLAND, OR.
S. W. COR. SECOND and WASHINGTON.
Pays Interest on Time Deposits.
Loans made on real or personal security.
Acts as trustee for individuals, corporations or estates pending litigation or settlement.

RESORTS.

STOUT'S HOTEL.
J. L. STOUT, Prop'r. PRIL. G. STOUT, Manager.
SEA VIEW, NEAR ILWACO, W. T.
IS NOW OPEN FOR 1888—NEWLY REFITTED and refurnished. First-class in every respect. On the ocean beach, and has an assembly dance at Ilwaco. Cars of Ilwaco R.R. stop at the door.
Fish, Clams, Crabs and Oysters in Plenty.
Rates, $2 per day and upward. 26jn1m

HEALTH RESORT.
The great health resort of Washington Territory, at Hot Springs, 45 miles west of Tacoma, on the Cascade Division of the N. P. R. R. Trains arrive and leave the springs daily at good hours.
These springs are a specific for the cure of rheumatism, kidney troubles, catarrh, and all skin and blood diseases; for the overworked, and those worn out by the duties of every day life. These baths, in combination with cold, delightful mountain atmosphere, will give them renewed strength and vigor.
Trout fishing and scenery good.
Terms—By the day, $2; by the week, $12.
For further particulars address
I. G. McCAIN & CO., Proprietors. (7jlm)

INSURANCE.

FIRE INSURANCE ONLY.
The Oregon Fire and Marine Insurance Company
OF PORTLAND.

ASSETS	$361,688 75
CASH CAPITAL	220,100 00
NET SURPLUS	98,571 93

PRINCIPAL OFFICE
Northeast Corner Second and Stark Streets

REMOVED TO 50 STARK ST.
UNION INSURANCE CO.,
Fire and Marine,
Of San Francisco.
CAPITAL, - - - $750,000
JAMES S. REED, Agent.

The Thames and Mersey Marine Insurance Company
OF LIVERPOOL.
Agency in Portland at No. 5 First street.
PHILIP C. SCHUYLER, Agent.

Capital	£2,000,000
Reserve fund (in addition)	375,000
Deposit in Oregon	10,000

MARKETS.

PACIFIC MARKET.
M. M. SPAULDING. THOS. PAPWORTH.
SPAULDING & PAPWORTH,
Butchers and Packers. Dealers in all kinds of meat.
Corner Third and Ash streets.

A. H. JOHNSON;
Central Market ..... 33 First Street.
Wholesale Butcher and Packer.
Special attention paid to supplying ships. Highest cash price paid for all kinds of fat stock.

W. W. SPAULDING,
(Successor to J. S. Keller & Co.)
Corner First and Madison Streets, Portland.
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Fresh and Cured Meats.

O'SHEA BROS.,
Wholesale Butchers and Packers, and Retail Dealers in All Kinds of Meats.
Special attention given to supplying ships
Intersection Third, A and Ash Streets.

T. J. UHLMAN,
Retailer Market, Butcher and Packer,
Dealer in all kinds of Fresh and Salt Meats.
61 North West Park street, corner B, Portland, Or.

RAILWAYS AND STEAMBOATS.

THE YAQUINA ROUTE.
OREGON PACIFIC RAILROAD
AND
Oregon Development Company's Steamship Line.
225 Miles Shorter—20 Hours Less Time, than by any other route.

First-class through passenger and freight lines from Portland and all points in the Willamette valley to and from San Francisco.

Willamette River Line of Steamers.
The "Wm. M. Hoag," the "N. S. Bentley," the "Three Sisters," leave Portland 6 A. M. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, from Messrs. Ankeny & Co's dock, 200 and 202 Front street, for Oregon City, Butteville, Champoeg, Salem, Independence, Albany, Corvallis, and intermediate points, making close connection at Albany with trains of the Oregon Pacific Railroad.

Time Schedule (except Sundays):

Leave Albany ..1:00 P. M.	Leave Yaquina 6:30 A. M.
Arrive Yaquina 5:50 P. M.	Leave Corvallis 10:38 A. M.
	Arrive Albany 11:15 A. M.

Cars on all through trains.
O. & C. trains connect at Albany and Corvallis.
The above trains connect at Yaquina with the Oregon Development Co's Line of Steamships between Yaquina and San Francisco.

Sailing Dates.

Steamers.	From San Fran.	From Yaquina.
Willamette Valy	Friday, June 22	Thurs'y, June 28
Willamette Valy	Tuesday, July 3	Friday, July 13
Willamette Valy	Wedn'y, July 18	Tuesday, July 24
Willamette Valy	Sunday, July 29

The company reserves the right to change sailing dates without notice.
N. B.—Passengers from Portland and all Willamette Valley points can make close connection with the trains of the Yaquina Route at Albany or Corvallis, and if destined to San Francisco, should arrange to arrive at Yaquina the evening before date of sailing.
Passenger and freight rates always as low as competitors. Apply to Messrs. HUIMAN & CO., Freight and Ticket Agents, 220 and 202 Front street, Portland, Oregon; or to C. C. HOGUE, Acting Gen'l Pass. Agt., Oregon Pacific R. R. Co., Corvallis, Oregon. C. H. HASWELL, Jr., Gen'l Frt. & Pass. Agt., Oregon Development Co., 204 Montgomery street, San Francisco, Cal.

OVERLAND TO CALIFORNIA.
Via Southern Pacific Company's Lines.
THE MT. SHASTA ROUTE.
Time between Portland and San Francisco, 36 hours.
California Express Trains Run Daily between PORTLAND AND SAN FRANCISCO.

Leave.	Arrive.
Portland ..... 4:00 P. M.	San Francisco ..... 7:40 A. M.
San Francisco ..... 8:30 P. M.	Portland ..... 11:40 A. M.

Local Passenger (daily, except Sunday).

Leave.	Arrive.
Portland ..... 8:00 A. M.	Eugene ..... 2:45 P. M.
Eugene ..... 9:00 A. M.	Portland ..... 3:45 P. M.

PULLMAN BUFFET SLEEPERS.
Tourist Sleeping Cars for accommodation of second-class passengers attached to express trains.
The O. & C. R. R. forms main connection with all the regular trains of the East Side Div. from foot of F St.

WEST SIDE DIVISION.
PORTLAND AND CORVALLIS.
Mail Train.

Leave.	Arrive.
Portland ..... 7:30 A. M.	Corvallis ..... 12:28 P. M.
Corvallis ..... 1:30 P. M.	Portland ..... 6:15 P. M.

At Albany and Corvallis, connect with trains of the Oregon Pacific Railroad.

Express Train.

Leave.	Arrive.
Portland ..... 4:30 P. M.	McMinnville ..... 8:20 P. M.
McMinnville ..... 5:45 A. M.	Portland ..... 9:00 A. M.

Local tickets for sale and baggage checked at company's up-town office, corner First and Second streets.
Tickets for principal points in California can be procured at company's office, corner Front and Pettock streets, Portland, Oregon.
Freight will not be received for shipment after 5 P. M. on either the East or West Side Divisions.
R. P. ROGERS, Asst. G. F. & P. Agent.
E. KORTHER, Manager.

OREGON RAILWAY & NAVIGATION CO.
COLUMBIA RIVER ROUTE

Two trains daily, leaving Ash-st. dock at 10:40 A. M. and 2 P. M. The 10:40 A. M. train runs through to Walla Walla and Dayton, connecting at Wallula Junction with Northern Pacific for Helena, St. Paul and the East. The 2 P. M. train runs through to Pendleton (with Sunday excursion to Pilot Rock and Baker City, connecting at Huntington with Oregon Short Line for Denver, Council Bluffs, Kansas City and the East. Pullman Palace and Family Sleeping Cars on all through trains. West-bound trains arrive at 7:15 A. M. and 4:20 P. M.

San Francisco Line.

From Portland. Leaving at 12 Midnight.	From San Francisco. Leaving Spear st. 10 A. M.
State Cals. June 1, 15, 25	Oregon ..... June 4, 14, 24
Columbia ..... June 8, 18	Oregon ..... July 4, 14, 24
Oregon ..... June 9, 21	Columbia ..... June 12, 22

The company reserves the right to change steamers or sailing days.
To Astoria.—Steamers R. R. Thompson and S. G. Reed leave Ash street dock every day at 11:30 P. M., D. S. mail steamer leaves Ash street daily, except Sunday, at 6 A. M. for Astoria.
To Salem and Cascades.—Leave Ash street 6 A. M., except Sun

PROGRAMME FOR TO-DAY.

Battalion Drill, to Take Place at the White House.

Plenty of Transportation Provided by Rail and River—Information for Visitors and Participants.

The only important change in the celebration programme for to-day, as previously announced, is that the first regiment battalion drill will take place at Riverside (the old White House grounds, five miles up the river), instead of Clinton & McCoy's grounds, East Portland. Particulars as to how to get there will be found below.

In case of rain the literary exercises will be held at the regimental armory, corner of Ninth and C streets.

THE PARADE.

Col. C. F. Beebe, who will be grand marshal to-day, yesterday issued the order of parade, as follows:

One platoon of mounted police, under command of Chief S. B. Parrish.

FIRST DIVISION—Lieut.-Col. C. Summers, commanding.

First Regiment Band.
First Regiment Infantry, O. N. G., under command of Lieut.-Col. C. Summers.

SECOND DIVISION—T. A. Jordan commanding.

Marine Band.
Grand Army of the Republic.
Liberty Car.
Veteran Firemen.
Veteran Police.

THIRD DIVISION—A. E. Borthwick, commanding.

Knights of Pythias.
President of the day, governor of the state and staff, orator, chaplain, reader of Declaration of Independence, mayor and city officials, foreign consuls and other invited guests and citizens, in carriages.

FOURTH DIVISION—Chief Harry Morgan commanding.

Portland Fire Band.
Volunteer Firemen's Association.
Portland Fire Department.

The several divisions will form in close column, as follows: First division on Belmont street, facing west, head of column resting on Sixth street. Second division on Salmon street, facing east, head of column resting on Sixth street. Third division on Taylor street, facing west, head of column resting on Sixth street. Fourth division on Taylor street, facing east, head of column resting on Sixth street.

Division formation must be complete at 9:45 A. M., when promptly at the hour division commanders will report the presence of their divisions to the grand marshal, at the intersection of Salmon and Sixth streets.

The various organizations will be conducted to their positions in the column by aides-de-camp, who will not obstruct or in any manner interfere with the formation of other divisions.

Division commanders and aides-de-camp will report, mounted, to the grand marshal at the Oak club, Fourth and Oak streets, promptly at 9:45 A. M., to receive their last orders and instructions.

At 10 o'clock this will be sounded on the city fire bell to announce that all are to be in readiness for a start, and at 10 o'clock precisely one tap will be sounded and the head of the column will move forward, passing north through Sixth street, and over the same route as prescribed in the line of march, before the column will be reviewed by His Excellency, Sylvester Pennoyer, governor of the state, and party.

Each division commander having received the reviewing officer's salute, will proceed with his division to the position assigned him for the line of march, and place himself on the right of the grand marshal, facing to the front.

Having passed the reviewing officer, the column will be filed to the right, and proceed by the most direct route to the place of dismissal, where the column will be reformed, and the line of march resumed, as before, to the point of dismissal, and so on until the column has passed the reviewing officer for the second time, when it will be dismissed.

In column, by company, or platoon, right wheel by sections, or companies, to march by the flank; to change direction, by the right flank, the guide will move forward in the direction of the turn, and the column will follow, each company, or platoon, wheeling at the proper point.

The line of march is as follows: Start north on B; east on Belmont; countermarch to Montgomery; west on Montgomery to West Park; north on West Park to Taylor; east on Taylor to Park; north on Park to Taylor; east on Taylor to Fourth; south to and past reviewing stand at court house.

LIST OF AIDES.

Ralph Rodney, first lieutenant and adjutant and chief of staff; W. H. Corbett, W. W. Brazelton, C. Henderson, Sanderson Reed, F. H. Saylor, W. C. Taylor, W. H. Wright, Frederick Mackenzie, John McCornick, F. H. Andrews, Hal Green, Joseph Gay, O. F. Paxton.

The First regiment, O. N. G., has been ordered to assemble at the armory on C street, between Ninth and Tenth, at 9:30 A. M., for the exhibition battalion drill. Blank cartridges will be used in the firing during the drill, and it is expected the effect will be fine.

AT THE PARK.

Literary exercises begin at 12 M. at the court house, as follows:

Music—"Star Spangled Banner."

Introductory remarks by the president of the day, Hon. Matthew P. Deady.

Prayer, by the chaplain, Rev. W. E. Clapp.

Reading the Declaration of Independence by C. M. Idleman, esq.

Music—Hail, White and Blue."

Oration, by Hon. George H. Williams.

Music—"America."

Grand game between the Portlands and Willamettes, at Clinton & McCoy's, East Portland. Particulars elsewhere.

RIVERSIDE DRILL.

The battalion drill takes place at the Riverside grounds instead of Clinton & McCoy's place. The fact that both the grounds and the pavilion stand (seating 5,000 people) at Riverside will be entirely free, made this change advisable. Following is a description for reaching the grounds: Steamers (Dixie Thompson and barge leave Ash street wharf at 3 P. M. Steamer City of Salem, foot of Yamhill street at the same time. Trains will also leave foot of Lincoln street every half hour, commencing 1:15 P. M. to 6 P. M. Fare (for adult trip) in all these cases ten cents. Drill commences at 4 o'clock, and will occupy about one hour and will be interspersed with music. Six companies, commanded by Col. C. F. Beebe, will participate in the drill, which promises to be a most interesting features of the celebration.

Col. C. F. Beebe, has issued the following circular order in regard to the drill.

I.
[illegible] TARGETS.
II.
ATTACK.
III.
DRILL.

Front (left).
Left front into line.
Change front on rear rank, company right wheel.
On right into line.
Yourself.
On left into line.
Countermarch, by company right wheel.
Left front into column, company, on left half wheel.
Forward, guide center.
Fours, right (or left) about, guide center.
Fours, right (or left) about, battalion halt.
Forward, guide center.
Change front on first company, companies right half wheel.

Column of fours, front into right, march to left.
Fours left, battalion halt.
Rear (open) order.
Manual of arms.
Read (during which the band will play), close column on first company, right in front.
Forward, guide left.
On first company, deploy column, (while marching).
Double column, fours left and right.
Forward, guide right.
Deploy column, fours right and left, (while marching).
Fours right.
To the right, close column of companies.
Forward, guide left.
Change direction by left flank (while marching).
Forward, guide left.
On Fourth company, deploy column, fours right and left (while marching).
Forward, guide center.
Double column, fours left and right, (while marching).
Forward, guide left.
Left into line, wheel, right companies on left into line.
The drill will be interspersed with firing (blank cartridges) by company, wing, battalion and by at such times from line, and pending completion of successive formations, as the nature of the ground and disposition of spectators will permit.

IN THE EVENING.

7 P. M.—Conclusion of Davison brothers' tight-rope performance at postoffice.

9:30 P. M.—Grand fireworks at Eleventh and Montgomery. The Washington-street line and branches and the Third-street line and branches run to the grounds.

12 P. M.—If the night proves clear, LOOK FOR THE ILLUMINATION OF MOUNT HOOD.

NOTES.

The grand stand at Riverside during the battalion drill will be set apart for ladies and their escort.

Stringent orders have been issued by Chief Parrish to arrest any one throwing firecrackers or explosives of any description during the procession. This may not please the average American boy, but it will prevent a stampede during the parade.

Official programmes can be found at the following places: S. G. Skidmore, Baum, Bernard & Co., Simon Harris, H. H. Hildebrand, Woodard, Clark & Co., Kohn & Lappin, Streiby & Lane, Wiley B. Allen and Meilis & Co. Parties receiving these programmes are requested not to put any advertisement on them and to distribute them carefully, as they are very expensive.

THE PORTLAND HOSPITAL.

Now Offers Elected—Temporary Quarters, Centrally Located, Secured for One Year.

The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Portland hospital, was held yesterday afternoon, at the parlors of Ladd & Tilton's bank. The following persons were chosen as trustees to serve for the term of three years: Elected by the board, A. S. Nichols and C. H. Hall; nominated for election by the Oregon conference, I. D. Driver and O. B. Whitmore; by the Columbia river conference, Dan Fench and W. S. Simpson; by the Puget sound conference, J. H. Skidmore and J. K. Gill; by the Idaho conference, W. S. Harrington.

The following persons were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, G. W. Stone; vice-president, John Kenworthy; secretary, George H. Chavoe; executive committee, R. F. Fraser, John Kenworthy, H. W. Scott.

A resolution constituting a committee to be known and designated as the hospital committee, and composed of Dr. R. F. Fraser, Rodney Glisan, Richard Kelly, James Browne, W. E. Bischart and the president and secretary, with power to organize a hospital staff, employ a matron, steward, nurses, etc., and to open a hospital at once, was unanimously adopted.

A proposition from parties holding in trust the Mariners' Home, a building on the corner of Thirteenth and B streets, tendering the use of said building to the Portland hospital for a number of years, was accepted. This building, although designed for sailors' purposes, is admirably adapted for the present hospital, and affords ample accommodation for over 100 patients, is nearly new, substantially built, and supplied with all modern improvements. This building will be occupied until the proposed building is constructed, and being centrally located will afford the Portland hospital superior advantages. The plans and specifications for the new building were, on motion, referred to the new executive board.

The position of financial agent of the Portland hospital was tendered to Rev. Charles McDonald of Deadwood, W. T. Adjourned.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY.

Portland to Have, Another Valuable Educational Institution.

At a meeting of the faculty of the medical department of the Willamette University held last evening it was decided to inaugurate at once in this city a college of pharmacy and a full corps of professors was selected to fill the chairs. The announcement for the first session of lectures, which will commence in October, will be issued at once. The pharmaceutical and chemical laboratories will be fitted up and the lectures will be given in the new college building, corner Fourteenth and C streets, which affords ample facilities for both schools.

The faculty of the medical department of the Willamette University are pleased to announce the decision of the trustees of the Portland hospital to open their hospital at once, as the hospital staff will be composed of their faculty. This will greatly increase their chemical facilities, making their advantages in this direction equal to any medical school on the Pacific coast.

TO-DAY'S BALL GAME.

The Portlands and Willamettes to Present Their Full Strength.

The game between the Portlands and Willamettes at Clinton & McCoy's grounds this afternoon will be called at 1:30. Both teams will present their best nines and a spirited game will be played. Turnbull, the catcher of the Willamettes who was injured in Sunday's game, will be able to take his place behind the bat. Following are the nines:

Portlands.		Willamettes.
McCarty	Catcher	Turnbull
McMillen	Pitcher	T. Parrott
Beatie	Short stop	Bachtell
McMillen	First base	G. Parrott
Lee	Second base	Bailey
Cannon	Third base	W. Parrott
Mobus	Left field	Kerns
McGuire	Center field	McCarthy
Burke	Right field	Nord

At the conclusion of the game a boat will leave the grounds for Riverside park, where the battalion drill is to take place.

AN ARCHITECT SELECTED.

The Hotel Company Chooses the Man Who Drew the Original Plans.

Mr. W. M. Whidden of Boston Engaged—He Will Finish the Work He Began—Bids of Local Architects.

Pursuant to call of President H. W. Corbett of the board of directors of the Portland Hotel Company, a meeting was held last evening at the parlors of the First National bank.

Mr. Corbett occupied the chair, and Theo. Wygant, secretary, in attendance. The following members of the board were present: Dr. R. Glisan, L. Therkelsen, C. A. Dolph, H. W. Scott, P. C. Smith, E. G. Hughes, Wm. M. Ladd and Van B. DeLashmutt.

The original plans, drawings and papers prepared by Mr. Wm. H. Whidden, having arrived here a few days ago from New York, were on exhibition at the meeting. Those plans were examined in detail and discussed at much length by the members of the board. This inspection and discussion naturally led up to the important question of the selection of a thoroughly competent architect, who should take complete personal charge of the work of construction of the building, and to modify the original plans so as to conform to the views of the board, or if necessary, draw new plans.

Chairman Corbett stated that the building committee was in receipt of several propositions from architects, including Mr. Whidden of Boston.

On motion, the chairman proceeded to read the propositions submitted. The first was from Mr. Whidden, which was substantially as follows:

I made the original plans and specifications; for working the drawings in detail and the specifications necessary, 2½ per cent on these; 5 per cent, if existing new plans necessary, traveling expenses for self to be included. I promise to give the best attention and to secure the most successful result.

This proposition was made by wire and is, therefore, brief. Subsequently the building committee telegraphed Mr. Whidden on some points on which there was a hazily clear understanding. As a result it was understood that Mr. Whiddon's proposition included the furnishing by him of a superintendent who should have constant charge of the work of construction. This superintendent will doubtless be Mr. Whidden himself, and when he is necessarily absent, to leave some experienced and competent person in charge. Wm. Stokes made the following proposition:

First—I will give my entire time and professional service in making drawings and superintend the construction of the hotel for the sum of $200 per month.

Second—I will make all necessary changes in the plans and design for the sum of 1½ per cent on the cost of the building.

Third—I will superintend the entire construction of the building to completion for the sum of 3½ per cent on the cost.

Fourth—Will make all required details for the entire construction of the building for the sum of three-fourths per cent on the cost.

Fifth—Will give full professional services and furnish all necessary draughtsmen, for the sum of $250 per month.

Smith & Williams submitted the following proposition:

For general superintendence of the work, our charges are to be 1 per cent on the cost of the work.

For all necessary drawings required to complete the drawings on the building, we charge for actual draughting expenses only—the difference between professional architectural wages on the same, and our charges for the same to be considered as a donation on our part to the hotel company, the expenses of the same to be borne by the hotel company.

The full cost of services required above we claim will not exceed the sum of $7000, and more likely less than that amount.

W. F. McCaw's proposition was substantially as follows:

For personal superintendence, one 1 cent on the cost of work; all details which have to be made 1 per cent on all work.

If only partial details, to be paid for by the day, or, after seeing what detail drawing would be necessary, to agree upon a percentage of say ½ to ¾ per cent, as the case may be.

Alterations of original drawings (if any) to be charged for by the day unless a fee could be agreed upon. A draughtsman's salary would be from $5 to $8 per day, according to ability, and my own time for day's work at the rate of $10 per day.

These respective propositions were considered separately and discussed in detail.

Finally Mr. Ladd moved that the board proceed to elect an architect to take charge of the plans, work of construction, etc.; carried.

Mr. Van B. DeLashmutt moved that the proposition of Williams & Smith be accepted, with the definite understanding that the total cost would not, under any circumstances exceed $7000. The motion was seconded, but discussed freely for some time.

Mr. Dolph moved to amend the motion by substituting the name of Mr. Whidden in place of Messrs. Williams and Smith. This was seconded, with the understanding that the condition of the $7000 was not included in the amendment. After considerable discussion the motion was put and carried nearly unanimously.

On motion, Mr. Corbett was instructed to notify Mr. Whidden that he had been elected architect, and for him to come at once to Portland.

Mr. DeLashmutt moved that the building committee be empowered to purchase all needed materials, to make contracts and to do whatever was deemed necessary in the way of employing workmen, etc. Also, that it be the sense of the board of directors that the hotel building be enclosed before the coming winter, if possible.

Mr. Corbett officially notified the board that all preliminaries regarding the purchase of the hotel were at an end. The deeds had been duly executed and recorded, and the purchase price—$125,000—had been paid over.

On motion the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

Mr. Whidden was the supervising architect of the hotel which Villard started to build and which Portland will complete. He also built the Tacoma hotel.

POLICE COURT CASES.

The case of William Dickinson, of whose arrest, on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, mention was made in yesterday's paper, came up in police court. J. E. Fagalde, at whom Dickinson took a shot, was present and made a statement of the circumstances of the shooting. The case was continued until Friday. Dickinson's bail was fixed at $250.

The case of Geo. Morey, who made an assault on his brother-in-law, John Thiel, and his mother-in-law in the city, was continued until Friday. His bail was fixed at $250.

Ben McMillan, larceny of a lot of clothing from a Chinese tailor shop, waived examination, and his bail was fixed at $100.

Mrs. Jane J. Kenan, charged with doing malicious injury to property, had her hearing again continued till Friday.

BIG MINING INCORPORATION.

Company Organized with $5,000,000 Capital Stock to Work in Coeur d'Alene.

Articles of incorporation of the Portland Mining Company were filed in the county court yesterday. The incorporators are John G. Davenport, W. L. Sherman and O. P. Paxton. The object of the corporation is to engage in mining, smelting and the buying, selling and development of mines. The principal office is to be in Portland, but the corporation proposes to carry on business in other states and territories. The capital stock is to be $5,000,000 in shares of $1 each. The company owns four mines on Beaver creek, Coeur d'Alene, the Silver Tip, Sitting Bull, Red Dragon and Mule Deer, and have a force of men employed in developing them.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the company yesterday the following board of directors was elected: J. H. Smith, J. C. Davenport, P. C. Kauffman, J. P. Kohler, John Marsh of Pennsylvania, G. B. Markle, Jr., and J. E. Hoss of Spokane Falls. The directors organized by electing Geo. B. Markle, Jr. president, J. C. Davenport vice-president, W. L. Sherman secretary and treasurer. The company has a very valuable mining property and all the capital necessary for securing the best results from it.

A RAINY FOURTH UNUSUAL.

Only One Day in Fifteen Years When We Had a Wet Celebration.

Thousands of anxious eyes were scanning the heavens last evening to endeavor to form an idea of what the prospects were for fine weather to-day. Of course, the chief desire for a clear sky was in order that the illumination of Mt. Hood in the evening might be seen. There was but little hope to be gathered from the aspect of the clouds, and the remark: "Of course it will rain on the Fourth," was frequently heard, as if it were the usual thing to have rain on that day.

For the benefit of all who are inclined to growl, it may be stated that the records of the signal service station show that there have been but three Fourths of July on which it has rained since the station was established here fifteen years ago. On the Fourth, 1874, it rained .01 of an inch, in 1878 it rained .03 of an inch on the Fourth, and in 1879 .22 of an inch. On the night of the 3rd of July, 1884, .02 of an inch fell, so it will be seen that, despite all opinion to the contrary, a rainy Fourth of July is an uncommon thing here.

REJOICED AT HARRISON'S NOMINATION

What a Fellow-Townsman Says of the Candidate for President.

A prominent gentleman of this city is in receipt of the following letter from Judge William Wallace (a brother of Gen. Lew Wallace, the author of "Ben-Hur,") of Indianapolis, under date of June 26:

I can only send you word this morning how we joined we all are in Harrison's nomination. Could you see the wild enthusiasm our people for the state, you could have no doubt of Indiana's choice. We will make the campaign a greater and more successful one than that of 1840.

Oregon was all right. Say to her people they will never regret the choice of the convention of 1888. It not only means success in November, but what is far better, a revulsion of the better nature. How will grow in the estimation of the people as they come to know better the purity of life and its splendid intellectual qualities. Yes, you may turn upon him the electric light of public opinion, and his character and life will only shine with a brighter lustre.

Judge Wallace is one of the foremost lawyers of Indiana and was Harrison's law partner before the war, when both men were just beginning eventful careers.

NATIONAL HYMN.

Native land, may Heaven's name
Bend its promise over thee;
Breathe of peace in bounteous measure
Eastern to thy Western sea!
More than jewelled wealth thou bearest
While good sons adorn thy breast;
So the talisman thou wearest—
May it keep thee great and blest!

Should dark war to thee be fated,
Fraught with dangers, toil and wreck,
Those, whom love hath animated,
Still shall keep thy foemen back.
Take these hearts, thou life-time donor,
As thy nursing recompense;
Take these arms and be their owner,
For thy bulwark and defense!

Stars of statehood rich of lustre,
Bound by laws that deeply move,
May they keep the self-same cluster
Like those fixed in the heavens above.
Keep the radiant group eternal,
Let none pale nor stand aloof;
Filial love that makes fraternal,
Put dissension to reproof!

When each morn shall greet the flashing
Of thy troops throughout the land,
Thou shalt see all hostile clashing
Fall like waves upon the strand.
Lo! thy sons in squadrons closing—
Bid them forward in review;
In alignment grand, imposing,
And with march-step firm and true

Arts of peace may not so claim us
That thou callest us in vain;
Deeds of stress that made thee famous
Shall be acted o'er again:
More than jewelled wealth thou bearest
While good sons adorn thy breast;
So the talisman thou wearest
Shall preserve thee great and blest!

—JOHN H. HALL.

Port Townsend.

ALBINA
Weekly Courier.
Official Paper of the City.
If you have property in Albina, or contemplate investing, you should keep posted on the local affairs of this "Phenomenal City" by subscribing for the
ALBINA WEEKLY COURIER
One Year, $2; 6 Mos. $1.
An Excellent Advertising Medium.
ADDRESS, THE COURIER, Albina, Oregon

NO TIDINGS FROM MT. HOOD.

Clouds Still Obscure the Hoary Headed Sentinel.

An Interview with a Very Lonely Observer—Some Hope of Establishing Communication To-Day.

Signal Service Observer E. J. Glass was alone in his solitude in the high tower of the Kamm building when an OREGONIAN reporter wended his weary way up the long stairways and joined him last evening. He knew what the reporter had called for and began explaining right away:

"I haven't seen the least signal from the Mount Hood party," he said. "The sky was so obscured with clouds to-day that it was useless for me to attempt to use my heliograph. To-night I came up here with a very slim hope of receiving a signal from the party, but the condition of the sky is no better. If I had received any sign, I would communicate with them by means of calcium light flashes reflected by a mirror."

The little square room in the tower looked as if it were the rendezvous of an astronomer. In one corner stood a great, long telescope. Beside, there was a heliograph, calcium light, field glass and several minor instruments. Here Mr. Glass will station himself to-day and keep an anxious lookout for Mount Hood, should it raise its hoary head above the clouds around it. His heliograph and telescope will be kept ready for service at the least favorable opportunity. If the weather is auspicious the heliograph will be adjusted on the mountain during the day and at night the party will be communicated with by means of calcium light thrown obliquely against the mirror of the heliograph and reflected to the mountain.

Weather predictions are difficult to make, which Wiggins and scores of others will attest, but fair weather may be reasonably expected to-day. The prospects were not at all bright yesterday morning, indicating continued rain, but were more favorable last evening when the wind had veered around from the south to the northwest. At midnight a beak northwest wind prevailed and a few stars were dimly visible behind their fleecy curtains. Reports received at the signal service office last evening disclosed that the barometer was rising in Oregon and Washington and falling in California—a very good sign. When night closed in a bright streak, stretching from west to north illuminated the northwestern sky, and rested on a bank of clouds just above the horizon. Such indications are always favorable, looked upon in stormy weather and the nearer the streak is to the horizon the better. If Mount Hood is only obscured by fleecy clouds the illumination may be a success in a measure, for the red fire will certainly give a sanguinary hue to the fleecy clouds.

FROM ASHLAND.

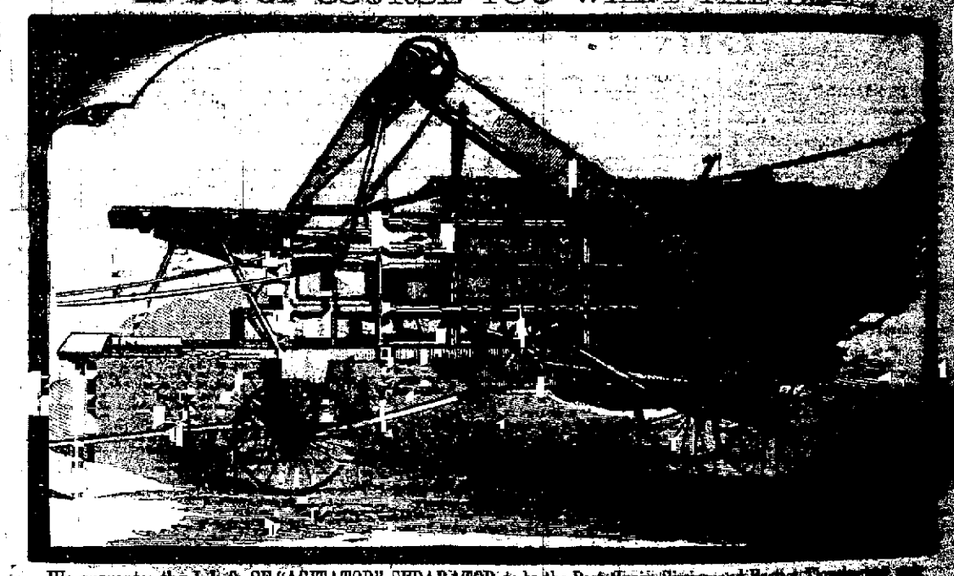
ASHLAND, July 1.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

During the large and enthusiastic torchlight procession, which headed by the Ashland silver cornet band, opened the ratification meeting for Harrison and Morton, on the plaza last night, a new step-word which

[illegible] BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. DR. W. CROWLEY & CO., [illegible]

STANDARD WHITE
[illegible]rts!
In all sizes—regular price $1,
50 CTS.
THIS DAY ONLY.
C[illegible]T-NG
All-Wool Oregon Cassimere Men's Suits.
Here! Veiled Sign: The Great [illegible]
SE[illegible]
First and Taylor Sts.

IF SO, OF COURSE YOU WANT THE BEST.


We guarantee the J. I. Case "AGITATOR" SEPARATOR to be the Best Grain Saving and Fastest Thresher [illegible]
We have over four hundred of these celebrated machines in operation in Oregon and Washington, all of which are in the highest satisfaction. We are prepared to furnish you statements from the leading farmers and threshermen to prove this. There are twice as many "Agitators" sold each season, throughout the United States, as any other style or make of thresher. This is no experimental machine that must be sold cheap in order to introduce it, but is conceded to be THE BEST, and consequently, upon its merits, the cheapest. In buying an "AGITATOR" you are making no experiment and running no risk. We guarantee it in every way superior to every other thresher built. You cannot afford to buy a thresher without first examining ours. DO NOT BE TALKED INTO BUYING A MACHINE BECAUSE IT IS CHEAP OR NEW-FANGLED.
Remember, we guarantee the J. I. Case "Agitator" the best and fastest thresher made, and are ready to prove it. It is not only safer and cheaper for you to buy a thresher known to be reliable in every respect than to experiment with a new-fangled machine for the benefit of some Eastern factory who want their machines experimented with at your expense, while your grain is in danger of being ruined, and you are at heavy expense for teaming.
Remember, your whole dependence is upon your crop proceeds; and if you endanger it by experimenting with new-fangled machines, you do so at great loss to yourself. We insure you against all these annoyances when you buy with our J. I. Case Agitator, which has been thoroughly tested for years in this country and is known to be perfectly reliable, BEING BUILT ESPECIALLY FOR THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE TRADE.
We also sell the only genuine DINGEE WOODBURY HORSE-POWER made. Beware of imitations.
The J. I. CASE PORTABLE AND TRACTION ENGINES have been in general use in Oregon and Washington for years, and we guarantee them to be, and are ready to prove them to be, the most powerful, most durable, safest, surest constructed and of better materials than any other Engines made.
We are also AGENTS for the Celebrated JACKSON'S DERRICKS, SELF-FEEDERS AND FORKS.
Buy our RANDOLPH IMPROVED STEEL FRAME HEADER, guaranteed the Simplest, Lightest and Best Steel Frame Header in use. We sell the ONLY STEEL FRAME HEADER MADE. SAVE MONEY by calling on us or writing for our prices and terms, and all other information regarding the above machinery.
STAVER & WALKER, General Agents, Portland, Or.

HOW TO GET RICH!
IT IS A TRUTH THAT WE ALL LIKE TO MAKE MONEY.
And it is no less a fact that in this advertisement we will tell the truth, and show our readers how to make money, make it fast, and plenty of it. The advice contained in this space would not be given if there was a possibility of uncertainty. The ground plan or basis of almost every great or small fortune the world over is ownership of land. The opportunity for thousands of our citizens to become wealthy is now presented. The poor as well as the rich can buy land and lots in ALBINA.
Lots can be bought on small monthly installments or for cash. The Most Beautifully Located and Sightly Residence Lots within a radius of ten miles of Portland can be had in Albina at Nominal Terms, considering the [illegible] and certain future of the city. Business Lots which will shortly be worth thousands can now be bought for a few hundred. Acre Property and Manufacturing Sites can be secured now at prices which in twelve months hence will be worth and will readily sell at quadruple the amount.
THIS IS OUR PLAN TO MAKE MONEY:
Buy Lots in Albina; buy all you can, and hold on to them. Don't sell as soon as they double in price. They will more than quadruple. We have reasons for believing this, and they are many. ALBINA is already selected by the O. R. & N. Co., Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Oregon Short Line and O. & C. Railway Companies in which to build their Mammoth Union Car and Machine Shops and Freight [illegible] which upward of a million and a half dollars have been already expended. All these railroads terminate at Albina.
ALBINA is located opposite the north end of Portland, on the east bank of the river. The high table land back of the business center of Albina is the most beautiful spot for homes in Oregon. From this sightly spot one has a full view of Portland proper, Mount Hood, Mount St. Helens and the Heights back of the city. The largest docks and warehouses in Oregon are located at Albina. A dry dock, capable of accommodating the largest ship afloat, is under construction at Albina. A shelter is proposed to be built at Albina. Albina is below all the bridges which span the river, and must always remain the great shipping point of the metropolis of the Northwest. Ferries ply between the center of Portland and Albina every five [illegible]. Steam and water lines are being constructed through the city, and will be in operation before the summer is over. All improvements by the railroad companies and capitalists interested in Albina are being pushed forward on a scale portending a rapid and wonderful growth in increase of population and value of property. The man who buys now will make immense profits. For full information apply to the following well known gentlemen and reputable [illegible] worth, [illegible] Block, [illegible] W. Cook, on Oak street; E. Montgomery's agent, opposite north end Montgomery dock, Albina; Geo. F. [illegible]ent, 53½ Morrison street; J. F. [illegible]zeltine, 214 Front street; Van B. DeLashmutt, Mayor of Portland; [illegible] Washington street; E. E. Oatman, corner Front and Washington; Julius M. Pilkington, Albina; D. P. Sherman, Cashier Oregon National Bank; T. W. Pittinger, Albina; Jacob Kamm, Merchants Hotel; Thompson & Mueller, Albina; D. S. [illegible] Albina; Dr. J. Shrimm; A. F. [illegible], Albina; [illegible]; T. C. Vreeland, Albina, or G. S. Perpetual. Party leaves foot of Oak street every half hour.